and either acted upon directly or given to the proper authorities.

Besides trying to solve school problems, the Council tries to augment school spirit and general welfare, aid the community through its Annual Christmas Project, and raise money for worthwhile school affairs.

The Council is an active, indispensable organization in Coventry High School.

Coventry participated in the Western Division of Class C. The team did not quite live up to its early season expectations, but great determination and sportsmanship were displayed by the Knotty Oakers. Although six players will be lost due to graduation, Coach Doug Hopper is hopeful of a good turnout for next year's team.

Leading scorer Mike Maglioli hits again.
Let's get that rebound.

"Let's get that rebound."

Nice try anyway.

John Chevalier scores on a driving lay-up.

Ben Addy leads a fast break.

Rick Riley makes good a free-throw.

The start of another hard fought game.

Steve Pagliarini hits from the free-throw line.

"An Oaker flies high."

Jump to the ceiling, jump to the sky?!

G. B. battles for a rebound.

Tap it to the Oakers side.

Coach Szymkowicz gives his boys a pep talk.
"STUFF JOB!"

Big Boxcar hits on a lay-up.

"Looks like a swish!"

Oakers on the move.

"What do you guys say, lets knock the lead down to only 20."

"What can I do, he's bigger than me."

COVENTRY DEFEATS BRISTOL!
The Cheerleaders were once again outstanding in promoting Coventry’s good sportsmanship at cross country meets, basketball games, and wrestling matches.

A moment of indecision.

"We'll meet you in the parking lot after the game."
Covetry moves toward Victory.
We're the red, we're the white!

Let's go Oakers, lets go!

J. V.'s fight!
The Golf season began in April, and, as usual, great enthusiasm for it was shown by the students. Tryouts were held at the Coventry Pines Golf Course on Harkney Hill Road. Under experienced coach Arthur Montanaro the team has done well and hopes to continue its success in the future.
The wrestling team under new coach Richard Magarian has gained increasing importance this year. For the first time in CHS wrestling history three members, Wayne Jarrel, Greg Hudson, and Norman Messier represented Coventry on the Suburban All-Star team. With the exception of three Seniors, the entire squad will return next year with the hopes of improving Coventry's reputation.

Cal Hopkins struggles for victory.

Norm Messier, one of our three all stars, fights for a pin.

Don Papineau tries for a takedown.

"Uncle!"

Mike DiMeglio, ready for action.
An Oaker on top.

"These new dances always get me down."

"Let me whisper in your ear."

Victory!

Wayne Jarrel moves in.

Cal Hopkins tries a new hold.
Coventry's 1963 Cross Country Team had a record of 4 wins and 4 losses, under new coach Dale Binegar. The team was paced by ace junior Humbert DeGregory. He was ably backed by Mike Lavoie, Ernie Pike, Ronnie Fielder, and Ronnie Allen. With interest increasing, the loss of only three members of the varsity, and the great success of the J.V.'s, Coventry can look forward to greater success in the future.
Dickie Bonner

Dave Snow

Ernie Pike

On your mark, get set...

"Let's forget the race and go get a coke."

"Why they make us run in our pajamas, I'll never know!"
The baseball team this year was once again coached by Mr. Ciesla and Mr. Szymkowicz. Five returning veterans insured a successful baseball season. With the team composed largely of sophomores and juniors, Coventry should have many more prosperous seasons.

COMMENCEMENT

Our hearts shall always hold dear the memories of the evening of May 29, 1964. The Commencement Ball, Joanne and her escort dance smooth and easy.

Ball held at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet, was the last of our class dances.
The long awaited arrival of our yearbooks finally was upon us. Amid the festivities of the evening the books were distributed. Eager eyes looked on as Mr. Allen R. Moores, Literary Advisor of the Knotty Oak, received the dedication. Anne Clarke, editor-in-chief of the yearbook, revealed the dedication, and Ronald Pelletier, class president, was the emcee for the night.
Stephanie Sambor receives her R.I. Honor Society pin.

Cynthia Boeglin cheerfully accepts the Crisco award.

Janet Parenteau is the highest ranking business student.

AWARDS DAY—SPORTS

Blazers are received with pride.

1964's honored Lettermen.

Sweaters are presented.
Senator Fecteau congratulates Judy.

Bob leads the class in song.

Pelky receives his diploma.

Julie addresses the audience.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Coventry High's largest senior class graduated on June 11, 1964. This was our school's first outdoor Commencement. Proud parents and friends watched as each graduate received his diploma. It was with delight and the feeling of accomplishment that we departed from the school grounds as graduates of Coventry High School.
