Sophomores Realized their Role in Student Body.

Mrs. Marilyn Moore, Advisor

The sophomore class members have shed their fears and uncertainties. This group of students has become very familiar with Coventry High School and has contributed much to it. Members of the Sophomore Class participated in school functions and accepted the challenges which accompanied these extra-curricular activities.

The sophomore class unfortunately had a limited social calendar. The main event was a dance which was held in early spring. However, these foresighted students, by electing personable officers, guaranteed the success of this event.

George Bourque was chosen as president, Wayne Miller vice-president, Jean Gudas as secretary, and Becky Albro as treasurer. The sophomore social committee included Janice Wojcik, chairman; Wendy Walker, Melissa Campbell, David Clary, and Steven Rossi.

Mrs. Marilyn Moore, class advisor, helped to stabilize and unify the sophomore class. Now they are ready for the social events, merriment, and work of the junior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS: Jean Gudas, Secretary; Rebecca Albro, Treasurer; Wendy Walker, Social Committee; David Clary, Social Committee; Melissa Campbell, Social Committee; George Bourque, President; Wayne Miller, Vice-President; Janice Wojcik, Social Committee Chairman; Steve Rossi, Social Committee.

Juniors Experienced the Excitement of Attending a Prom, Receiving a Ring, and Visiting a Village.

Mrs. Nancy Cyr, Advisor

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Michael Angell, President; Christine Hurlbut, Social Committee Chairman; Sandra O'Connor, Secretary; Paul Suorsa, Social Committee; Marcia Bourque, Social Committee; Louis Martin, Vice-President; Joan D'Andrea, Social Committee; Francis Fortin, Social Committee; Judith Hammontree, Treasurer.

A dream has become a reality to anxious juniors. Although it was not to be the climax of four long high school years, the members of the junior class enjoyed many memorable moments.

Mrs. Nancy Cyr coordinated activities, but encouraged students to develop responsibility as well as originality. The executive board successfully led the class. Elected officers were: Mike Angell, president; Louis Martin, vice-president; Judy Hammontree, treasurer; and Sue O'Connor, secretary.

On December 20th, students from United States History classes toured Old Sturbridge Village. The field trip gave students a broader view of colonial life.

Class rings were ordered in the early school months. The Balfour representative delivered rings on December 13th.

Venus de Milo was the setting for the highlight of junior activities, the Junior Prom. Social committee members Christine Hurlbut, chairman; Franny Fortin, Marcia Bourque, Joan D'Andrea, and Paul Suorsa worked diligently and intensely to establish the mood for an enjoyable evening.

With the taste of gait and glory just beginning to mellow, juniors anticipate their senior year with hearty laughter and warm smiles. It shall hold for them many new and exciting experiences.

SENIORS

Class History

1966

We embarked upon a new experience as freshmen. The excitement of entering a new school, making new friends and greeting our old ones, and becoming familiar with our new environment vanished all too soon. We settled down to work in a new world, a world of Earth Science, Ancient History, Civics, Typing, Wood Shop, Art, Algebra 1, and English 9. The need for leadership was soon recognized, however, and a vote taken. Brian Campbell was raised to presidential status. Barbara Giblin, vice-president; Michael Riordan, secretary; Gary Hudson, treasurer; and Mary Reilly, social committee chairman were chosen to complete the class' executive department. Winter's duration gave way to spring's arrival which was highlighted by an annual event, the Freshman Dance. Mrs. Nancy Cyr, our class advisor, kept a watchful eye over couples attending our "Gaslight Gala." March quickly turned into April. We then traveled to New York City and visited the Cloisters, the Guggenheim Museum, the Museum of Natural History, and the Observatory Roof. We climaxed our trip with a ride on the Staten Island Ferry. Finally June arrived marking the end of the first era of our four year experience. We had harvested a wealth of knowledge and had experienced lasting memories; memories of a dance, a trip, and a class.

1967

Once again it was September and we were prepared to undertake another phase of our four year experience. The fear and excitement we had as freshmen failed to greet us, and we readily adjusted to our old environment. Joseph Cote was elected to lead the class in all social functions. Barbara Giblin, vice-president; Mary Lou Newkirk, secretary; Shirley Holstrom, treasurer; and Ann Matteson, social committee chairman; the other members of the executive staff, contributed significantly to the success of our sophomore year. We began work in a world of Biology, World History, Business Education, Home Economics, Plane Geometry, and English 10. Our routine experienced little change during the long winter months until spring arrived. Mrs. Nancy Cyr, once again our class advisor, helped us to prepare for our annual Sophomore Dance. After many weeks of preparation, "Spring Magic" was a success. Contented with our achievements, growth, understanding, and maturity, we looked upon sophomore year as a fulfilling one.

1968

We returned to Coventry High with the knowledge that an exciting year lay ahead of us. A trip to Sturbridge Village headed the list of social activities planned for our junior year. Once again we recognized the importance of leadership and elected our class officers. Jeffrey Barber was elected president, Barbara Giblin, vice-president; Jacqueline Vallier, treasurer; Mary Lou Newkirk, secretary; and Ann Matteson, social committee chairman. The time approached for us to order our class rings, and with the passing of a few months, we received them. We were truly upperclassmen now. All too soon it was December. Under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Cyr, our class adviser, we planned our Junior Christmas Dance, which highlighted the holiday season for most of us. It was a memory fondly cherished by those who attended. The time for our Junior Promenade soon arrived. Experiencing the excitement of attending our first formal, we selected Leslie Whitman to reign as our queen. The members of her court were Dawn Deming, Debra Lyons, Ann Matteson, and Mary Lou Newkirk. It was a once in a lifetime experience gone by, but not forgotten. We climaxed our junior year on Class Day when we finally achieved our seniority. We had reached the threshold of the last year in our four year experience.

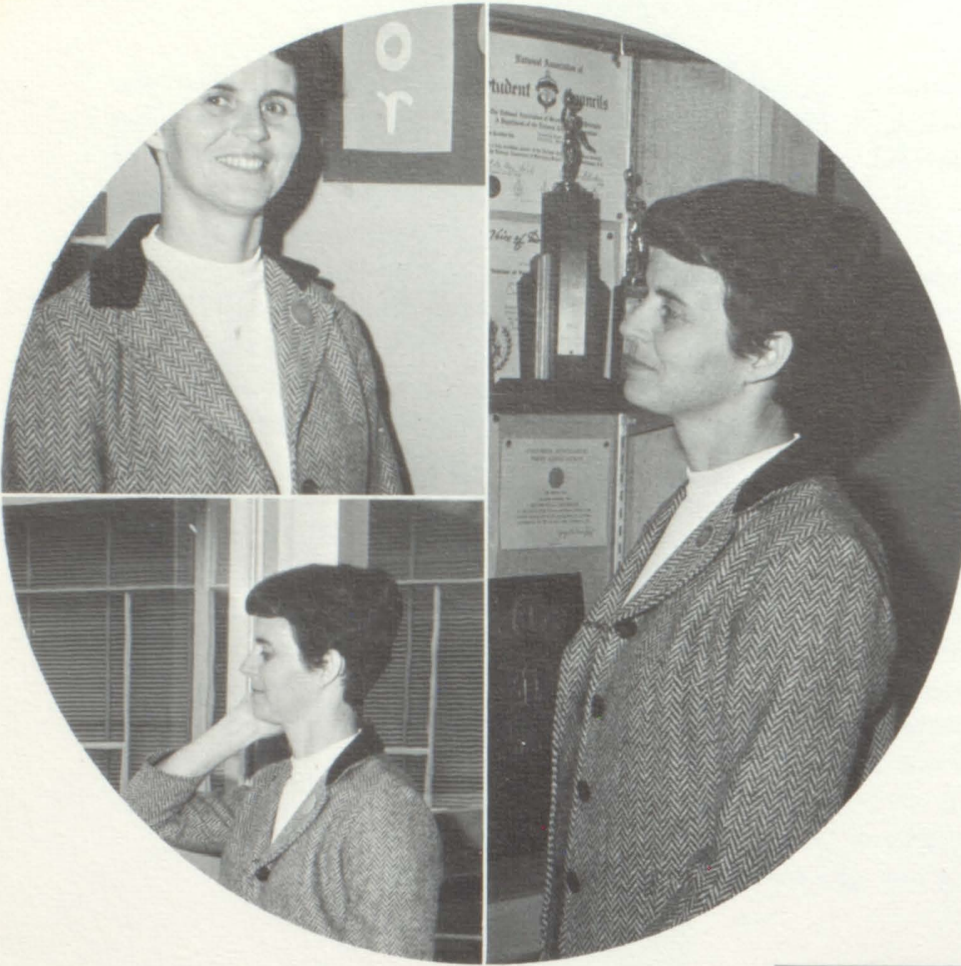

1969

We crossed the threshold of our senior year anxious yet perhaps a little sad. Hopes for the future, memories of the past, and fears of the present filled our hearts and minds. Eager to make our coming year a successful one, we elected our leaders: Jeffrey Barber, president; Norman Beaudoin, vice-president; Jacqueline Vallier, secretary, Mary Lou Newkirk, treasurer; and Debra Iafrati, social committee chairman. Under the direction of Mrs. Joan Robertson, our social committee soon made the arrangements for the first social event of the year, the Senior Harvest Dance. An autumn evening arrived and was soon reduced to just a memory. The approaching trip to the United Nations, however, soon awakened a feeling of anticipation in senior Government students. All too soon this event too became a reality and then just a memory. But our attention was soon directed to the production of our Senior Play, You The Jury. Through the help given to us by Miss Carolyn Churnside, faculty adviser, this event became one of the major successes of our senior year. And then spring arrived bringing with it new enthusiasm and growing anxiety. The future held the excitement of a ball, a banquet, the relinquishment of a title, and graduation. We achieved much in the past four years, but it has been only a start. We are leaving the sheltered world of youth behind us and beginning a new experience in a new and more exciting world as adults.

Seniors Meet the Challenge

We, the class of 1969, would like to express our sincere appreciation and heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Joan Robertson who has helped to make our senior year a memorable one.

We entered our final year at Coventry High enthusiastic about making it a most enjoyable one. Under the direction of our Social Committee Chairman Debra Iafrati and the members of her committee John Horlbogan, Ann Matteson and Deborah Lyons, we prepared for our Senior Harvest Dance. An autumn evening arrived and led by Jeffrey Barber, president; Norman Beaudoin, vice-president; Jacqueline Vallier, secretary; and Mary Newkirk, treasurer; we attended the first of our many activities.

As the Christmas season approached, we focused our attention on the staging of our Senior Play, a courtroom drama entitled You the Jury.

Soon a day we had all anticipated, the day of our Senior Ball arrived. Reflections of our past four years filled our minds as we danced and participated in the Grand March.

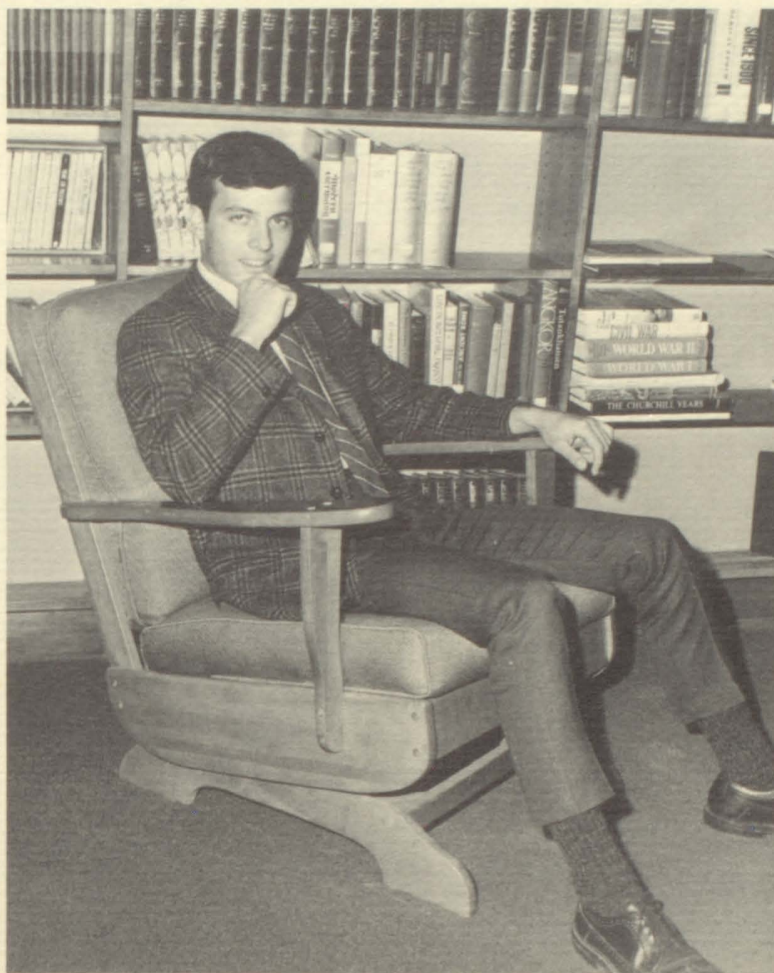

Highlighting our Senior Banquet was the presentation of the Knotty Oak, the reading of the class will and the presentation of the class gifts. The following day we relinquished our seniority at Class Day exercises.

But the most exciting and important event was the last to come. Graduation marked the fulfillment of a dream and the beginning of all our tomorrows.

of Leadership

A President

Fellow Classmates:

As our high school careers draw to a close, we realize that we have grown in many ways. Through the efforts of our teachers we have acquired the knowledge that will enable us to be successful in our ventures and an asset to our community.

We, as the leaders of the future, can see an extremely turbulent world. And now as mature adults must strive to dissolve all prejudices and disunities so that people everywhere may have at least one thing in common—friendship.

We are now living in one of America's most trying times. But this time is also one of great challenge, for to be American citizens requires not only a knowledge of our rights and privileges but also an understanding of our duties and responsibilities. We must obey the lawful authorities and stand up for what we believe in.

As president of the class of 1969, I am certain that we will be successful in all our endeavors and sincerely hope we will never forget these four rewarding years.

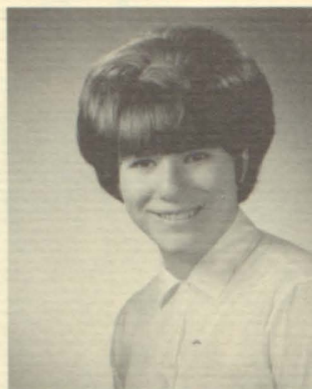

Jeffrey Barber

Jeffrey A. Barber

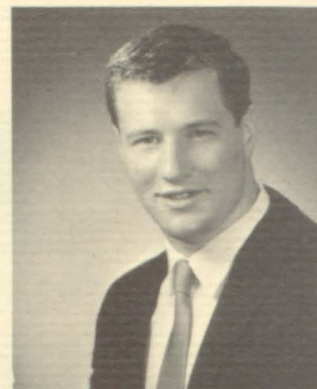

President, Class of 1969

We, the Class of 1969, Questioned and Investigated . . .

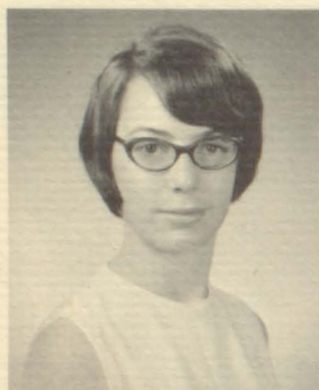

. . . the wealth of knowledge made available to us during our years at Coventry High School. Through our search we have learned many things of interest and value. We have developed our minds and acquired the ability to express our ideas to others. . . .

Saturday Seminars

Throughout their Senior year certain Seniors, selected by the Science and History departments, are given the opportunity to attend Seminars. Every Saturday, Science Seminars are held at the University of Rhode Island. Those who attended the first semester are (L to R.) Elizabeth Derocher, Ann Gudeczauskas, Mary Keskinen, Beth Nadeau, Robin Warrender and Daphne LaPointe.

(L. to R.) Raymond Hardy, Karlene Johnson, Margaret Fish, Deborah Kenyon, and Brian Campbell attended the second semester Science Seminars at the University of Rhode Island.

Places full of memories symbolize our experiences throughout the years. Recollections of joys and sorrows arise at the sight of these familiar scenes.

People make the empty places

difference; they fill the with warm vitality.

They will endure in our memories
long after we have left.
