"ON SAYING GOOD-BYE"

It is a shame that we show no feeling until the end;
 But that is how tradition holds it to be,
 For saying a heartfelt good-bye is the key to express our love so openly
 It can be delayed no longer, this play of destiny
 Tears and fears lead the way
 You clutch your lingering time so desperately and yearn to stay
 Parting has broken the walls between us;
 Restored us with warmth and grace,
 As we struggle to lengthen our final embrace.

Joy M. Reo

"Let Us Never Forget"

-To: The Class Of '85
 -From: Class Pres. Ron
 "Jackson" Freeman

Let us never forget the times we shared,
 The laughter, the frolic we had;
 Let us never forget the memories we shared,
 The good ones and even the bad.

And most of all let us never forget the teachers, the classes we had;
 Let us never forget the things we learned,
 The good things and even the bad.

But when it's all over, all said and all done,
 May the friends we once cherished and had;
 Remain constantly close companions,
 Through the good times and even the bad.

Good Luck & Happiness To All
 Love Always,
 "Jackson"

Junior Promenade

Besides the usual restlessness of the students on a Friday, there was an undercurrent of excitement among the members of the Junior Class. It was April 6th and it was the day of the Junior Prom.

That afternoon classmates became unrecognizable as the girls dressed in long, beautiful gowns and the guys in distinguished tuxedos.

The night was cool as the Juniors arrived at the Hospitality Center in Cranston for their first Prom. After enjoying dinner, everyone danced to the music of Bob Robertson - The Entertainer. Excitement mounted as the clock approached 9:30, the time for the crowning of the Queen. Jill Iuliano was crowned Prom Queen and the Queen and her court were presented at 9:45. Following the Coronation Dance, the Juniors danced, talked and recorded an unforgettable evening in their minds and hearts.
