Rich in tradition, history and sentiment Coventry High School continues to stand out as one of the academic, athletic and extra-curricular leaders in the State of Rhode Island. During the four year history of the Class of '86', our school received a Presidential Proclamation, hosted the National Student Council Convention, been named an effective school and has won many awards, both academic and athletic. In addition we had an unexpected guest this fall, her name was GLORIA. In the following pages, The Knotty Oak will record and preserve the memories of this year.

The Star
Glowing spheres of radiant fire
Pulsing some code unknown
Ball of endless infinity
As white as human bone

Twinkling, dancing demons
In the cold, dark sky
High up in the heavens
Where only comets fly

Orbs of bright and flashing light
Some are clustered, some alone
On clear nights they shine
Like diamonds on abalone.

A History OF The Class Of '86

In September of the year 1982, we, the Class of '86, made our entrance into what, at that time seemed to be the largest building in the world, Coventry High School. Transition was a problem, but we received guidance from our class advisor Miss Coyle. We elected Amy Bettez to the office of class president. Our year of persecution and ridicule continued on with us vowing never to mistreat future freshmen as badly as we had been mistreated (a vow which later became nearly impossible to uphold). The year came to a close with our one night of glory, the Freshmen Prom, where we chose Kathi Babcock as our Prom Queen.

The 1983-84 school year brought us new confidence and respect as sophomores. Steve Rainone was our president and Mrs. Glawson was our class advisor. Perhaps the highlight of the year was the NASC Convention, which gave the class the opportunity to meet new people and learn new things about ourselves.

By the time our junior year rolled around, it became fairly obvious that the Class of 1986 was through fooling around. Although they seemed to take an eternity to arrive, class rings arrived before Christmas. This was the first part of a long line of good things to come over the next two years. Before too long the date April 26th arrived, and we all put on our rented best and headed on down to the Cranston Hilton for the long anticipated Junior Prom, featuring the song stylings of Jim Sundstrom. To the sound of Bryan Adams' "Heaven", we crowned our class president Sue Reynolds Prom Queen, and had nothing but thanks for our class advisor, Mrs. Cyr. The highly eventful year came to a close when we said goodbye to the Class of '85, turned our rings around, and promptly took possession of the school on Class Day. We were finally SENIORS!

With most of high school behind us, we entered our last year at Coventry High with confidence and pride. Mark Stewart flew his way to victory as our class president, and Mrs. Robertson served as our guiding light. Early in the year, Debbie Cantino and Todd Blamires were elected Homecoming Queen and King, respectively, as the Sr. Float came away with top honors in the Homecoming Parade. The football team even chose our Senior year in which to beat the Wizards and go all the way to the Super Bowl, we really appreciated it. All too quickly, the Sr. Ball was upon us. The night of May 23rd, 1986 is a night which will be long remembered by all of us. In closing our high school careers, we turned the school over to the juniors on Class Day and moved on to Graduation on June 14th. With high school behind us, our whole lives lay ahead of us. We leave both richer and wiser, but with mixed emotions, knowing we must move on.

MAY GOOD FORTUNE ALWAYS SHINE ON THE CLASS OF 1986
