

One of the most interesting CHS sports is hockey. The moment you walk into the arena and feel the cold, any spectator can sense the electricity generated by the CHS players! An outstanding team including Scott Tourgee, Jon Guisti, Ken Averill, and Ben Creelman led the Oakers all the way to the state play-offs. The Oaker Skaters utilized months of training to challenge their opponents in all of the matches. As the season closed all involved felt pleased with the commendable performance of the 1990 - 1991 Oaker Hockey Team.

Girl's Cross Country Team

This year the Girl's Cross Country Team worked extremely hard, running through all kinds of weather to be the best. Mr. Soscia, the coach, pushed, pulled, and demanded that the girls work to the best of their abilities. Robin Volpini, Erica Hurlbogen, and Scarlet O'Donnell all proved to be a few (of the many) star runners. The girls had an excellent year, and next season looks to be even more promising.

Boy's Cross Country

The Oaker Cross Country Team finished the 1990 campaign with a 1-5 record. Mr. Labutti, a first year coach, led a season filled with ups and downs. Consistently strong performances were provided by senior co-captains Dave Ferrance and Jared Ligouri. Senior Gerson Bettencourt and Steven Dubois, a junior, also contributed. A promising crew of underclassmen hope to return the Oaker runners to a past glory.

Boy's Soccer

The Oaker Booters were truly impressive in their 1990 campaign. Finishing the season with a record of 9-3-3, Coventry advanced to the semi-finals of the state tournament, coming within one goal of victory. Many called this year's squad the best in decades. Their success can be attributed to the talented playing of the senior crew. The Oakers were led by Rusty LaFazia, whose brilliant moves earned him All-State honors. Other senior contributors included Scott Tourgee, Neil Miller, Bob Dobbing, Jason Olivier, Alex Deus, and Dave Macchione. Look for a strong underclass group to provide future talent.

Girl's Soccer

This year's Girl's Soccer Team was made up of a consistent group of Lady Oakers who finished with a record of 5-6-5. They advanced to the quarterfinals of the state tournament. "All-Everything" Heather Skorski headed a crew of hard working seniors which provided spectacular play throughout the season. Hillary Yeaw, Amy Gower, and Linda Sheridan were strong assets to Mr. Short's team. The Lady Oakers, indeed, preformed superbly throughout the 1990 season.

Girl's Tennis

Yet another successful season was provided by the Girl's Tennis Team. An outstanding cast of seniors provided the backbone of the team, which included, Lauren Shear, Angela Vallante, Shelley Weinand, Sue Lavoie, and Sue Bruner. The girls finished with a record of 13 - 5 and advanced to the of the state tournament. Although the departure of the talented seniors will affect the team greatly, juniors, Julie Macomber, Marcia Antos, Rayne Macomb, Michelle Gibeault, and Heather Downing provide next year's team with talented and experienced leadership. Shoeless Joe

Not Quite

In high school sports, actually in all sports, players come together in the spirit of friendship and teamwork to compete against each other. The strategies are mapped out and practiced in the hopes of success. However, as in life, not all things go according to plan and sometimes these drills fail. In a way this is good, since it provides a sense of anticipation and drama for the spectators as well as the players. It is these moments that put the crowd on the edge of their seats, and for this, we dedicate this page to those moments that were almost ... but not quite.

Boys' J.V. Basketball

Sports Roundup

The 1990-1991 sports season proved to be one of the best ever for the Knotty Oakers with a number of exciting games and state championships. It's been a decade of domination for CHS Wrestling Team, topped off with a decisive win over Bristol. The Oaker Boy's Volleyball Team was impressive behind the net as the spikers went onto win it's second state title. Courtside, the Freshman Basketball team went undefeated as the Freshman clinched the Championship Game.

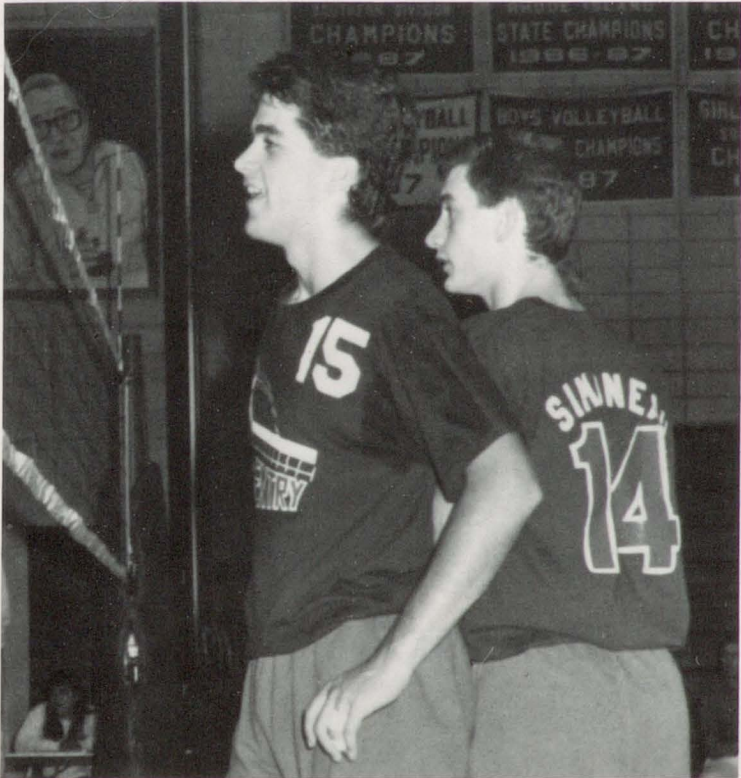

Girls JV Basketball

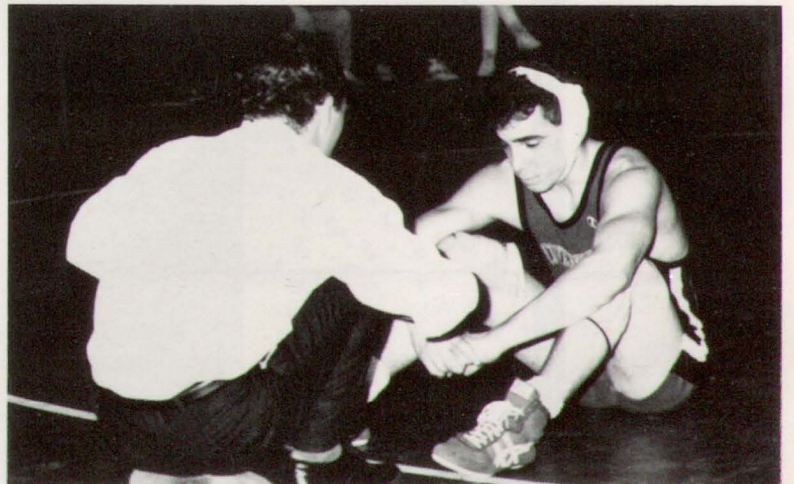

1st row: Amy Verdi, Kim Magnan, Amy Viens, Ann Theriault, Jen Boisclair. 2nd row: Ken Morin, Erin Anderson, Kathy Casteson, Sarah Paglarini, Mel Kipp, Steph Seidel, Doug Hopper.

During the past season, CHS has played host to two special events. In late October the Oaker gym was the site of the first ever Volleyball Invitational Tournament with teams from all New England. Also, during the first weekend of March, the Oaker mats were host to the New England Regional Wrestling Championship tournament. In this two day event, team of athletes representing the finest of the wrestling high schools in all of New England gave a spectacular show to the capacity crowd watching.

Activities

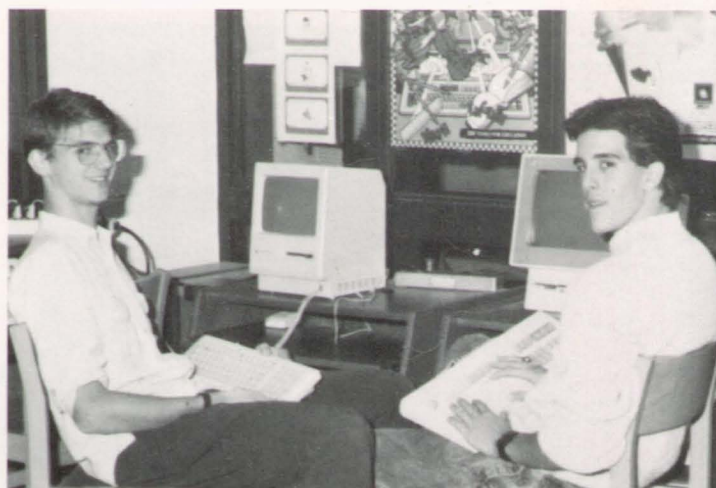

Ring! It's 1:40 at CHS and it's for student life to really begin. People who were tripping over each other just moments ago are now hustling back to participate in the thousands of clubs at CHS. It is through these many clubs that the true Oaker Spirit is allowed to show.

This is evident when you look at the numerous achievements of our Oaker Clubs at Coventry High School! Clubs not only enhance the educational experience, look great on college resumes, but they are FUN!!!!!!!!!!

Club Talk

Clubs, what are they? What do they do? Almost everyone knows that Student Council runs students' activities such as dances, and that Language Clubs have their members experience different cultures with events like the International Dinner. But, what do the smaller clubs do? I have been informed that the Science Club promotes the use of Bunsen burners while making popcorn, while Library Aides strive to keep the Media Center in order. CHS's Entry publishes a paper every so often, and WCVY spins records every weekday for our listening enjoyment. The Pep Club keeps everyone on the up side of life. Entertainment also comes from the Drama Club who produced the "Andersonville Trials" this year. The athletes receive their recognition in the form of a big "C" from the Lettermans Club. The more brain-stressing activities include the Computer League, R.I. Honor Society, and Academic Decathlon. The Math League devotes itself to the art of eating with an occasional algebraic equation. Exciting times are provided by the Jazz Singers, Modern Dance Team, and the Pom Pom Girls. More serious topics are covered by S.A.D.D. who strive to keep our highways safe. Of course, the world would just fly by without Coventry's Photography Club catching all those special little moments.

West Bay

There are many misunderstood conceptions about the West Bay Voc-Tech. Some people believe that students go to Voc-Tech to get away from the reading, writing, and arithmetic of Coventry High's everyday schedule. Students who go to Voc-Tech were interviewed and did say they enjoyed the change in atmosphere that comes about every three weeks, but many students also said they liked the hands on experience of learning a specific skill.

Vocational Tech

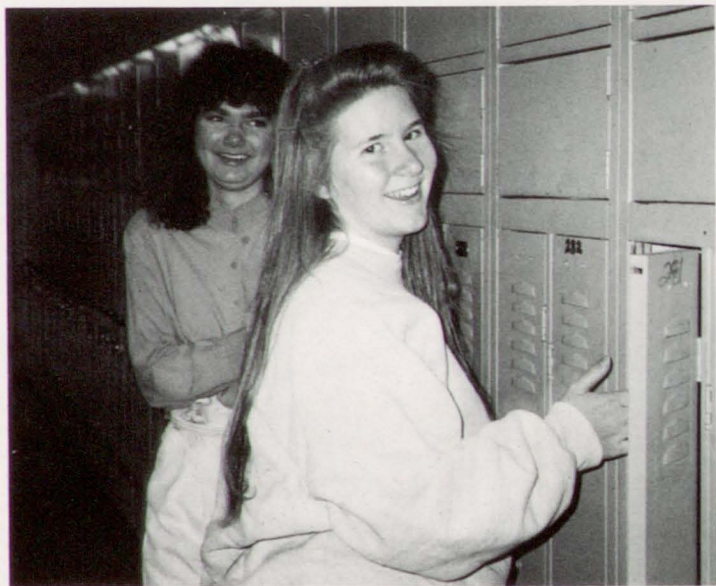

Sheila Bowen said, "I like Voc-Tech because it is hands on instead of all bookwork. You learn things that can help you out in the working world."

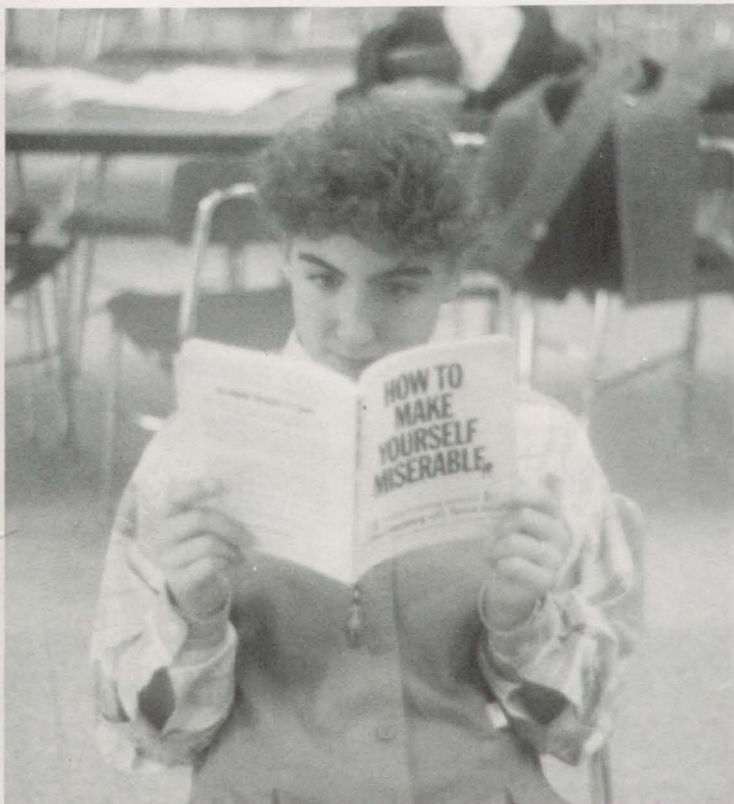

West Bay helps students to discover what area of expertise they would like to pursue in the future. This way they receive not only academic education, but also practical skills.

World Review

Many important historical events happened this year. Here are some of them (in random order): August 2 — "Desert Storm" began, continued unrest in the Baltic states, 5 Soviet republics began the process towards independence, gas prices soared, RISDIC Crisis, students on trial in China, free elections in Hungary, unrest in Albania, the fall of the Berlin Wall, the Reunification of Germany, worst drought ever in California, Persian Gulf War with Iraq, Governor Sundeland closes down state for 10 days - state financial crisis, continuing violence in S. Africa, Mandela visited Boston on a peace tour, Bulgaria gained election rights - Communist grip on Bulgaria cracked, Collar epidemic in Lima, Peru, Joseph Malacone ran away with 10 or 11 million dollars causing the S&L Crisis, the tunnel between France and England was connected, the town of Coventry's 250th anniversary, and there were record cold temperatures in the mid-west.

Some less earth shattering happenings were: Madonna's video- "Justify My Love", Shawn Lennon rewrote "Give Peace A Chance", 2 Live Crew's "As Nasty As You Wanna Be" album was banned in the USA, don't forget George Bush was president ("Read my lips" and refusing to eat broccoli), Barbara Bush broke her leg sledding with her grandchildren, Buddy Cianci became mayor of Providence (despite his discrete insertion of his cigarette into his wife's lover's eye), Donald Trump and Marlo Maples fiasco, Donald and Ivana's divorce, Donald's technical bankruptcy, the newest dance- the "Electric Slide", beating of a motorist by L.A. police, Jim Henson and Sammy Davis, Jr. died, Rosanne Barr sang the national anthem at a baseball game - then made a formal public apology, World Series in Cincinnati, Greg LaFond won the Tour de France again, Bo Jackson was diagnosed with a degenerate hip disease, Andy Warhol died, the Mapplethorpe photos, and a new movie rating NC-17 — "Henry and June". All this will go down in history along with the graduation of the class of 1991.

Beyond . . .

Colophon

In the beginning, there were napkins . . . and lots of them. Add the Electric Slide, water fountains, lack of tennis balls, and Papa Photos. Mix these with pica rulers, lost dorm keys, no open pools, and guard dogs. Simmer for one summer and the 1991 edition of the Knotty Oak is served.

The theme, "Stepping Beyond", was chosen in June of 1990, what seems today to be many millenniums ago. As hard as it seems to believe, the cover to this book was designed during a lunch session amidst soft drinks and melted ice cream. The staff started out as 51 people, then there were 4, then there were 3, and then there were 10. With all this changing around, we were still able to get the book finished . . . barely. Kristen Restall and Chris Archibald headed our motley crew in the pursuit of pen names, snowflakes and deadlines. Allison Baxter and Laura Donnelly teamed up to type all the stuff that Grendal, Mighty Mouse, Chamomille, Conan, Bob, Shoeless Joe, Arco Iris, and Allister Bryce wrote. Wendy Baxter, head of business and everything else, persistently kept after Mr. Piascik to make sure that nothing was traditional in the Knotty Oak. Michelle Brown, our future leader-in-training alphabetized pictures until she was blue in the face.

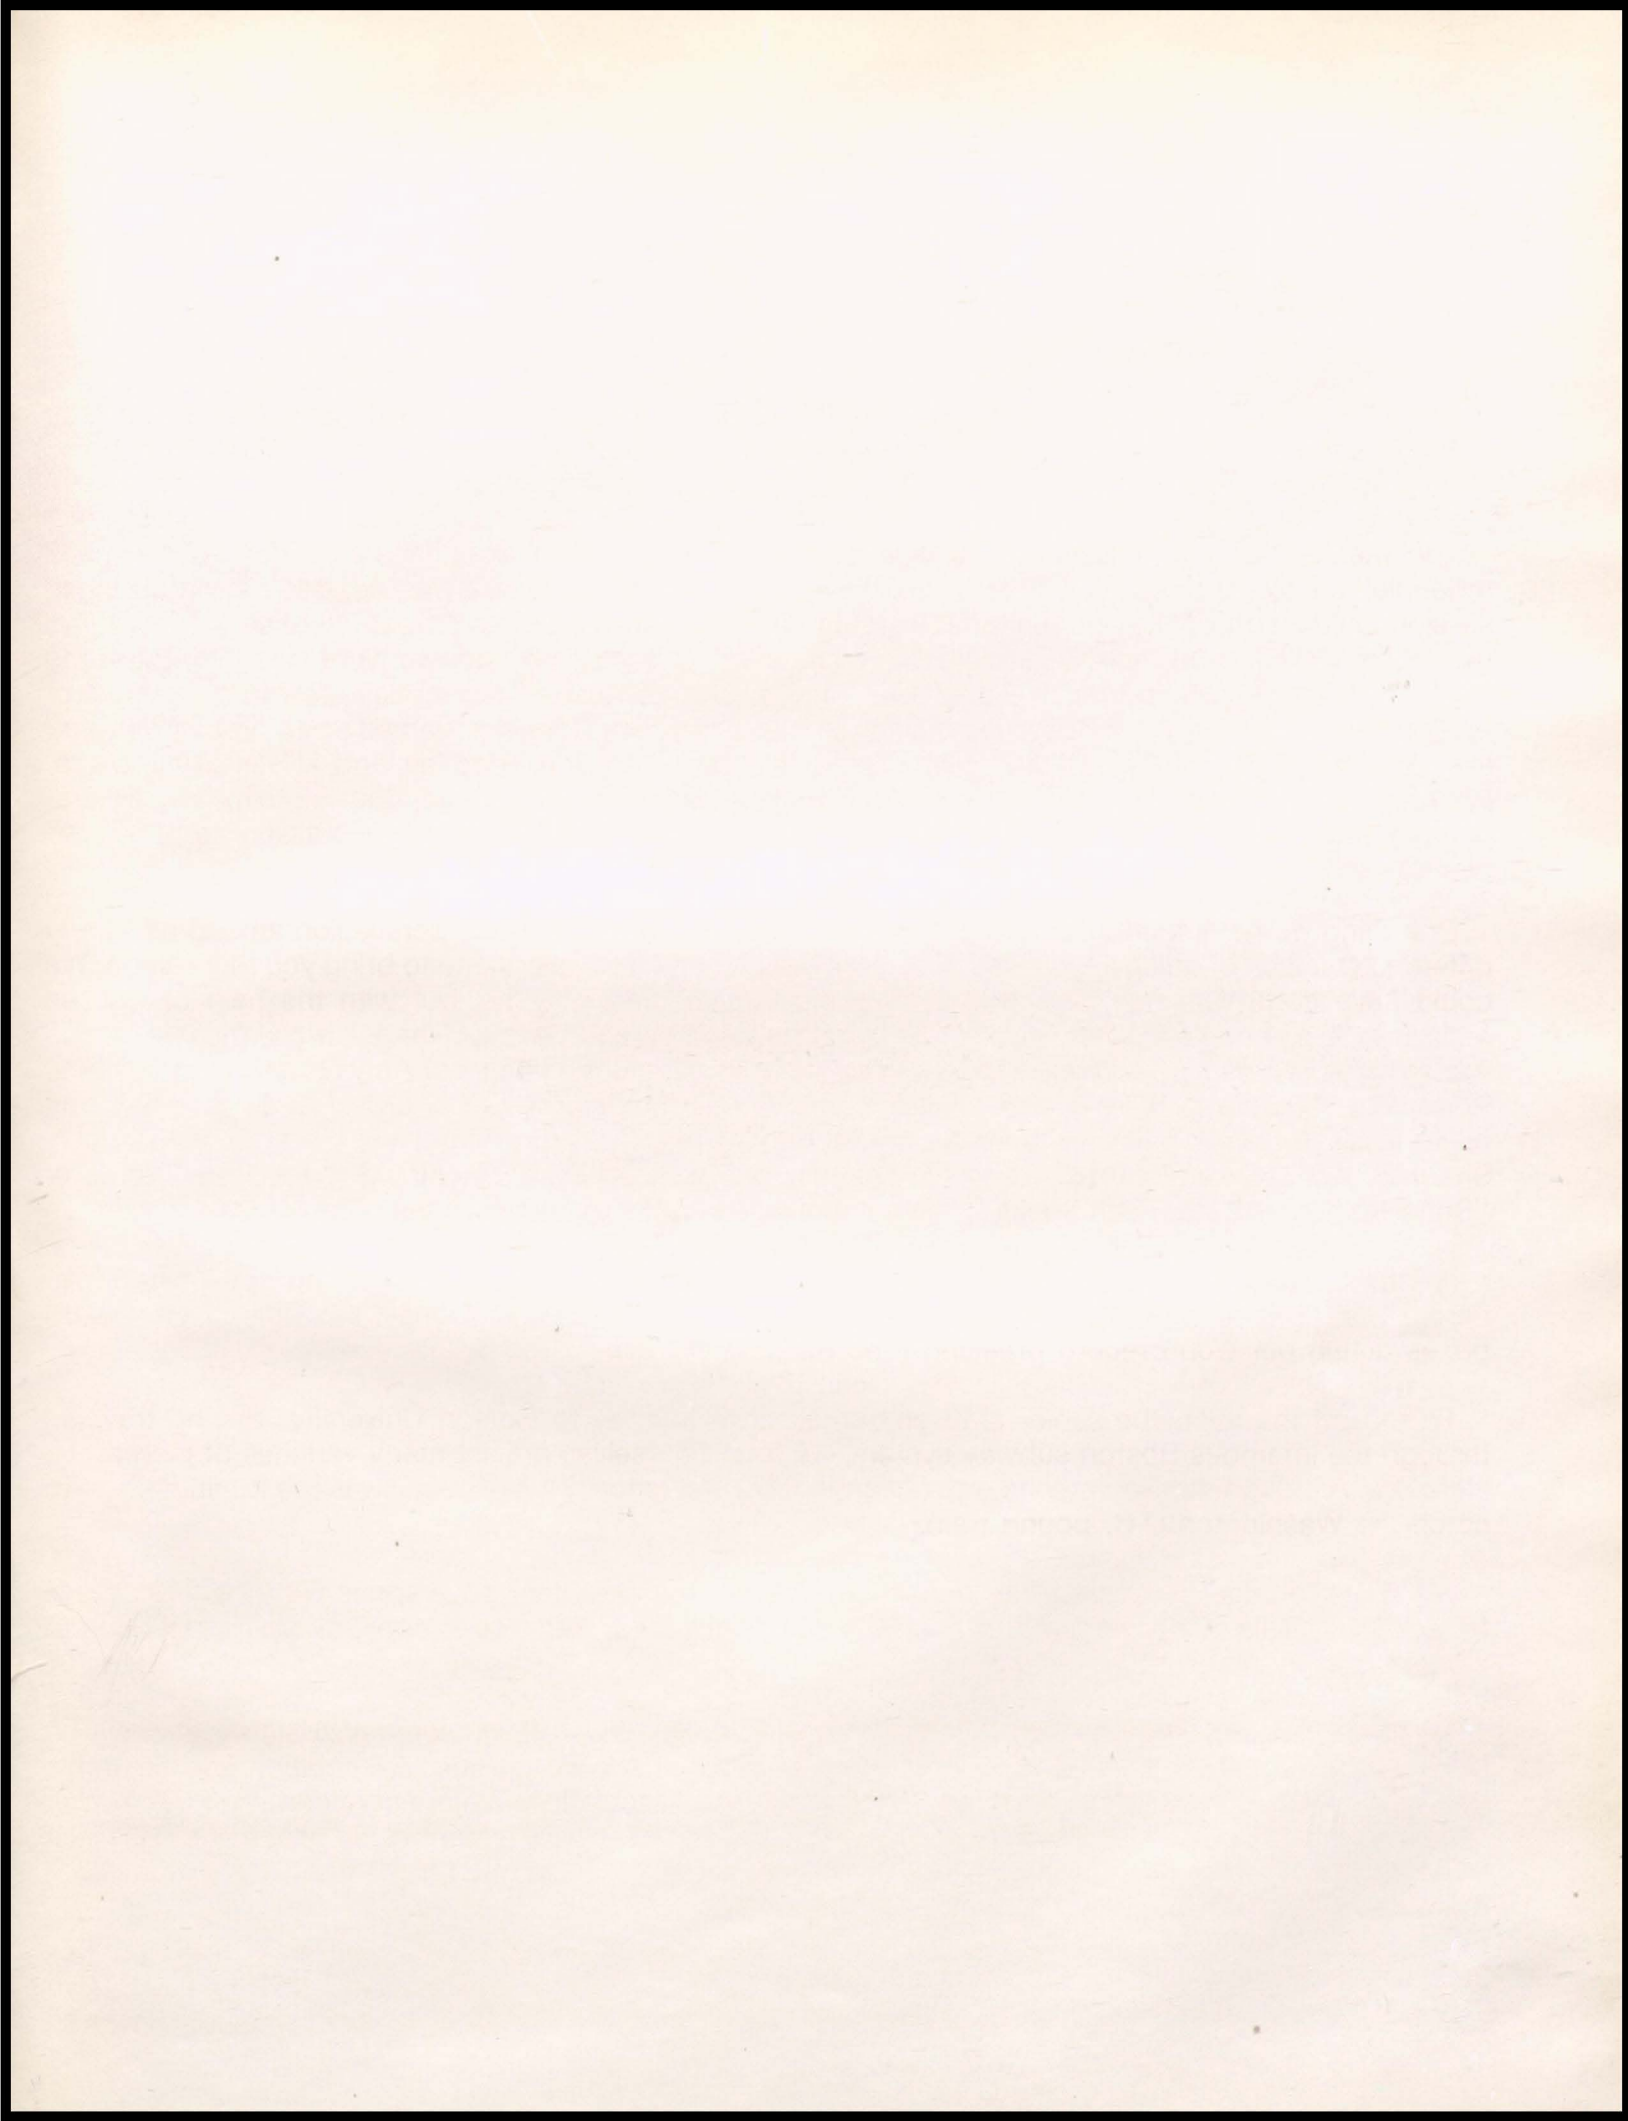

One thing we have found out during this experience is that the musical persuasion among us is very different. Our lack of office space was one of the many hurdles we overcame to bring you this edition. We could have gone with the original idea of a blank book and crayons, but with the help of Colleen McKenna, Tracy Leblanc, Tracy Klein, Andrea Marchessault, and Dave Boulanger, we were able to give you pictures, words, and squiggles to fill these pages. Thanks to the talents of Amy Gower and Holly-Ann Read we were able to have a wide diversity of student candid's. The timely arrival of Jill Standish and Michelle St. Germain gave the staff a boost it so needed. The KO Mental Ward's support group of Shannon Donovan and Baloo, along with sundry other personalities, including the musical works of "Shoeless Joe and the Black Socks", helped immensely to get our mind off the pressure we were under.

Kristen Garcia, our copy editor and proof reader extraordinaire, worked hard and conveniently left before the food was ordered. Speaking of which, we also depleted McDonald's supply of cardboard boxes during our world record breaking food runs.

To top off the year, the senior staff embarked on a journey to Boston University. Having traveled through the infamous Boston subway system, we found ourselves amidst many varieties of journalistic literature. Although the Conference was rewarding, the best moment of the day was the 2-minute mile to catch the Washington D.C. bound train.

We'd like to take this space to tell you that the seniors took a very large space with the 1991 Class "Black" Will. This edition of the Knotty Oak is 204 pages long, with lots of copy, and a sequel due out sometime in the near future.

Finally, in closing, we hope that this edition of the Knotty Oak will win some scholastic awards. The book will be submitted to three of the top competitions: the American Press Association, the Columbia Scholastic Press, and the New England Scholastic Press Association. We are confident that this edition is the best edition in the history of the Knotty Oak. Along with the supplement, due out in the fall of 1991, the 1991 Knotty Oak will be the largest one ever produced. We hope that it will bring back many fond memories of CHS in the years to come.
