The final results Won 2 Lost 6

This year is the first in memory that we have had more freshmen than ever, more than 9 members. If they stay with the sport for the next 3 years, it will be a formidable team during their senior year. Most of the teams members are on the honor roll and are headed for college. They are a very intelligent group.

The Coventry High School girls cross country team is typically one of the biggest in the state, averaging over thirty girls!

Their season started two weeks before school started and lasted approximately three months. These girls met Mondays through Saturdays every week. Their work out consisted of distance and tempo runs, intervals and speed work. The weekly mileage started at about 10-15 miles per week and steadily built to over 30 miles per week by mid October.

The team participated in about 12 races this season. They had a great season says Coach Soscia. They finished 8th overall in the state! Good luck in the future!

Kerri Hachadorian goes for a layup to add another two points to the Oakers score.

Jen Haigh goes up to score another for the Oakers.

Boy's Hockey

The talented Oakers added another year of experience this season. The extremely tight division kept the Oakers out of the playoffs despite a season ending 7 game win streak. The Oakers defense was led mainly by seniors #8 Matt Duhoski, #16 Rick Cachiotti, and #2 John Brown. #11 Junior Jay Jones, returning as a senior next year, also had another excellent season. Talented sophomore Brian Viera played much of the time between the pipes, splitting the time with Andy Perrogzno. Leading scorer senior Neil Lesniak ran the offensive show, along with junior Jay Goffe, sophomore Glenn Davenport, senior captain Jared McDonald, sophomore D.J. Houle, junior Matt Malette, sophomore Nick Delmenzco, and junior Frank Palontonze. Talented freshmen Gary Hzu & Jim O'Connor added young talent and future prospects to the team. The team was led by senior captain Jared McDonald, assistant captain Matt Dhuoski, head coach George Egan, assistant coach Payne, and assistant coach Bird. Despite the loss of some seniors at crucial positions, young talent and hard work should provide the Oakers with some promising future years.

Coventry High School Music Department

The band consists of 53 members who also participate in all marching band activities. Many of the band members also are members of the Jazz Ensemble. The following is a list of events and festivals that the band and jazz ensemble (21 members) will be participating in this 1998-1999 school year.

The Homecoming Parade and Columbus Day Parade on Federal Hill in Providence, and all home football games. Christmas Concert and performance at Blackrock School. The Rhode Island Music Education Jazz Festival. The members of the band help out in the Saturday morning program for elementary students involved in their school music programs. The marching band performs in the St. Patricks Day Parade. The Saturday morning program students will perform the National Anthem at the Pawsox Game. The concert band will be performing in the Rhode Island Music Educators Band Festival. The concert band and jazz ensemble will participate in the Hershey Park Music Show Case Festival in Hershey Park, PA. The spring concert will be on the 25th and the Memorial Day Parades at the end of the month. The entire music department will hold their Annual Banquet at the high school and the band participates at the Graduation Ceremonies on June 12th.

Coventry High School Oakerettes

Flag and Dance Squad

Coventry High School has a hot, new flag and dance squad, called the Oakerettes. They travel with the marching band to parades and football games. The girls put much effort and dedication into their routines, and in the end they give a great performance. Stacy, their coach helps the girls come up with the routines seen in parades and games. The captains, Jennifer Giannakas and Jamie Hull, assist the coach in keeping order in the squad. Overall, the girls have a great sense of humor and make a wonderful team, ending everything with a BIG smile!!!

Varsity Review

With each coming year at Coventry High students and faculty look forward to seeing an array of performances from Magic acts and comedy skits to gymnastics and dancing. The night kicked off with a performance from the jazz ensemble and continued on from there. The Coventry High Village People were definite crowd pleasers with their versions of "In the Navy" and "Kung Fu Fighting". In full Village People attire, they hit the stage and gave a stirring impersonation. As the night went on many soloists took center stage as well as a trio, The Black Beauties, who gave a great performance of "Lately". Once again Ryan Riel had the crowd laughing with his comedy routine and Richard Coy left everyone in awe after his magic act. Also back this year was Airwaves, who kept the crowd going, and the new comers Shaken not Stirred. Under the direction of Don Kirton and with Chris Casimiro and Jessica Maguire as MC's, another year at the Varsity Revue was complete.

Congratulations Lindsay!

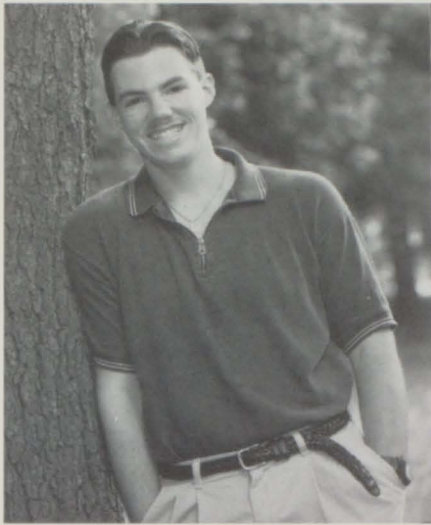

This photo was taken on your first day of school. as we watched you leave on that day we were confident that you would do well. As you graduate, we want you to know that your achievements have exceeded all of our expectations.

We are very proud of you.

Love, Mom & Dad

Congratulations Chris

We are very proud of you and admire your hard work and determination. The road ahead will be very challenging but rewarding. As you pursue your dreams, remember, we will always be there with our love and support.

Keep smiling!!!

Love, Mom, Matthew, Nana & Pa

Congratulations Katie-Did

You are a dream come true.

When I first held you in my arms - so many years ago...
 I held you close and thought to myself - I'd never let you go.
 But as the years began to pass and you stood on your own two feet...
 I found that you had things to learn and needs I could not meet.
 I followed in your footsteps as you walsked along the sand...
 Just close enough, that I'd be there - if you reached out for my hand.
 I tried to teach you right from wrong and instill a love for God...
 So that when you grew - you'd love the Lord,
 as you traveled this earths' sod.
 I've watched you make your choices, as by the Lord youwere led...
 I've hugged you close and wiped your eyes, as tears were sometimes shed.
 You've always been a daughter we could trust along the way...
 And now you stand before us - on your Graduation Day.
 As you step out into the world, trust in Him thru sunshine and cloud...
 And remember that we love you...and we've never been more proud...
 We gave you to Him years ago, let Him lead in whatever youdo - and we'll always be here if you need us - as your parents - praying for you.

All our Love Always, Mom & Dad

Congratulations Mark!

The years have passed too quickly. We're proud of the young man you've become. Seventeen years of laughter, memories, love and fun. You've given life everything you've got, 100% and more. but before you leave for college - pick your clothes up off the floor!!!

Follow your dreams, #18

Love, Dad, Mom & Kyle

Congratulations Kevin!

It's hard to believe that so much time has passed. It seems like only yesterday that you were this little two year old boy. We are very proud of the fine young man you have grown up to be. We will always be here for you.

Love Mom, Dad & Mandy

Congratulations Ian!

"...And I love you more yet, child,
deeper yet than ever, child,
for what you are going to be,
knowing so well you are going far,
knowing your great works are ahead,
ahead and beyond,
yonder and far over yest."

Love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Mandy!

Just look at what you've accomplished! You've graduated! You've turned a dream into a reality by believing in yourself. Even when obstacles stood in the way, you held strong to your beliefs. Knowing that only you could make this day come. We're very proud of you & excited about your college future. Make it happen.

Love Mom, Dad & Ginger

Congratulations Lauren

We are very proud of you and the wonderful person you have become. We love you and wish you all the best that life has to offer.

Love Mom, Dad and Ronnie

Congratulations Messy Jessy

It doesn't seem so long ago you were in Mrs. Pares class. Now our baby is graduating. We are very proud of the person you have become. May all your hopes & dreams come through.

Love Mom, Dad, Jim, Jamie, B, P, & Fluff

Congratulations Julie!

Believe in yourself...Reach for your dreams and hold fast until you achieve them. Keep that beautiful smile.

We love you, Mom, Dad, Josh and Jillian

Congratulations Ryan!

You've certainly come a long way since your first day of school. We're so proud of you, and we're with you all the way.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Robb

Congratulations Shay!

As graduation nears you will be filled with mixed emotions. Though it's an exciting time, it's also a time of uncertainty. I know if you face each new challenge with strength and determination you have proven to possess, there's nothing you can't do. Always remember that no matter where life may take you I will always be here for you. So keep reaching for those stars and soon the universe will be yours. Good Luck in all you do!!!

You have made me quite proud & I love you! MOM

Congratulations Chad Robert Bjorklund

As you have grown into a young man from the little boy you once were, you have only made us more and more proud. You are special. We all love you so much.

As high school approached
Your fears on the rise
I wish I could tell you
You'd soon gain the prize.

This time in your life
Is so full of yearning
Don't lose sight of who you are
In your process of learning

We are so proud of you
