Standing on the edge of tomorrow....

We stand on the edge of tomorrow. We don't want to step off into the Great Unknown. We don't want to have to start worrying about college and jobs and marriage and kids and the rest of our lives. We're comfortable where we are now. We'd stay if we could, but time is poking us in the back with a sharp, pointy stick. Some of us jump off more readily than others. Some of us stay clinging on to Stability's legs, not wanting to let go. We eventually get kicked off though, kicked into the Land of New Experience. But we adapt to the changes, some faster than others, but we all adapt. It's terrifying, jumping into the Great Unknown, but we all know it's for the best. Someday we'll pick up this yearbook and laugh at the uncertainty we felt then. We had no idea, at that point, that we would end up going to college, becoming a lawyer, meeting someone and having two great kids. Or getting a job right out of high school, bouncing around for awhile, finally finding someone and raising a family. Or going to college, getting expelled for inappropriate behavior, applying somewhere else, winning the lottery, moving to Sweden, becoming a hermit, saving a young boy's life, feeling all good inside, moving back to the states, running for president, losing in a tight race, and eventually becoming Senator for New York. Or...

Top Left: Brian Beaudoin plays musical chairs in a different way. For one- he's in the cafeteria. Top Center: Jeremy Bent, Janine Sgagliardich, Bev Schwartz and Rick Abrahmson are simultaneously afflicted with semi-severe upper limb spasms. Top Right: Helpful Nature Fact: When in the presence of a camera, Rick Coy can reach speeds exceeding 70 miles per hour.

Top Left: Eric McNeely takes happiness to an unsafe level. Adam Kettle just wants to be around when he explodes. Top Center: Jay Jones never ceases to be amazed by technology. "Whoa! A computer!" He exclaims. Bottom Center: John Hoxsie is there to cradle the startled Libby Stevens.

Left: Scott Lyons is happier when he's closer to sea level. Top: Rob Greene spinning in a computer chair- Education at its finest!

Homecoming

The junior class float with its wrestling theme encourages the oakers to lay the smackdown on the Rams. It's all in the name of good sportsmanship, I'm sure.

Here we see the Sophomore's Hawaiian float, fairly well pulled off, considering the difference in latitude, in addition to the general lack of pineapples in these parts.

Above: The football team showing a large amount of spirit in their float. If you'll look carefully, you'll notice a small trail of spirit oozing off the back of the truck. Right: Kristen Dyer fraternizing with the band. "I like men in silly hats," she says.

Left: "I hate school," mutters Jay Crowe. Although we can't really put that in the yearbook. Right: Jessica Sperlongano learns why we normally advise against drinking hydrochloric acid.

Justin Chin ponders postulates and contemplates contemporary classics.

Joe Bergeron deftly deflects a candid shot with his sidekick, the Chemistry book.

Above: Strange mutations have been occurring in CHS, as Jonah Sutton and Mike Fenton point out. Below: Tim Feeley advise, "Only play with your food if you've already eaten your toys."

Right: Carl Rieke shows the smile of a man with grit and determination. Below: Alicia Blatt performs the well known getting down followed by getting funky.

Below: Joe Belanger gives us his best menacing grin which, unfortunately, failed to scare us.

Above: After three years of high school, Jim Masso has gained the ability to sleep while sitting upright. Below: Many dangerous species come with their own warning signs, Elisha Scholfield and Melissa Corbett demonstrate.

Left: Dawn Amaral is tired of all those short jokes. Above: Crystal White sits down to a wholesome cafeteria meal of fries and ketchup, (just like mom used to make). Right: Jeremy Bent learns the TRUE meaning of Christmas and this is his reaction.

Above: Faux fur modeled by Brian Anderson also available in muskrat.

Left: Mark Valois proves that, yes, hipness does have a place in the classroom. Below: Mike Piche tests the flammability of certain things. Photos of the flammability of gasoline test not available.

Right: Adam Wilcox and Matt Gravier give us examples of 33 degree angles, using their arms. Below: Jessica Sperlongano and Leah Hood smile because they don't realize their nerds are about to be stolen by Kristi LaChance

History of the Class of 2000

In August of 1996, the class of 2000 cautiously walked into Coventry High School. As Freshmen, Briel Delmonaco was the president. While we dealt with confusing schedules and getting lost, we managed to make it through our long awaited Freshman year. As Freshmen, we gained some respect by winning Spirit Week. The excitement carried over into our anticipated Freshman Formal which was held right in our very own cafeteria. With our final exams, our Freshman year was over, and we were no longer lowly Freshmen.

The following year, we walked through the doors on the first day of school with much more confidence; we were now Sophomores! We now knew how to open our lockers and where the rooms were, well, most of them. This year, Lara Gast was chosen as our Class President. This year, we ordered our class rings and began to feel as though Coventry High School was ours. In May, we had the second Annual Sophomore Semi-Formal at Evelyn's Villa. Hors d'oeuvres were eaten and friends gathered for pictures. With this wonderful night, our second year here ended.

In early September, 1998, we walked into Coventry High School knowing we were upper classmen. We received licenses and were offered the opportunity of Vo-Tech and National Honor Society. Our Class President was again Lara Gast. On April 9, we attended our Junior Prom at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet, and Sara Chaffee-Standish and Briel Delmonico both became our queens. After SAT's, Class Day was held. Then, with the close of classes, we were officially seniors! On September 2, 1999, the Class of 2000 entered Coventry High School for our final year. Sue Colucci took over as Class President. Homing was great and was a relief from the stress of college applications. Our Winter Ball was held on January 28, 2000. It was a wonderful time with fun and freinds. On Class Day, tears were shed and good times remembered. Finally, our Senior Ball took place at the Newport Marriot, and it was the place where friends danced together for the last time before graduation on June 10, 2000. We graduated at the Providence Performing Arts Center. It was a day none of us will ever forget, with four years of memories and friends put together.

David Najarian Memorial 5k Road Race

The first annual Dave Najarian Memorial 5k Road Race on November 20th was a special race for a special person, who had all the skills to make it somewhere in life. Dave was a friend to most and close to many. As a member of the class of 2000, Dave was very committed in everything he took part in.

Dave participated in track his sophomore and junior years of high school, where he made many friends and touched the lives of many people. His dedication was admired by many. He worked hard and was never afraid to try something new.

Dave had a way of befriending almost everyone he met. He left behind many friends, but one special group felt the need to establish a Road Race in his memory. This Road Race held at the Coventry Community Center, attracted approximately 400 friends, family, and members of the community. With all the help and hard work from friends and family, the Road Race was an overall great success and a way for all of us to keep Dave's memory alive.

Steve Dupree has a strong finish.

The walkers pictured here started off at nine o'clock.

David Alan Najarian

When the Sun Sets

Everything good comes to an end,
Why did it have to happen to our friend?
Life is a day, death the sunset.
We just haven't seen it yet.
The sun set on Dave too soon.
It's not fair that the sun set before noon.
The sun fades, leads into the night and yet that night is just as bright.
Dave, you're on that moonlit side.
We'll all see you on the other side.
Still this all seems so wrong,
Why did the sun set on someone so strong?
Dave was the best, Dave was just here.
God, Dave, how we wish you were here.
The sun set too soon on you,
But the sun set, there's nothing we can do.

M. Chase

"I can't seem to see you baby,
Although my eyes are open wide,
But I know I'll see you once more,
When I see you, see you on the other side."

We are the juniors, the class of 2001. We're standing on the brink, near the height of our school career- Senior Year. We look forward to the future with the anticipation of knowing that next year we "rule" the school. We soon can have the satisfaction of being the oldest students, the most respected and as an extra bonus, the ones who will be able to hide a short person in our lockers.

As we look forward with curiosity and impatience, we also look back on the past. For most people eleventh grade is their twelfth year in Coventry schools. We have made friends, lost some and kept others. Hopefully, these are people who will stay with us for life.

Before we move forward to our final year of high school, we need to take time to reflect. We need to begin to look ahead to our future. In a few short months we will be making major decisions that will impact on our lives. Start thinking seriously about these decisions.

We are the class of 2001, the first class of the true new millenium. It is important that we set a high standard, to show what we are capable of achieving and to show how much we care.

Katy Simpson rues the camera and obviously gets its demise.

Margaret Nolan smiles glibly, giving us a perfect excuse to use such a cool sounding word.

Jan Roch's antics find him a place in the yearbook.

Marlen Zagorski and Erin Arcand grin with an intense glee that can only be found in Mr. Gibb's English class.

This year's sophomore class, the class of 2002, is awaiting their chance to become upperclassmen. The sophomore year is really one to remember. You are no longer a Freshman, but you are not yet an upperclassmen. As our journey through Coventry High School continues we must be reminded of the fun times we have had in the past. We had our wonderful Freshman Formal, Sophomore Semi-Formal, spirit week, and other such activities. Many have learned to drive, many have matured, and many are awaiting our chance to become seniors. With all of these wonderful advancements, we must look forward to two more memorable years.

Within our next two years we can also look to new buildings at the high school. First, a new vocational school on our campus, a new library and more advanced technology throughout the building. Many people say that our high school years are the most fun, and they really are! High School is a time to learn, to grow-up, to meet life-long friends, and most of all to have fun! As we travel through our remaining years, we are creating memories that will last forever. Our sophomore year is one to remember, as we are halfway there, to standing on the edge of tomorrow. Good Luck to all as we continue our journey throughout the halls of Coventry High School!

As the dawn of the new millennium approached, so did a new beginning for the Freshmen students at Coventry High School. At the piercing ring of the first bell, the halls were filled with apprehensive teenagers scurrying to find their new homerooms. Later they had the chance to get reacquainted with old friends and have the opportunity to make new ones as they wandered the unfamiliar corridors trying to find their next class. As the day settled down, everybody became more relaxed and even seemed anxious to start again the next day.

The opportunities at school are endless. There is a club or activity for every interest as well as special events including Homecoming and the Freshmen Formal.

What lies ahead for the Freshmen class is a year requiring hard work and dedication from both teachers and students. Working together, we hope to fulfill our educational needs as well as interacting with each other to maintain a peaceful environment. With this in mind, we hope to take our education to many levels at Coventry High School.

Faculty

Any member of the CHS faculty can tell you that the time for learning never ends. With advancements in technology being made every day, teachers as well as students agree that everyone who walks through the doors of Coventry High learns something new each day. The teaching staff has planted the seeds for success and the love of learning within us throughout our time here at Coventry High. Thanks to their guidance, students are prepared to face the metaphorical "real world," and are prepared to make a difference. If the employees of any company were not truly dedicated, the business would not flourish. In much a similar fashion, if CHS teachers were not dedicated to educating the students, our school and the students that emerge from it would not prosper. Thanks to these dedicated, caring and professional educators, we are fully prepared to grasp the opportunities that lay ahead of us in the years to come after our departure from Coventry High.

CHS's Nationally Board Certified Teachers

Coventry Schools were the first schools in Rhode Island to have national board certified teachers and we are continuing the reputation as leaders in the state. Out of 20 nationally board certified teachers in the state, Coventry is proud to have 10 of these exceptional teachers and five are at the high school.

Four teachers have been certified from Coventry High School just this year joining Mr. Jim Erinakes, our first. They are Mrs. Kathleen Sullivan a chemistry teacher, Mr. Ernest DiMicco, a physics teacher and Science Department head, Mrs. Judith Baxter, English teacher and department chair and Mr. Vic Osterman, a math teacher. A fifth board certified teacher in our building was just hired in the math department, Mrs. Tracy Shannon.

The Board Certification process is a grueling one, taking between 200 and 400 hours of additional work beyond the regular correcting and creating lessons and tests. These teachers made portfolios, videotaped classes, showed examples of student work, and wrote roughly 100 pages analyzing their professional work. This is just more proof stating the well known fact that Coventry High School has the best teachers in Rhode Island!

Coventry Police in our School

You may have noticed something different as you walked into Coventry High school this year... maybe two men in police uniforms. As part of a grant, Officer Mark Courier and Officer Robert Sturdahl have been stationed at Coventry High School. This program is in accordance with the Triad concept, which is police, parents, and schools working together. The grant has given enough money to have police in Coventry High until the 2001-2002 school year.

When this program was first announced, the two officers jumped at the chance. Officer Courier has been a police officer for twenty years. After earning his Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and Psychology, he worked at the state prison and as a D.A.R.E. officer. Officer Sturdahl served in the military police for ten years and earned his Associate's degree. The two, along with another officer, were then trained for this particular job.

Although they are not confined to CHS, students have enough issues to keep them busy all day. In fact they have their own "mini-station" as Officer Courier calls it. The overall response from students has been positive, making Coventry High a safer place. Students have been able to go to the officers with problems ranging from assault to locking their keys in the car. This can be considered a nine-to-five job without the routine or repetition. Officer Courier and Officer Sturdahl have dealt with runaways, drug and alcohol arrests, parent and student meetings, assaults, service calls, trespass warnings, and incidents in the parking lot, including distributing tickets and handling accidents. They also enforce school rules, such as no smoking. The officers intend to stay for a while, and we intend to keep them!

West Bay

West Bay Career and Technical Center gives junior and senior students the opportunity to get a head start on education related to their future careers. West Bay caters to students from Coventry, Exeter-West Greenwich, and North Kingston high schools, offering areas of study ranging from Child Development to Culinary Arts to Automotive, Nursing, Electronics, Graphic Arts, Environmental, Auto Body, Manufacturing Technology, and Carpentry. Teachers at West Bay always practice the hands-on approach to learning. Several areas, such as Child Development and Manufacturing Technology include a steady internship as part of the curriculum.

Along with other activities, students are given the opportunity to participate in SkillsUSA VICA, which is a national organization for technical school students that promotes skills for the future. Students can take part in the SkillsUSA VICA competition in their area of study and in leadership competition. Many students have placed in our state competition and have gone on to the National Competition, held every summer in Kansas City, Missouri. Along with the National Competition, there are several state leadership conferences led by the State Director, Robert Carosi, and the Rhode Island state officer team, made up of one student from each technical school. Each September the Rhode Island state officer team attends the Washington Leadership Training Institute where there is an intensive week of leadership training to help the state officers work as a team.

Students, teachers, and community members are always working together to create a positive learning environment. Seniors who have attended West Bay graduate with a blue tassel, in addition to the standard red tassel. This tassel symbolizes the accomplishment of completing the regular high school classes, while learning the necessary skills to excel in an area of study.

Business Partnerships

Mr. Kiley's Manufacturing Technology class has a partnership with Fielding Manufacturing, but this is not the only program with partnerships at West Bay. Culinary Arts Program runs its own restaurant open for lunches called Tout-A-Vous. The Child Development program sends students to various daycares and elementary schools in Coventry where students act as teacher assistants. The Environmental students gain experience by doing landscape work in addition to studying several components of our environment. Students enrolled in the Auto Collision Repair Program repair damaged cars right in the classroom. Carpentry students work together with their instructor to build at least one house every year completing everything from frame to finish. Students in every area of West Bay are given experiences and opportunities today that will benefit them tomorrow and beyond.

Winter Ball

Right in the middle of the winter, when things seem so dreary, Coventry High School has their Winter Ball. The Junior/Senior Winter Ball was held at the West Valley Inn on January 28, 2000. The food consisted of a lovely meal of soup, salad, pasta and meatballs. The night was a fun-filled time of dancing, music, laughter and glamour. In these pages one can see many happy couples and share the fun of the night. Everyone was showing their dancing skills with the WRIK DJ. In all, it was a fun night for everyone and we're looking forward to the spring's junior and senior proms.

Renaissance Fair

The Renaissance Fair held at CHS this year was a huge success. All students who participated in the play, A Midsummer Night's Dream, are to be commended. The play was held on Friday, March 31 and Saturday, April 1. Large audiences were treated to a great performance on both nights. There was not only a play, but also a Battle of the Bards put on by a few senior English classes during the day. Students delivered poems as if they were the poets who wrote them in the form of a contest to see who the greatest poet of the Renaissance was. The battle was won by, who else, William Shakespeare.

Students from all grades participated in a timeline to highlight discoveries and achievements that occurred during the Renaissance. A Madrigal Dinner was held also on Thursday night.

Above: Mike Chase prays that his cardboard armor will protect him from a deadly blow from Kevin Neves. Below: Adam Sebzda implores the gods to allow Jeremy Bent to survive the horrific stab wound that he incurred in a scene in the play.

Above: Principal Stanley Thompson delivers a mesmerizing speech about the history of the Renaissance. Left: The loving Dan Messier begs Lara Gast to profess her love for him and not be swayed by the arrogant Matt Maguire.

Sports at CHS

Coventry sports have amassed both successes and failures in the 1999-2000 school year. The gymnastics team, boys' track team, and girls' track team have had successful, even memorable seasons. The football team managed to improve its record from last year. On the other hand, the boys' volleyball team spent a year rebuilding, and the boys' basketball team was not as strong as it has been in the past. The girls' soccer team made the playoffs this year. The wrestling team had a fairly successful season adjusting to its new coach. The girls' basketball team was especially successful this year, tying West Warwick for the lead in the division and qualifying for the playoffs.

Coventry athletics shone both off and on the field with their positive work ethic and sense of pride. Congratulations to those who did well and better luck next year for those who did not.

Gymnastics

The Coventry Girls' Gymnastics team had its most successful season in only its third year of competing. Led by Senior Captains Megan Tomilson and Brianna Leach, the girls remained undefeated throughout the season with a record of 15-0. The girls clinched the Division A Championships to go along with their Division B Title two years ago. Winning the Division A crown was a goal set by the team at the start of the season, and through hard work and a desire to win, the goal was made a reality.

The success of the team can be attributed to all those who participated on it. Key performances always seemed to be turned in when they were needed the most. Senior Meg Tomilson, juniors Kelly Rabbitt and Melissa Mao, and sophomores Megan Joseph and Alyson Andrews led the team with solid all-around performances throughout the whole season. Adding to the team efforts were junior Sarah Hebert, sophomore Pam Copass, and freshman Amy Dinwoodie. Whether it was on the competition floor or helping to keep track of scores, everyone had an important role to help the team's winning ways.

The Coventry Gymnastics team is making its mark in the interscholastic league. However, the team is as strong as it is due to the wonderful coaching job done by Ms. Lolita Lipa, Nikki Follett, and Robin Andrew. By remaining undefeated, the girls plan to make a strong run for the Team State Championships. Whatever the outcome, the gymnasts can only look at this season as nothing short of a success.

Boys X-Country

The boys' cross country team had a year of improvement. The team was smaller than other previous years, but the athletes on the team were closely knit and hard working. The team was led by co-captains Derek Jarvis and Tom Hazard. The season was exciting to see as the small team progressed to the level of champions that only Coventry athletes can aspire to become. Through not qualifying for the state meet, the class meet was still a fabulous ending for the entire team. The training done this year will help the young team next year in achieving any goal.

Girls' Cross Country

The CHS Girls' Cross-Country team finished up a great year with a record of six wins and three losses. Coventry emerged victorious in this year's annual Special Olympics Invitational and placed second in the Class A Championship meet, qualifying for the Rhode Island State Meet. Led by their top runner, junior Angela Murgia, and senior captains Janine Sgagliardich and Sarah Chafee-Standish, the girls placed fifth in the State Meet and pushed all the way through to the New England Regional Championship in Manchester, Connecticut.

In addition, the girls' JV team placed second in the JV State Meet with sophomore Jana List and freshman Danielle Branch placing in the top ten finishers. Also, in the Freshman State Meet, Kasey Cote and Renee Heath both placed in the top ten finishers.

Angela Murgia was the team's MVP this year, who placed second in the Class Meet and tenth in the state overall. Other consistent scorers for Coventry on the Varsity team were Emily Herron, Kasey Cote, Cassie Souto, Janine Sgagliardich, Renee Heath, Jana List, Catie McArdle, Danielle List.

Girls Tennis

The girls tennis team had a wonderful season with wins and losses. The team was led by captains Sue Colucci, Celinda Gourd, and Kendra Lonquist, and seniors Beth Atkins, Karen Simonelli. This team's strength was due in part to the strong friendships that were formed on the team. The team ended their season with their traditional pizza party where senior gifts and a coach's gift were given. Great season girls!

Wrestling

After losing two meets early in the season, the Oakers proved once again that they are #1. It wasn't just a season of "FIERCE" wrestling it was also a lot of fun. From the Bishop Hendricken signs to the yelling from the stands, the fans had just about as much fun as the wrestlers.

The captains for the Oakers this year were Keith Sullivan, Shane McGrath and Matt Stowe. These three wrestlers did well in the states with Matt Stowe placing 2nd, and being named second team all-state. Other noteworthy seniors included first year wrestlers Jon Brown and Joel Farren and Jeremy Zabbo who has proven himself by winning in many of this year's meets. Another senior who did well this season was Parker Capwell who also wrestled for the first year on varsity and who lost only one match.

Coventry also hosted the Freshmen JV State Tournament once again, and again the JV Oakers came out on top. The match of the tournament had to go to Coventry's Brian Beaudoin and Coventry's Shawn Gleason who wrestled each other in the finals with Beaudoin winning 5-2.

This has been a rebuilding year and a strong one for the Oakers!

Football

The football team had a great season this year winning 3 games, making it the best season since 1995 when the mighty Oakers won the Superbowl. The 1999 Oakers played some of the best teams in the state such as Portsmouth, Rogers, North Kingston, and the always powerful East Providence. After playing these powerful teams the football squad finished in 6th place in Division A which is something to be proud of.

The team was led by captains Kevin Peterson, Brian "Billy Bob" Beaudoin and Jay Saballa.

The offensive line, with the veteran skills of the aggressive and powerful Brian "Billy Bob" Beaudoin at the tackle, and the most fearless linemen in the league, Jeremy Zabbo, at guard, brought INTENSITY and HEART to the 5 linemen. With the quick footed Jon Brown at the other tackle, the mighty Mike Watson at opposite guard, and the super sophomore Dante Federici snapping the ball, the line opened up holes big enough to give fullback Mike Cambell over 1,000 yards rushing.

The quarterback and "coach in the making" Kevin Peterson would always be scouting teams and thinking of plays to help the Oakers improve their season. Kevin isn't just your average quarterback, he's one of the few quarterbacks that would take a shot at stepping on the defensive side of the ball, and when he did the opposite team knew it. But Kevin wasn't the only person making hits on defense. If you had seen the games you would have heard the sounds of Chris Dyer making a crack on the guy with the ball, and could have seen the well thought out interceptions of Jay Saballa.

The season had to be the most emotional season in the Oaker history. The team shed tears, along with laughs, sharing each other's pain. One Oaker stated, "I've never cried so much in so little time than I did when I was with the guys after the Cumberland game!!" If any of the players could go back and do it all again I don't think they would hesitate to do so.

Girls Soccer

The Lady Oakers soccer team had a strong season, compiling a 13-8 record overall. Coach Short and his team again made it to the playoffs, but lost in an exciting game in a double over-time shoot-out to Mount St. Charles. The leading scorer for Coventry was Jen Ferrari, scoring 20 out of the team's 43 goals of the season. The high point of the season was Coventry's 3-2 victory over arch-rival West Warwick. Later in the year, Coventry again beat West Warwick, 2-0 at home. Keeper Jodi Pesatauro was a key player for Coventry's soccer teams, coming up with numerous saves which resulted in important victories. The team was led by co-captains Lara Gast and Abby Ferri. Congratulations to the girls' soccer team and good luck in future seasons.

Boys Soccer

Although they were plagued by injury and bad luck, the boys varsity soccer team had moments of great play. The highlight of the season came on senior day. The opponent that day was archrival West Warwick. Unleashing all their guns, Coventry demolished the neighboring town by a score of 6-0. Very fittingly, all six goals came off the boots of seniors. Matt Holt struck first blood as he beat the West Warwick keeper three times to the opposite corner. During the second half, Coventry dominated play as all of its four captains contributed to Coventry's next three goals. Eric McNeely's powerful header off a corner kick made the score 4 to zip. Then, during a scramble for the ball in the penalty area, Mike Cote hit a rocket shot on net, which was deflected and then tucked away nicely by Kevin Berthiaume. In the closing moments, Jim Ancone received the ball at the top of the 18 and hit a knuckler to the inside post to complete the thrashing of the Wizards. During the season, many underclassmen assumed important roles in the lineup. Most importantly among them were Sean Parenteau, Matt Gravier, and Ben Sheldon. Lastly, Seth Rathbun played well in the net with a few shut-outs under his belt.

Girls Basketball

The Coventry Girls Basketball team had a great 1999-2000 season. Run by the three captains, Abby Ferri, Julie Farren, and Amy Morin, the team had strong leadership on and off the court. First year coach, Vivian Viera, shows great promise assisting the girls to make this such a successful season.

The starting lineup for the Lady Oakers consisted of sophomores Jodi Brown, Jamie Cathers, junior Amy Morin, and seniors Julie Farren and Abby Ferri who carried the girls to victory. The three seniors on the team this year were Abby Ferri, Julie Farren, and Celinda Gourd. These three gave the Lady Oakers four successful consecutive years. Julie Farren, the top rebounder of the year, also made it hard for the other team to score. Powerful Abby Ferri with her three-point shot and drive to the basket, led the Lady Oakers in points this season. Celinda Gourd with her consecutive foul shooting, her positive attitude and quiet leadership kept the team spirits up. With these great contributions and powerful leadership by terrific athletes, the team will be looking for next-year's seniors to fill the void. Altogether, the girls had a great season, finishing 2nd place in their division.

Boys Basketball

This year the Boys Basketball team was full of adversity, with everything from the streaky play of some kids, to injuries, language barriers, and off the court actions for others. With that said this year's basketball season has been fun and entertaining to watch and play.

Pat "TRICK" Hyland broke a school record with 8 three pointers in one game against Cranston East. There was always the constant outstanding play of Ryan "SHIBS" Shibly who is deadly from just about anywhere on the court. Also, there was the awesome inside skill of Piotr "POLISH POWER" Andrzejczuk, a first-time American player who kept the Oakers in many games. Then there was the awesome presence of Steve "MEL" Mello and Chris "BIG D" DiLecce who were both team leaders and captains. Those two players were able to see and control everything that happened on the floor. Last, there was the play of our sophomores Jake Pelletier, Jeff "SOUP" Supper and our juniors Dan "HOWIE" Howard, Scott "BURNZY" Burns, and Todd Southard.

With all the good times shared with coaches Joe "SYMK" Szymkowicz and Bill "T" Tanalia in practices, speeches, and special relationships with certain players, it was an overall great year in Coventry with the C-TOWN OAKERS.

Volleyball

The Boys Volleyball team this year experienced a rebuilding year. With only one four-year player in senior Michael Haskins, and Jay Jones a 2-year senior player, the team lacked the experience of many of their opponents. Coach Brent LaPointe was also a first-year head coach for the team and Randy Arel, the assistant coach was also working at his first year of coaching.

Next year's team will have some strong contenders with this year's juniors and next year's seniors, Josh Jacques and Ryan Dempsey. Matt Doucette and Jeff Chapdelaine will advance to the big hitter positions. In addition, Jeff Supper and Jake Pelletier have the potential to become strong juniors next year. Next year's volleyball team will be one to watch!

Cheerleaders

The Coventry High School Cheerleaders had a great season this year. There were three main squads consisting of Varsity A, Varsity B, and Varsity Hockey. Varsity A was the competition squad who also cheered for football and soccer. Varsity B cheered for wrestling and basketball. The girls did a great job in rooting on their team at sporting events as well as bringing spirit to the pep rally.

The competition squad was hard at work this year preparing for various competitions in which they were to represent C.H.S. Captains Megan Alexion, Tiffany Brown, Amanda Costello, and Brandi Onuschak did an excellent job in choreographing a routine for the twenty girls.

Boys Indoor Track

The Boys Indoor Track Team had a very successful season. They placed second in the divisional meet, beating East Providence, Barrington, St. Ray's, Middletown, and Mt. Hope. The team was led by nine seniors, Brian Amitrano, Paulie Blais, Mike Chase, Jay Daniels, Steve Dupree, Chris Dyer, Bob Martin, Dean Powers, and Erik Swanson. Tom Hazard, Derek Jervis, and Matt Taylor made a great impact as juniors who will be returning next year. Jay Daniels and Dean Powers led the team in the hurdles. Bobby Martin and Mike Chase led in the 600 meter. Paulie Blais ran the 300 meter alongside Steve Dupree, who also cleared 6 feet in the high jump. Brian Amitrano and Erik Swanson led the team in the distance events. Dean Powers was also the leading thrower in the weight and the shot put for the team. The relay team consisted of Matt Taylor, Chris Dyer, Mike Chase, and Jay Daniels. The CHS Boys Indoor Track Team did well this year. Congratulations guys!

Girls Indoor Track

The Girls Indoor Track team had one of its best seasons ever. Their hard work and practices paid off when they finished in second place in their Division. They ended with a 7-1 record, losing only to Bay View.

The encouragement given by one another led the girls to achieve their personal records. Besides these records, there were many school records that were beaten. Karen Simonelli broke the 600m record, Andrea Senerchia the 300m and 45m, and the 4x100m team of Jen Ferrari, Georgia Drought, Shaylin Cersosimo, and Andrea Senerchia led the school. Also, Jessica Fico broke the record in weights, and Kris Morgan tied it in shotput.

Hockey

The CHS Hockey season for the 1999-2000 year was overall a success. The team had a strong start with three wins in a row, and then a mix of wins and losses as our opponents grew stronger.

Overall, the team had seven wins and eleven losses, coming in eighth place in Division Met B out of twelve teams. High scorers were Jay Goffe with 12 goals for the season. Next highest scorers were D.J. Houle and Gary Hill. Glenn Davenport was the leader in assists with 13. Brian Vieira had a fantastic season in net with 347 saves and we eagerly look forward to his senior year next year.

On defense this year we had two strong seniors. John Minasian and Captain Jay Jones. We're looking forward to a strong defense next year with Geoff Bouchard and Jim O'Connor. For honors, Captain Jay Jones made 2nd team all division honors for the Met B Division and Jon Minasian received the Chris Brooks Hockey Scholarship.

Student Life at CHS

A typical school day consists of a variety of subjects like math, science, history, and English, but the students at CHS can also choose fun electives like ROTC, art, computers, band, chorus, lego robotics, cooking and other courses.

But there is much more to school life. A huge variety of after school activities at CHS take place every afternoon. After all, high school life isn't just about homework, writing papers and studying. Students at CHS can get involved in many activities even if they have to give up some of their personal time to join. Between working the WCVY Radio Station, participating in Student Council events, Science Club, Math Club, National Honor Society, Yearbook, Reach Out, Interact, DECA, Dance, Bible study, and Drama, students can stay really busy. Each individual class—freshmen, sophomores, etc. also has dances, car washes, and too many activities to list. Isn't this really what high school is about?

Right: Terry Boudreau is a fine example of what life at CHS is really like: long cafeteria lines are a perfect time to catch up on sleep.

DECA

DECA is one of the most active clubs in Coventry High School. From the school store to the Christmas projects, this club has been a success story for Mr. Alves, the advisor. Not only have the members of DECA had the opportunity to sell delicious cookies to ravenous students, but also to change the life of people in the community. The extra-curricular, as well as in-school group, has had the chance to make 2107 children and 208 elderly people's lives a bit happier. DECA did this by collecting, tagging and sorting gifts around Yuletide in order to make someone's holiday brighter for the year of 1999. The proof was in the 6500 gifts cluttering the auditorium to be dispersed throughout the community. Not only is DECA a Christmas time effort, but an all-year round event for the community to reap the benefits.

Reachout Program

Reach Out is an excellent opportunity for all students both with and without disabilities to work together. Reachout gives students the chance to share quality time together doing a variety of activities. The Reach Out program held here at Coventry High School has encouraged quality interactions between both groups of students. Students who are involved in Reach Out assist students with developmental disabilities in many ways. Some of the ways are as volunteer tutors in the classroom, in the Special Olympics Unified Sports, as a partner on a school day, in school activities or field trips, or even overnight trips. The most important reward is that students act as true friends towards each other.

The photos on this page show one activity enjoyed by the Reachout partners- the DECA holiday party. This event has grown so large that it is now held in the school library, and is a favorite of all who attend.

WCVY: CHS is Live on the Air

<http://www.listen.to/wcvy>

Operating out of a small janitor's closet in the music wing, FM91.5 WCVY has offered students at Coventry High School the opportunity to experience the workings of a real radio station for over 21 years, now with the supervision of Ms. Robyn MacDonald.

Students are offered chances to work in a variety of fields ranging from News Sports, DJs, and Management. This experience gives them an edge in communications when applying for college. Many prior WCVY staff members have gone on to work at some of the largest radio stations in New England.

Each year in mid-September the staff bustle about the radio station cleaning and getting ready to sign on the air for another broadcasting year. The transmitter is switched on and the voice of the students is sent out to Kent County.

Once or twice a year WCVY replenishes its staff at auditions. Students turn out to get their chance on radio, but it's up to the managers to choose who is best from the large group.

As the school year comes to a close, the staff prepares to close down for the year. New managers are elected and old staff are promoted to fill the spots of the seniors, who will be having their final shows.

Amanda Falcone aims to entertain every Tuesday from 2 to 4.

No Surprises from DJ Tim Feeley. (Get it? It's a pun. Read the shirt.)

DJs Tim Feeley, Veronica Haskins, Joe Knott, Kristi LaMountain, Nikki Baris, Danyell Spurr and Jackie Dillard are very close. Perhaps a bit too close judging by Joe Knott's face.

Joined by fellow staff members, Tim Feeley breaks in the auditioners - literally!

CHS's Air Force Junior ROTC

The Rhode Island 81st Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps is committed to leadership, service, and excellence. The unit consists of approximately 150 dedicated cadets. Cadets are instructed in the classroom on all matters of military history and aerospace science. Outside of the classroom, they have the opportunity to help run the unit and organize events. Throughout the year, the unit hosts a Dining-Out, Military Ball, and National Awards Banquet. In addition, cadets choose to participate in a wide variety of community service activities. The Kitty Hawk Air Society tutors cadets and high school students in academic need of assistance. This year, cadets have helped rake leaves for the elderly, worked in hospitals, and volunteered at nursing homes. Cadets also ran a Thanksgiving canned food drive and adopted a local family for the Christmas holiday. The unit is also proud to have an award-winning drill team. The drill team competes in various local and regional competitions to prepare for the national competition in Daytona Beach, Florida. The RI 81st is an organization truly committed to honor and professionalism.

The Entry

From sports scores to controversial issues, The Entry covers them all. Since its inception in 1936, when Coventry High was located on Knotty Oak Rd, The Entry has delivered the happenings of CHS to the school and community. Though the advisors and staff have changed numerous times, the quality and principal ideals have always remained. The Entry is still an educational institution, teaching journalistic integrity and values.

From cut and paste (manual) and mimeographing, to desktop publishing, The Entry has seen it all and changed with the times. Currently, headed by Mr. Gibb, students are able to explore the field of journalism as an elective. The course gives a full view of the entire publishing process, from concept to paper. Students learn how to create a proper news article, conduct interviews, and even work with page layout.

Editor-in-chief, Megan Chilton has the responsibility of overseeing the staff and determining what needs coverage, and that it is done so properly. With a staff of twenty-one eager student-journalists working alongside her, the task of producing Coventry High's paper is much easier.

The paper is a mix of student interest, including the scores from last week's game, the review of that school play, and the witty editorials about student life. The Entry is the showcase for Coventry's budding journalists.

Editor-in-chief Megan Chilton is shown editing submitted stories.

Editors Libby Stevens, Mary Illiano, and Scott Lyons work diligently to prepare the next issue. They are reviewing other papers to get some new ideas.

Model U.N.

The United Nations is a governing body where representatives from different nations from around the world unite in New York City to say what's on their mind, get issues settled, and hopefully stop wars. In model United Nations, students learn about the United Nations current events and possible solutions to specific problems in nations. Model United Nations meets Mondays after school from 2:15 until 3:30 in room 117. Mr. Dubois is the club's advisor. Model United Nations is a lesson in history, drama, debate, and politics in one. Students research and discuss information on the United Nations and on current events. The students are given information on their roles as representatives for specific nations within the United Nations. They are also given a scenario to work with.

The students work together to come up with a possible solution for the nations involved using their knowledge. Then, as a group, Model United Nations votes on a solution and writes up a formal report on the solution. Model United Nations is mostly made up of freshmen and sophomores. All the officers are sophomores. The Secretary General (president) is Rachel Maxwell, the Under Secretary (vice-president) is Dave Petrarca, who has been a member of Model United Nations the longest, the Secretary of Information is Megan Phelps, and the General Treasurer is Jen Taylor. Under the officers are councils all consisting of different members. Model UN, which has been an option at Coventry High School for 2 years, has many goals this year as well as the upcoming years. Model UN would like to increase its membership from 15 students, host a "home" debate tournament, and plan a cultural trip to Quebec, Canada. Model UN students know that we are on the edge of tomorrow, and a better understanding of our world and surrounding nations is their powerful contribution to the new millenium.

Peer Mediation

The Peer Mediation program at CHS is a student-operated program that addresses conflicts among peers by mediating situations between two or more parties. After being trained by Al McKinnon, the students who pass become "Peer Mediators." When conflicts arise, mediators are called in, chosen by the grade of those involved. The mediators go through the process to an agreement with those involved, which eventually resolves the conflict. An agreement is drawn up and kept on file. If the same parties remain in conflict, they are referred to the Vice Principals.

Mediators meet every Friday in 4 groups for 1 hour until the end of the training. Then mediators are on call all year. Mr. Ferrara and Mrs. Carlsten are the advisors and they feel that this is an effective way to deal with potential student violence.

Student Council

Student Council is an organization where groups of students work together to formulate policy and programs for the betterment of Coventry High School. Student Council allows students to develop their own leadership styles while serving the needs of others. This year the Student Council was led by President Kendra Lonquist.

From the meetings that take place during the summer to the Alton Jones conferences, Student Council members are actively participating in numerous activities that take place throughout the year. Some of these activities include the preparation of Homecoming, The Varsity Revue, and the famous Spirit Week. Student Council also breaks into smaller committees such as the Intergenerational Committee, which interacts students from Coventry High School with Senior Citizens through events, parties, and socials, and the Secret Pal Committee, which is a fun organization where students get paired up with teachers and send each other gifts throughout the year, until May when they finally meet at a reception. The Student Council also takes care of ID cards that gets distributed to students at the beginning of the year. This year, the Student Council is planning a fair that will bring the entire community together. This fair, known as "Millennium Mania", is a day to promote health consciousness. It will take place in the early spring.

Student Council promotes leadership and the desire to lead. Twice a year, the Student Council organizes leadership conferences that take place at Alton Jones. Leadership exercises are learned through activities, stories, and workshops. In addition to the Alton Jones Conferences, Student Leadership Training Programs (SLTP) are held throughout the summer to promote leadership. Coventry also sends student and adult representatives to the National Student Council Conference.

Mr. DiMicco, Mrs. Tracy, and Mrs. Kelly are the Student Council advisors.

Executive Boardmembers include: Bottom L-R: Advisor, Mrs. Tracy, Amanda Falcone, Recording secretary; President Kendra Lonquist, Jon Ayliffe-Jessup, Office Manager; Becky Major, Treasurer; and Advisor Mr. DiMicco. Interact

The Interact Club is a club based solely on community service in the town of Coventry. The Interact Club started off the year with a tagging fundraiser for the Tomorrow Fund, an organization which provides support for children with cancer. Over $600 was collected. In October many members participated in the Challenge Ride at the East Bay Bike Path. It was a twenty mile bike ride to raise money for handcycles, for the Handcycle Subsidy Giving Program.

Among other activities the Interact Club also participated in the David Najarian Scholarship Road Race. The club also made a donation in David's honor. At Christmas time the club hosted a Christmas Bazaar. They are working with Habitat For Humanity by collecting used ink cartridges to be recycled. The money from this goes to the building of homes. The proceeds from the club's fundraisers go towards other causes in Coventry. Little by little, the Coventry High School Interact Club is really making a difference.

Drama Club

Ms. Meehan, advisor of the Drama Club, came to CHS in 1996. Alongside President, Jonathan Ayliffe-Jessup, she has worked extremely hard to develop the theatre program, which has reached a milestone this year. A troupe of 20 cast members starred in a series of five one-act plays entitled "Act Up", which ran extremely well.

The spring production, "The Dining Room," by A.R. Gurney Jr., promises to be a witty comedy. With the explosive talent and dedicated help behind-the-scenes, the 1999-2000 year of drama will prove to be a year to remember.

For two days in February our school library is transformed into science fair central when honors science students at Coventry High School compete in the annual Science Fair sponsored by the Science Department. Some 135 students in grade 9-12 participated in the event this year designed to provide students with an opportunity to improve their research and experimental skills and to complete an applied learning project.

Organized under the direction of the honors teachers and the Department Chair, Mr. Ernest DiMicco, this has become a rite of passage for many students. Many projects dealing with plants and light, cleaning detergent, and optical illusion are seen each year. The unusual ones like Bioremediation, Tensegrity, and Electromagnetic Induction were the ones that caught the judges' eyes. Science department head Mr. Ernest DiMicco had a staff of judges working throughout the day and after school choosing the best of the best. On this page are seen some of the best of the fair.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society stands for scholarship, leadership, service, and character. In keeping with its purpose, the National Honor Society has remained very active in both the school and community throughout the past year. First of all, students in the National Honor Society have spent hundreds of hours working on various projects for community service, such as peer tutoring, landscaping, and student teaching. This past December, they gathered money, purchased clothes, and distributed them to a family in need to complete their annual Adopt-A-Family project. As a unit, the National Honor Society raised funds through a car wash in June, Dress Down Days in October, and a bake sale in November; all the money from which is eventually gifted back to the school and community. Honors Night is in May, and with it every year comes the chance to celebrate the accomplishments of the members and the contributions made by the National Honor Society to the school and community.

National Honor Society Officers: Lara Gast, Vice President; [Name], Corresponding Secretary; Jim Ancone, President; [Name], Recording Secretary; Steven Dupree, Treasurer.

Band: Marching and Concert

The Coventry High School Band has been very active throughout the school year. From football games and parades to festivals and concerts, the band is never without a place to perform. The start of the school year meant the start of football games and marching practice. The halftime show was rehearsed for Thanksgiving. With winter came the winter concert and trips to elementary schools. In March, the band participated in the St. Patrick's Day parade and the Renaissance Fair. Also, a special clinic was held for all music students with guest speaker Greg Abate. The month of April was a time for lengthy rehearsals, in preparation for the RI Music Educators Band Festival. The concert band performs every year and always achieves high standards. Every Spring, there is a band and chorus trip held in May. This year, the music department went to New York City to perform in the Music Showcase Festivals. The three day trip included a performance at the festival, sightseeing, and an awards banquet. Soon after their return to Rhode Island, the music department held its annual spring concert. The concert band, jazz ensemble, wind ensemble, and various choral groups participated. To end their marching year, the band marched in the Memorial Day Parade in Coventry. The Music Banquet, held on June 6, was a time for tears and laughter. The seniors said goodbye and a good time was had by all.

CHS Dance Team

Right: Dance Team Captains are Sarah Lyons, Jen Ranney and Jen Petrarca.

The dance team has entered its 2nd year at CHS. Performing in the Open or Hip Hop category of dance, this group competes at several events each year. Being the only competitive dance team in Rhode Island, they compete mostly in Massachusetts. Their competitions place them against private dance studios rather than other schools. The group is self-funded and pays for their entry fees, costumes, and competition expenses from fund-raising efforts like the school-wide Valentine's Day Dance that they sponsored in February.

The Dance Team performs each year at the Thanksgiving Football game, at the Varsity Review, and at a Spring Dance Show. Last year they also danced as part of the school play Pinocchio. Most girls on the team have prior dance experience although not all of them. We're hoping that they will be able to perform in the National Competition in Myrtle Beach, North Carolina this year.

State Drama Competition

Coventry High School's Drama Club competed in the Rhode Island State Drama Festival on March 24 and 25, 2000. They were chosen as the alternate to represent the state in the New England Drama Festival. This is equivalent to third place in the state. Directed by senior Jonathan Ayliffe-Jessup, the outstanding cast of the play, "Hard Candy" received an award for excellence in Ensemble work. The cast and crew consists of seniors, Stephanie Bear, Jeremy Bent, Kimberly Johnson, and Christina Olszewski. And Juniors are Melissa Corbett, Brad Kirton, and Dan Messier. Sophomores are Adam Sebdza, Jessica Sperlongano, and Michelle Wilcox. Last is Freshman with Matt Marshall, Casey McLellan, and Dave Prata. Congratulations! Our "seasoned veterans," as one judge referred to us, will be performing their spring play, "The Dining Room," at Coventry High School on April 28 and 29 at 7:00 PM and April 30 at 2:00 PM.

Honey, your "fashion statements" have always been right on the mark!! I know you'll be an asset to the fashion industry! And always remember: you can have your cake and eat it too!!

Love you,
Mom and All...

Congratulations to Our Megan

It seems like only yesterday that God blessed us with your presence. Now here you are on the threshold of your new life. We all loved you growing up and we all are so proud of you. You're (1) in a million. No one will ever know how much you have meant to me!... "Your Dad" God Bless You and Guide You in the years to come

We love you.
Your Moms, Dads, Brothers, Sisters and Grandparents
P.S. Johnny Too!

ST.A

Congratulations Amanda

Your time is now, the time to become yourself. Think of us, but more importantly, think of your own hopes and dreams. Grasp them and mold your future for happiness and success. We are very proud of you and will always be here for you.

With All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Nana and Papa

Congratulations Tasha

We have watched that little girl grow up into a beautiful young woman. That same look, That same smile, all grown up and graduating. Wow!

We're so proud of you!
Love you always,
Mom, Dad, and Netia

Congratulations Scott!

We can't believe how quickly time has passed. You have grown into a strong, self confident young man. We are so proud of all of your accomplishments. There's no stopping you now - go for it all!

Because You Loved Me

For all those times you stood by me
 For all the truth that you made me see
 For all the joy you brought to my life
 For all the wrong that you made right
 For every dream you made come true
 For all the love I found in you
 I'll be forever thankful baby
 You're the one who held me up
 Never let me fall
 You're the one who saw me through through it all.
 You were my strength when I was weak
 You were my voice when I couldn't speak
 You were my eyes when I couldn't see
 You saw the best there was in me
 Lifted me up when I couldn't reach
 You gave me faith 'coz you believed
 I'm everything I am
 Because You Loved Me.

Congratula- tions, Erin!

We can't believe this day has arrived! What beautiful memories you have given us! Always reach for the stars and never lose that twinkle in your eye!

With love and pride,
 Mom, Elisha, and Jessica

Congratulations Nicole

And 4 Eva
Mom

Congratulations Vanessa,

It seems like only yesterday when we put you on that big yellow school bus as you began 1st grade.
Through the years, we have shared many happy memories and exciting times. We've watched you grow and mature into a beautiful person both inside and out. May your next four years at college be filled with much success as you pursue your goals and dreams. We are so proud of you for the wonderful daughter you have become.

Love,
Mom, Dad & Danielle

Congratulations Peter

It's hard to believe that you are graduating from high school. The day you were born I fell in love with you and through the years my love for you has only gotten stronger. I am very proud of you. You never let your disabilities slow you down.
I will always be here for you, no matter what. May God always bless and protect you.

I love you,
Mom

Congratulations Peter

I was always proud of you. I am sorry that I am not here to be part of your graduation day. I will always watch over you but most of all I have and always will love you no matter where our paths may lead us. God bless you.

Love You Always,
Dad

Best of Luck, Candie
Candie: I am so proud of you! I hope all your dreams and wishes come true
always.
Love & Luck,
Mom

Congratulations Matt!

Our little boy has grown into a confident, intelligent, capable, young man. You have accomplished so much in the classroom and on the baseball field. We are so proud of you and look forward to many more accomplishments in your next four years at college.
Love,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations, Michelle

We are so proud of you. Our little Swiss Miss has grown into a beautiful, loving young lady. You have accomplished so much along the way. You have given us so many wonderful times and memories, that we will never forget.

We love you very much and wish you all the best in life. Remember, no matter what you choose to do, we will always be here for you. Anything can be yours if you put your mind to it.

We love you,
Mom, Dad and Mike

We love you, Megan
With your happy, big brown eyes.
We love the way you've filled
our lives
With wonder and surprise.
Soon you'll walk across the stage
With diploma in your hand
Our hearts will be filled with jopy and pride
On your graduation day.
It's a new millennium.
Go get 'em!
Love, Mom, Dave, Michaela
and MacKenzie

Congratulations Meg

The memories that you have given me through the years and the ones
yet to come will always bring a smile when I close my eyes and dream.

Reach for the stars,
Meg.
Love, Dad

Congratulations Brian

From when you were a little boy,
You've always been our pride and joy.
Your sense of humor, your love for fun.
We're very proud of you, son.
Now that you are graduating,
and your high school years are done,
Your journey in life has just begun.

And no matter where life's road may lead,
Just remember we will always be beside
you
To help you, to love you, and to guide you.
Love,
Mom, Dad & Eric

Congratulations Joel and Julie

Finally, the last two through CHS.
May you both excel in everything you do as unto God. Follow your hopes and dreams because you can do anything you put your mind to. Always stay the best of friends. Love you both very much. We are proud of you both.
Dad and Mom

Congratulations Joe

It's hard to believe that so much time has gone by and you have grown into this wonderful human being! With your kindness, humor, and sensitivity, you've stayed true to yourself and remained your own person. You give us light on the darkest days and make us laugh when we need it most. Thank you for sharing so much of yourself with us. We are and always will be so very proud of you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Matthew and Aimee

Congratulations Pamela!

We are so proud of you and all you have done! Good luck in the future.
May all your dreams come true. Always keep smiling.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Laura

Celinda,

May good fortune be with
you,
May your guiding light be strong...
But whatever road you choose,
We're right behind you, win or lose!

Love,
Dad, Mom, and Nathan

Jake, I love you!

These three words are all I can say to express what you mean to me.

I loved you the day I found out you were going to be...
I love you now for what you are...
I love you for what you will become...

I love you,
Mom

Always remember your dreams and never let anyone get in the way of making your dreams come true. Always remember I believe in you!

Congratulations Brent!

For all your ups and downs, you finally made it! You'll never know how proud we are of you.
May your future bring you happiness and success.

Love,
Mom, Christine, and Dakota

Congratulations, Jeremy

From HEMAN to BATMAN no one can deny what a wonderful young man you have become.

Feet and inches could never measure the effort you give to accomplish your goals;
nor can any scale weigh the amount of pride
our hearts hold for you.

All our Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations, Jason

We have watched you grow from this adorable little boy into a most handsome young man.
You are a wonderfully kind, considerate, and thoughtful person who we are incredibly proud of.
Continue to work hard for what you want and stand up for what you believe in. We'll always be here for you.

With all our love,
Mom, Dad, Sean & Nicole

Congratulations Jimmy

Our little lovely boy is now a fine young man. Thank you for all the happy memories and how proud you make us feel through everything you do.

Good luck. You deserve everything good that comes your way for being a special son. Mami dodo.

Love Forever,
Dad, Mom, Alfred and Alix

Congratulations Jeffrey

From your first day of school till your last, you've filled me with so much pride and joy.
Words cannot say just how proud I am of you, my fine young man. Remember, I'll always be here for you!!!

Love always,
Mom

Jeremy Bent

Thank you for seventeen years of great entertainment! We've enjoyed it all!

Brianna,

From Barbies to Backyard Shows
With all your smiles, we watched you grow
To Pink Floyd and your Fender Guitar
You are a joy, our special star.

Wishing you all the love and peace your heart can hold.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Alexis and Lacey

Eric Congratulations!

To our free-spirited, loving and full-of-life boy!
Now, you are a young man and continue to bring us joy!
May your journey after high school bring you lots of success!
All of our love, pride, happiness, good health, peace, and support go with you -

Wishing you all of life's best!
We are here with you, no matter what the situation!
With your hard work, dedication, and enthusiasm, your dreams and goals will become a realization!

Always with Love,
Mommy, Daddy, Jason and Lady Shasta

Congratulations Matthew!

From the little boy you once were
To the young man you now are,
I have always been so proud of you.
Keep marching ahead to that "different" beat!
I love you -
Mom XOXO

Congratulations Megan!

We are so proud of the wonderful, caring person you have become. Believe in your dreams; they are your future. Good luck in all that you do.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Chris

Congratulations Kimberly

Our heart are filled with love and pride for you. Our dreams have come true as we watched you grow into the lovely young woman you are today. Now may you realize the beauty and power of your own dreams.

All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Kailin, and Mulligan

Congratulations John!

Watching you grow into such a wonderful young man has been a great joy to us. Your sense of humor and outgoing personality have made you the special person you are now. You have always made us proud, whether it was playing baseball, soccer, or while studying hard in school. We wish you the very best and hope that the future brings you happiness and success. Follow your heart and believe in yourself, Boo-Boo, and your dreams will become a reality. All out love, Mom, Dad, Jessica

Congratulations, Erik

We are so proud of you! Believe in yourself. You deserve nothing but success, so reach for the stars.

Follow your dreams and remember we will always be here for you. Be happy, be safe.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Adrienne

Brandi,

The time from kindergarten to senior, from little girl to beautiful young lady, has flown by but we would like to thank you for all the proud memories you have given us which will last a lifetime. Always remember that a dream is a wish your heart makes. Go after it and make it come true!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Leah

Congratulations, Stephen!

You have always been special-- not only because you always put forth your best effort, but because you genuinely care about others. As you close one door and open another, continue to follow your dreams. Seek the answers to the difficult questions and never forget that you can make a difference. Remember the sand on the beach, the walks in the woods, and the love in our hearts. We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished! Thank you for being such a wonderful son. And remember to always reach for the stars.

Love, Mom and Dad

Congratulations, Ryan

It is a joy to have such a wonderful, creative son. Always keep your beloved music in your life and strive to do your best.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Jodi-Lyn,

Over the years you have made us very PROUD. You have excelled in sports and academics. Best of all, you have grown into a very well-rounded young woman. You work very hard at all you do, so we know all your dreams will come true.

Outstanding job!!
All our love,
Mom and Joe

Katie,

Always be amazed at the world. Be yourself but be your best self. Dare to be different and to follow your own star--
Then you can look forward with confidence and back without regret.

We love you and are very proud of all your accomplishments.
Dad, Mom, Ryan, Greg and Kelsey

Jesse

Jessie was a lot of things
A friend, a son, a brother
To me he was not only a friend
He was much more than any other.
Jesse was not only my love
But also my best friend.
I remember him always telling me
We'd be together till the end.
Everyone is put on this earth for a reason
Although we don't know what his was,
I know he fulfilled it with pride and joy
And showed me the meaning of love.
Jesse would want us to go on with life
And live it day by day.
All we have to do is think of his smile
Especially when skies are gray.
We need to remember
He will be with us always
In our minds and hearts.
Just keep the memories inside of us
And we'll never have to part.
To his family
I need you to know
Jesse helped me through a lot
More than anyone ever knew
I was also there for him
And I'll always be here for you.

Always Friends

A friend today, a friend tomorrow, but a friend never gone.
In his death, a friend still here, but all our hearts are torn,
when a friend goes, we show that we care
by getting together our feelings we share.
There is a part in a friendship, we call it trust,
we'll never forget him and he'll never forget us.
Now that he's gone we mourn and strive,
but by staying together we keep his memory alive.
He was the friend that would be there for you,
to give advice, and tell what he would do.
Being the friend who would never say "no".
Even though he's not here, his life will still grow.
His smile affected us all in a particular way,
but he would always have the right thing to say.
The poem is now over, but his memory will never end,
because his soul is with us, we'll always be friends.
We love you always,
Your Friends
