Reflections

*For some of us this is just a beginning
While others are saying goodbye,
To this extraordinary journey of obstacles
Spreading our wings and learning to fly.
Most of us found our road to be rocky
Meeting our challenges face to face,
From the top of one mountain to the bottom of the next
To see what life really has to taste.
We've made some friends along the way
Those who have helped us make it through,
And always had a smile to share with us
When our hearts seemed to be missing a few.
Dances are but glimpses of memories
Of sharing our good time together,
When all of our differences were put aside
Hoping these nights would last forever.
Every day we look at ourselves in the mirror,
Past the image and into our core,
Deep in our hearts where relationships lie
And reflect on what we're living for.
From a distance we may be lost in the crowd
But up close we are not all the same.
Each of us following our own separate paths
Embarking on new journeys, striving for fame.
Never take for granted the things you own
Hold fast to the dreams you mend,
For as long as you know what you're living for,
There will be a beginning to every end.*

Student Life...

liking what we see...

The end of each school year is a time appropriate for reflection. It is a time when we the students reminisce about the past year's events and look inward at ourselves, to evaluate our continuing development as individuals. Some people will realize that they have changed a great deal in a short amount of time, while others may think that they have not changed at all. Whether or not we realize it, we will continually use the knowledge that we have gained at Coventry High School to assist us along the road that lies before us. We will draw upon our high school experiences and the life lessons that we have learned to help us in our future, wherever that may lead. Although it is true that we have gleaned great amounts of factual information during our journey through high school, more important are the lessons we have learned beyond the textbook, those that will serve us for the rest of our lives. These lessons and experiences create who we are and deepen the definition we have of ourselves. The skills and experiences that we take with us from Coventry High School will allow us to be happy with the images we see being reflected back at us in the mirror of time, regardless of what walk of life we are traversing.

Top Right: Lauren Silva and Amanda Lyons have learned a valuable lesson: do not superglue yourself to your friend. Coventry High School World Travelers

More and more frequently Coventry High students are traveling the globe or coming from other parts of the world. This past Spring a group of Spanish students went to Spain, Italian students have traveled to Italy for many years. Here are some of our seniors who reflect this trend.

Paul Kostadinow joined Coventry High School in the middle of his sophomore year coming from Gdynia, Poland, one of the largest cities in Northern Poland. In the photo at the far left, Paul (at far right) is a freshman in a technical high school for chefs where four of his 13 subjects dealt with the culinary arts. In the photo on the right, a younger Paul in 5th grade was at Starowka, a well-known square in Krakow, Poland.

At right is a photo of Kayode Akinsinde and his sister in Nigeria. Kayode moved here in December 2000 and loves Coventry!! Below are photos from Sheri Giannattasio who spent her summer as a missionary in Kenya and Ethiopia, Africa. Sheri found the experience to be, "life changing" and relates that, "At seventeen, I was blessed to have been able to complete such an unbelievable experience. I found that the families that I lived with live from the inside out, whereas we live from the outside in." The three photos below show Sheri with many of the children that she worked with and the tent that she lived in.

Homecoming

Homecoming at Coventry High School is always a great way to begin the events of the year. This year was no exception. The Homecoming festivities began on Friday, October 19th, with our annual Homecoming Dance. This year's theme was "Here's to the Night". Everyone enjoyed refreshments and dancing in the school gym, which was decorated by the Student Council with silver star balloons and lights.

The next morning was the Homecoming Parade. Each class and the Student Council designed their own floats modeled after different board games. The senior class float "Candy Land" won first place, the freshmen took second place with "Scrabble", and third place went to Student Council's float "Hungry, Hungry Hippos". The time and effort that went into designing and building all of the floats was evident, and made our parade a success.

Following the parade was the Homecoming football game that Coventry played against Westerly. After a long and valient effort, the Oakers were slightly edged by the Bulldogs. The festivities were not over however, as Steve St. Amand and Audra Lavoie were announced Homecoming king and queen at halftime. Coventry's Homecoming 2001 was once again a success and demonstrated the Oakers' school spirit. Go Oakers!

The Hunt

For the second year Mr. Hobin headed up the faculty for the planning of "The Hunt." Many seniors and juniors, some now experienced in scavenging the school grounds for clues, joined together for a cold night of fun. Everyone from Express runway models, Scooby Doo and the gang, Barbie, Britney Spears, M&M's, the characters of Doug and more joined their leader, the devil (I mean, Mr. Hobin) in order to earn prizes. This year Mr. Hobin and other faculty collected an overwhelming amount of prizes. Students won CD's, calling cards, hats, t-shirts, candy baskets, stuffed elephants sewn by Mrs. Richardson, school store gift certificates and many other great prizes. The #1 winners were again awarded the Dinner and Concert of their choice. This year, Team United Nations won with Nick Sullivan, Eric Beaudoin, Jeff Thibodeau, and Kayote Atkinside, winning the grand prize of concert tickets and a dinner at a restaurant of their choice.

Junior Prom 2001

"Just a Dream"

On the evening of April 6, 2001, the Senior class attended their Junior Prom. The dance was held at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet and was a much anticipated event. When the night finally arrived, everyone gathered together and looked their best, ready to dance the night away. The end of the evening brought a moment of suspense as everyone awaited the crowning of the Junior Prom Queen. All of the candidates were rightly nominated, and were more than happy to share the excitement of Jenette Delmonaco as she was crowned. As the evening came to a close, everyone was filled with both excitement and sadness as the DJ played the theme, and now that the night has passed, it has truly become, "Just a Dream..."

Class History

Four years ago the class of 2002 entered Coventry High School as freshmen. Some of us were nervous, others excited, and most of us were not sure what to expect. As we reflect back on that year we can remember all of the new experiences that were encountered. Mr. Thompson was still the principal, and there was a seven period schedule. We had our first Homecoming, and this was the only year we didn't place first in the float competition. The year ended with the Freshman Semi-Formal, an event that was memorable to all that attended.

As Sophomore year began, we were a little older, a little wiser, and we could see these changes in ourselves. The year brought more new experiences. We received our class rings as well as two yearbooks! The great block-scheduling debate was heating up, we even had a trial run of the proposed change. Near the end of the year the Sophomore Semi was held at Evelyn's Villa.

Junior year began with changes! Gone was the old schedule; block scheduling was finally here. Thankfully, we missed the teaming since we were the last class to be free of that experience. We were finally upperclassmen, and were allowed certain privileges. For instance, we finally had a formal dance. There was a new activity at CHS that juniors were allowed to participate in; The Hunt, an on-campus scavenger hunt organized by Mr. Hobin. The Winter Ball was held at the West Valley Inn. On April 5th our prom was held at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet; the theme was "Just a Dream," and Jenette Delmonaco was crowned Prom Queen. The rest of the year passed quickly. In June there was Class Day, where we mocked the senior class with our skit.

Finally, we became seniors. The school year began with a rocky start. We arrived at school a week later then planned due to the construction, and even then the construction was not finished. In addition, we had a new acting principal, Mrs. Seemueller, and no senior privileges. At that year's Homecoming Audra Lavoie and Mike St. Amand were homecoming king and queen, and our float won first prize, as if there was ever any doubt. Halloween approached and with that came The Hunt. Mr. Hobin, not happy with ticket sales, decided to hunt down possible participants during lunches and was successful. We came back to school after Christmas "vacation" (does a week constitute as a vacation) to be greeted by our new, yet experienced, Principal, Mr. James DiPrete, and Assistant Principal, Mr. Magerian. The year passed by quickly with the Winter Ball, and then the Senior Ball, which was on May 10th at the Marriot in Newport. In June came Class Day, quickly followed by graduation on June 13th, an exciting evening for everyone.

Our class has seen it all. We've had three new principals, several different schedules, and we (praise, Oh Higher Being) just missed teaming. We've dealt with construction and senior privilege debates. It's been an interesting four years, but looking back we will never forget them.

Winter Ball

"Winter Dream"

On January 25th, 2002, the Coventry High School Junior/Senior winterball, "Winter Dream," was held. Students arrived promptly at six o'clock at West Valley Inn in West Warwick. Pictures were taken, and dinner was served at 7:15. By eight o'clock dancing was in full swing. People were dancing, singing, and having a wonderful time. They danced to selections like "Dreaming of You" by Selena, which matched the theme of the evening. Soon eleven o'clock came and students left, sad that the dance was over yet looking forward to their upcoming proms.

Jennifer Arts: A happily married biochemist.

Rachael Baczinski: I will be sitting in the corner of my marble with Megs, eating Chinese food.

Eric Beaudoin: Hugh Hefner wants me to take over his position, but till then, I'll be thinking about it and will be happy at the same time.

Melissa Beaufort: In 10 years I hope to be a married, successful doctor.

Scott Behne: I'm not sure...but I know I will be living for the moment and looking back with a smile.

Charles Benda: Don't care as long as I'm not here.

Erika Berntson: Perfecting my Hiten Mitsuugi sword techniques with my Sakabato, (reverse blade sword.)

Krystal Blanchette: In ten years I will still be driving around with Nikki, Nicole, and Shannon trying to find our way around Cranston.

Erin Boorum: Famous fashion designer, livin' it up in Colorado happily married to Matt.

Dennis Breault: In Boston, working as the general manager of the Red Sox.

Kim Brodeur: Still doing shindigs with my friends and being a thug with Laura Champagne.

Aaron Brown: Kick'n butt with Jenna "MR" in the F.B.I.

Jodi Brown: Living with Joe on a deserted island eating berries.

Jason Brunero: Doing the same high schools stuff with Vin Deresta.

Tarah Burke: Still hanging with The Crew in Moffat's basement.

Pamela Butts: Living in Boston with Tara in our way cool apartment.

Megan Cady: Teaching elementary kids, living a wonderful life, running road races with fellow team members, and having an Awful Awful with Nicole.

Tracy Cairns: Some place very nice.

Catherine Calapai: A successful lawyer, waiting in Italy for Emma!

Emily Camera: On the road married to Jon Bon Jovi.

Kristofer Carlson: If I'm not watching the Bill Cosby Jr. show, I'll probably be fighting in a war against flying monkeys.

Erin Carnahan: Married and owning my own restaurant.

Lauren Catalano: I will be in LaLa Land; dressing and acting the way I do today! I am CAMOGIRL!

Jaimee Cathers: Still hanging with the girls!

Nicole Starrette: Happy, in love, not looking back, only leaping forward.

Jenna Steiner: Kick'n butt with Brownie in the F.B.I.

Bill Pepper tries to hide from the yearbook staff. What he doesn't know is that just because he can't see us doesn't mean we can't see him.

Nick Sullivan: ...still in school, studying away.

Danielle Sweeney: A history teacher, but still calling Ned for "oreo cookie advice"

Lisa Tate: An elementary school teacher and married with 2 children.

Jen Taylor: In ten years from now I will be living in N.Y. solving the world's most violent crimes as a forensic scientist. But still saving time for "Wicked Wednesdays."

Kita Thepmanisong: I will be somewhere in the warm climate paying off all my loans, bills, debts, and also squeezing in some enjoyment once in a while.

Jeff Thibodeau: In a stadium full of people chanting "Thibodeau" as I celebrate after scoring a goal for Real Madrid.

Jen Tidswell: I'll be living in a huge house on my beach swimming with dolphins and having many more Wicked Wednesdays.

Jenna Tonet: 28 years old, still upholding the Friday night traditions, and enjoying life.

Eleni Tsigaridas: Happily married to a trustworthy guy

Jason Varney: Still winning championships with the U-18 volleyball team.

Nina Vizzaccaro: Still chillin' on the beach with Kristin, checkin' for hot guys!!

Danielle Walker: Living life to the fullest, trying to be the best I can be.

Heather Walker: I'll be married to my sweetie, teaching kindergarden and still throwing paintballs at Melissa Nagy.

Mindy Ware: Still sitting with the Crew in Moffat's basement planning our futures.

Amanda Watson: Two words: reunion tour.

Kristen Weaton: Working as an accountant.

Ashley White: Living happily in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

Kyle Wilcox: Living large, and hopefully, not answering this question again.

Amanda Wilkinson: Hopefully successful in life & the mother of a beautiful 11 year old girl.

Liz Williams: Still pursuing my obsession with Anime along with Erika and Rachel while trying to keep my day job and my sanity.

Chris Wree: Living as a single successful guy.

Marc Daniels has mastered the, "I'm looking at you but, that doesn't mean I'm paying attention" look.

Varsity Review

Although it was off to a rocky start, this year's Varsity Revue was a great success. Led by director Ashley Moone and stage-manager Scott Behm, the show nearly sold out both nights. Work began early in the school year preparing for the show, when a Space Odyssey theme was decided upon. Ashley, Scott, and a dedicated handful of others then began the lengthy process of auditions, sifting through dozens of acts to determine which would be in the show.

Unfortunately, the students' busy schedules caused numbers to dwindle during the practices, and the show had to be postponed from its original November 16th and 17th show nights to January 11th and 12th. While this was a difficult decision to make, the extra weeks gave both those behind the stage and those performing ample time to make the show the accomplishment that it was.

Special thanks should be given to all those who contributed to this year's Space Odyssey Varsity Revue, including Mrs. Tracy, the advisor. The hosts this year, Erika Howes and Ryan Johnston, led the show with their slapstick humor. Some of this year's more memorable acts included Irish Step dancing by Meghan and Kathleen Kelly, a tribute to September 11th by Meredith Vallee and Amy Renneisen, and a lyrical dance performed by Pamela Copass. It was the outstanding talents of those that performed that made Varsity Revue 2002 so notable.

Far Left: Ned Swann forgot to eat before the show, but luckily he finished his song before his stomach took over and made him finish off that microphone.

Left: Elise Morrone practices the theory "Just look at a spot at the wall and stare, and maybe they won't see you."

Top Right: Brandon Martin teaches Fandia Shloul how to strike a pose and vogue, vogue, vogue, although I don't think that she caught on yet.

Right: Catherine and Meghan Kelly are pretty good at that Irish step dancing thing. I mean I can't even do it with two legs, let alone one.

Juniors

Four hundred and fifty students, 180 days, one year left. The life of a Junior never stops, from the beginning of the year with Homecoming and The Hunt to SAT's and our first Winter Ball, finally closing the year with Prom Queen candidates, college applications, and dreams of being a Senior. The first year of being an upperclassman may seem to be the easiest of all, but in reality it's not. Pulling all nighters and frantically trying to get in those few precious seconds of extra studying all contribute to the hard work and dedication it takes to accomplish your third year at Coventry High School.

Many students will begin to worry about their future, wondering where they're going in life and what's to become of them. Next year friends we'll leave one another, and everything we have worked for since childhood will finally come to its end. However, there is still time left for one more revelry, and our last chances will finally come to leave our names behind while we move forward.

Before we leave our world of serenity we ask ourselves if everything we've done in the past was really worth it. We've formed new friendships, broken others, and still managed to keep those we cherish the most. We'll be afraid to leave those we're comfortable with for a new place where we are just a name on a paper. But with this comes great opportunities that the class of 2003 will take on with pride.

So move over Seniors, it's our turn now!

Sophomore Class of 2004

As we progress through our high school career, the sophomores of Coventry High look forward to our upcoming opportunities. After completing our Freshmen year, we learned to ditch the backpacks and become more serious about our years here.

We have adjusted well to block scheduling, and are well along the way to completing our last year of "teaming." As the first class to complete two years of "teaming" at Coventry High, we feel a sense of accomplishment and self-satisfaction. Along with regular school activities, many students also participate in extra-curricular activities such as sports teams, clubs, and other educationally enhancing organizations. We continue to make new friendships and benefit from new experiences as we contribute to the school community. We not only look ahead to new horizons, we also have fond memories as we reflect upon our past.

Pondering over the year behind us, we realize that through most of the year, we were without a set administration. There also were the piles of homework, projects, and the infamous "CIM" we had to accomplish. Now, we can look forward to summer and returning as juniors in the fall.

Officers

Class Advisor: Mrs. Kelly

Class President: Matt Dimicco

Executive Board: Alisha Lavoie and Camille Cordiero. Missing are Sarah Catanzaro, Wendy Cross, and Kenneth Silvia.

Social Committee: Wendy Cross, Liz Fillo, Ken Silva, Jimmy Tarro, Jimmy Daley, Megan Silva, Sarah Balcom, Nikki St. Jean, Meagan Law, Amanda Zoglio, Ashley Barrette, Elise Morrone, Amanda Leigh Taylor and Jason Dion.

Freshmen Class of 2005

Entering the high school was a milestone for the incoming freshmen. Reflecting back upon those first few days, many were unsure of what to expect in the upcoming year. Even though this year's late start gave relief, it also created more anxiety, suspense, in some cases pure dread, and even fear. It's impossible to capture the feelings of the entire freshmen class on the first day of school.

After the administration attempted their "striking fear into freshmen," and their "oh...so inspiring" speech about the "wonders" of high school, high school as we know it began. We were thrown into the unknown world with not one, but two floors. As the day unraveled, the joys of jammed lockers, confusing schedules and incomplete maps were clear to everyone. Add the sophomores and upperclassmen and bam a freshman's worst nightmare.

On the brighter side in two weeks the freshman class finally got the swing of things and were even able to laugh at the first week of school. The freshman class could attend their first semi-formal dance at Homecoming with the theme, "Here's to the Night." Then, at the parade we made a name for ourselves with the freshman float, a Scrabble board. Most of us realized that the Coventry High School has many sports, activities and clubs to offer. Through these extra-curricular activities we have met new people, and have better adapted to our new school environment. After surviving freshman year, anything is possible.

Sports at Coventry High School

Sports at Coventry High School go far beyond the mandatory semester gym class. Students participate in extra-curricular physical education classes such as Creative Movement and Fitness classes as well as joining Varsity and Junior Varsity sports. The Girls' Gymnastics team did amazing for the second year in a row placing second statewide this year. Our football team improved greatly this year with seniors such as Vinnie DeResta, Steve St. Amand, Joe DeLuca and Jason Poirier. Other teams had mixed years but enthusiasm never dampened and all involved said that the spirit of the teams shone through.

The Coventry High School Girls' Gymnastics Team was co-winner of the the Class A regular season gymnastics crown with North Kingstown, and West Warwick High School, finished third in Class B, and carried the winning banner for West Bay this season.

Coventry was within .05 of a point in winning the Rhode Island High School Team Gymnastics Championships on Febuary 24 at Rhode Island College. The team performed amazingly, but unfortunately, our hopes for a second straight state championship were postponed for another year by the Skippers. We had a total of 139,600 points to the Skippers' 139,650 points.

Leading Coventry was Megan Joseph, who led in all around with a score of 35.90 and was first in the vault with 9.00. Teammate Tiffany Giusti led all competitors in the balance beam with a score of 9.35. Other standout Oakers gymnasts were Jessica Lanoue, Casey Webb and Katlyn Martin. Coventry's head coach is Lolita Lipa.

Coventry's wrestling team record this year does not reflect the power of many individuals on the team. At the state tournament we had a good chance of doing well with many outstanding Coventry High School wrestlers performing well, including: John Giusti, Steve St. Amand, Kevin Mao, John Salisbury and Keith Perry. These fine athletes have dominated their opponents in many matches.

Keith Decesare and Ryan Andrews have demonstrated their will to win by racking up victories despite fighting injuries. Coventry plans on having a huge tournament at the states with many of the wrestlers coming through when it really matters.

This year there are many new faces on the team, including Anthony Gallo, Bobby Thibault and Geoff Sinnott, all of who improved greatly with every match. The coaches that led this year's team were Head Coach Charles Gaffney and Assistant Coaches Mike Bucacci and Brian Smith.

Top Right: Steve St. Amand demonstrates that to win a wrestling match all you need is a friendly hug.

Lady Oakers Soccer

The Lady Oakers soccer team completed an excellent 2001 campaign finishing with a record of 12-5-4, under first year coach Chris Daignault. The Lady Oakers were led in the scoring department by 2 fabulous freshmen: Siobhan McCaffrey and Tiffany Giusti. Siobhan was the Oakers leading scorer with 14 goals and 8 assists, and Tiffany finished with 10 goals and 5 assists. Sophomore Leah Hayes suffered a little with a leg injury all year, but still contributed with 9 goals and 5 assists. Senior captain Jodi Brown had an outstanding year as the goaltender. She only gave up 20 goals in 19 games and had 6 shut-outs on the season. For the season Jodi faced 221 shots and only allowed 20 goals for a 1.1 save percentage. Seniors Amanda Fish and Jenna Steinle did an outstanding job on defense. Amanda had an excellent playoff series and was voted to the all tournament team along with Jodi. Senior Laura Hayes started a little slow because of a virus, but finished the season strong and really helped the team to some key victories down the stretch. Other departing seniors also contributed throughout the year and will be missed for the upcoming year.

Boys' Soccer

The year of the 2002 Oakers varsity soccer team will be a team to remember. The coach this year was Bob Sturdahl and the assistant coach was Rick Frigon. Even though this was Coach Sturdahl's first year with the team, he did an excellent job and the statistics are proof. The Oakers soccer team went from winning only one game last year to making their record seven wins, seven losses and five ties. This is the best season the Oakers have put together in a while. This year, Senior captains Eric Beaudoin, Pat Morgan, and Jeff Thibodeau were the leaders on the team and will be very hard to replace. The other Seniors were Kayode Akinsinde, John Paul Bruneau and Kyle McGrath who also contributed greatly to this year's success. This year was not only a turning point for the Coventry High School soccer team but it was a year of "signing papers" before every game and the new tradition of the one and only Team Eurosport t-shirt. Next year's soccer team will be looking for Alfred Ancone, Mike Fish, Bernie Horta, Mike Hoxsie, Ryan Kettle, Andy Roch and Jeff Taylor to help the team to another winning season.

The soccer team this year also had a couple of players who received awards from the Rhode Island Interscholastic League. Alfred Ancone was selected to Second Team All Division. Eric Beaudoin was selected to Second Team All Division. Jeff Taylor was selected to Third Team All Division. Jeff Thibodeau was selected to All-State All Academic Team, First Team All Division and MVP of the 2001 Metlife Soccerfest All-Star match. There are three words that can sum up this year's season, "Well done, sons."

Girls' Tennis

The Girls Tennis Team faced many changes this year. With the loss of 3 excellent players who graduated last year, this was a time for younger players to step up to the challenge. Coach Sutyla, along with team captains Laura Papa, Katie Muschiano, Jen Mainelli, and Chelsea Dion led the team through a great season this year. Although they had their share of losses, the wins were treasured and truly appreciated. In all, the season proved to be a lot of fun. The singles' positions were filled by Laura Papa at 1st position, Katie Muschiano at 2nd, Chelsea Dion at 3rd and Jennifer Mainelli at 4th. Some of the team's doubles paired during the season included Nicole Ayala and Jackie Mulligan, Shana Schloth and Jessica Lawton, and Elise Marrone and Kate Ferdinandi while a number of other girls made great contributions too.

Boys' Volleyball

The boys volleyball team, despite their overall record, was a team that was dedicated and worked hard on a daily basis. Outstanding plays this year came from the two captains Jake Pelletier and Jason Varney, and with a new coach Leo Bush, helped set the path of the future of the team. Strong play was also received by seniors Corey Adams who could always keep everyone laughing. The team has alot to look forward to with a bright future under next years seniors Sean LaPoint, Sean Cronan, and Ed Camiera. Tom Ambrose who will be one of the leaders on the floor next year. strongest serve on the team. Mr. Bush will look to his sophmores and freshman, who played very well at the junior varsity level, to be the future of the team. Promising sophomores include Nick Browning, Tom Ambrose, Victor Carlu, and Nate Green. While the future looks at Travis Leffert, Josh Malloy, and Brad Southers as freshman.

Football ... "Best in 10 years"

The 2001 Coventry High School Football Team exceeded everyone's expectations. Early victories versus South Kingstown in the Round Robin and Tolman High School in The Challenge Cup were the impetus for a successful beginning. After a defeat to a powerful Barrington team, the Oakers reeled off victories against Warwick Vets, Tollgate, Cumberland and Cranston East. The Oakers then lost a heartbreaker on Homecoming Day, to state defending champs, the Westerly Bulldogs in double-overtime. Victories followed, over Pilgrim on Senior Appreciation Night and versus Middletown. Thanksgiving Day was not what the Oaker had wished for, defeat at the hands of West Warwick. The Coventry High School Football Team did manage to qualify for the playoffs, but suffered another defeat versus Westerly (who would go on to an undefeated state championship season. Coach Zannella says the 2002 team has some big shoes to fill with the graduation of Brendan Mulhare, Jay Poirier, Joe DeLuca, Mark Mollicone and the leadership of senior captains Stephen St.Amand, Matt Karwoski, Vincent DeResta, and Dante Federici.

Boys Basketball

The Boys' Basketball Team had a fun year competing against a number of tough teams with varying results. There were disappointing losses and some spectacular plays. Playing first on the court this up-and-down year, were seniors that included Joe DeLuca, Jake Pelletier, Jesse Cronan, Peter Andrzejczuk, and Jay Brunero. Next year will be a rebuilding year with juniors Mike Marsocci, Craig Cohen, Derold Desilus, Steven Hawkins, and Eric Pontarelli. Sophomores on the team were Ryan Halpin and Jonathan Bartlett.

Girls Basketball

The Lady Oakers Basketball Team played with great effort and determination all season and have set a solid foundation for the future. This was a very skilled and talented team that will be shooting for the playoffs next season. Best of luck to our three seniors: Captain Jodi Brown, Erica St. Jean, and Jaimee Cathers. All have shown great leadership and have been positive role models for all of the younger players. Jodi was also one of the nominees in the state for the McDonald's All-American Girls High School Basketball Team.

Boys Cross Country

The Boys Cross-Country team had a phenomenal season this year. From the combined leadership of their coach Mr. McKana and the senior co-captains Mike Vingi and John Reegan, Coventry Boys qualified for the Rhode Island State Championships for the first time in over a decade.

Although the boys are losing two great seniors, the future looks promising for them with upcoming runners like Matt Lyons and Zach Dyer, as well as the growing talents of John McDonough, Steve Nix, and Matt Brown.

The team made a statement this year, proving that they belong up there with some of the top teams in the state. Next year they hope to do it again and make sure that other teams won't think lightly of the Coventry Boys Cross-country Program.

Girls Indoor Track

This year's Girls' Indoor Track and Field team had its best season thus far in its six years of existence. Under the leadership of captains Emily Herron and Megan Cady, the team ended the regular season with eight wins and only one loss while defeating such perennial powers as Classical and East Greenwich. The team qualified several members for the State Championships held at season's end. Loryssa Simas, Kristen Hickey, Siobhan McCaffrey, Marissa Hickey, Emily Herron, Kasey Cote, Amy Krajewski, Elizabeth Patnode, Michelle Hetu, Mollie Arsenault, Lisa Rabbitt, and Becky Chiarini qualified for the States held at URI. The 800 meter relay team of Loryssa Simas, Marissa Hickey, Siobhan McCaffrey, and Kristen Hickey finished third in the state and qualified for the New England Championships.

School records were set this winter by Whitney Capwell in the shot put, Elizabeth Patnode in the 600 meter run, and in the sprint relay by Loryssa Simas, Marissa Hickey, Siobhan McCaffrey, and Kristen Hickey.

Graduating seniors, Laura Daley, Jen Taylor, Emily Herron, and Megan Cady will be leaving a team that has only two juniors, but, with thirty-five sophomores and freshmen, next year's squad should be strong.

Boys Indoor Track

The Boys' Indoor Track team has had a wonderful season. Under the supervision of coach Clem Soscia and team captains Mike Vingi, John Regan and Kayode Akinsinde and seniors Pat Morgan, Adam Bettez, Loren Peterkin, Brenden Mulhare. The season started off at a snail's pace but picked up speed as the days went by. The team was very notorious for accidentally running into people in the hallways during their after school practice. Team achievements include division champions in the 45m and 300m with Kayode Akinsinde qualifying for states in both events. Next year's team should do really well since a number of JV members qualified for their states. Coach Soscia believes that his boys had a great season and hopes to do even better this outdoor season.

Hockey

The Coventry Boys' Hockey Team had a season of mixed success this year but look at this year as a rebuilding and developmental year since only three members of the team were seniors. The seniors were Captain Jim O'Connor, and Gary Hill and Eric Lesniak and three juniors were Patrick Fratus, Geoffrey Bouchard, and Joseph DeMatteo. The majority of the team members consisted of sophomores. Top scorers this year were sophomores Sean O'Connor, Andrew LaFleur, Brad Inman, junior Patrick Fratus, and freshman Cory Manly. Coach Egan looks forward to continuing progress in their skills and in their game.

Dance

The Coventry High Dance Team was formed 4 years ago to provide an opportunity for students interested in dance and to build school spirit. The 2002 Team has participated in many events such as the Thanksgiving Day game, Basketball games, the Varsity Review, dance competitions and even in their own dance show. This performance is a culminating event that showcases the talent and provides entertainment for the students, faculty, and parents. The entire team and their coaches, Ms McKenna and Ms Odgen work hard and it shows.

Cheerleading

This year, as every year, the cheerleading squad worked their hardest to form lasting friendship, team strength, and wonderful memories. Team captains Audra Lavoie and Heather Skene helped create difficult routines filled with many moves designed to show off the excellent skills formed throughout their demanding practices. The squad got to show off their progression at the many competitions they competed in throughout the state. These talented girls definitely helped spread the spirit!

Girls' Cross Country

The Girls' Cross Country team started running together this summer with "Captain's Practices" at the Greenway. Practice with our coach, Mr. Soscia, began in August. By then, most of us were in great shape and ready to run easily during practices. We were anticipating a great season and weren't disappointed. When the season began, there were over 50 members of the team. As classes and homework began, the team "dwindled" to 35, still a large team! During the season we were invited to the Thetford Invitational in Vermont, and ran against teams from all over New England. Seniors this year were Megan Cady, Emily Herron and Cassie Souto. In our regular season, we placed first in the Kent County Championship and the East Bay Challenge. We took 3rd place in the Class A and qualified for the state meet where we placed 7th in the state. Our JV team placed first in the JV States! Our freshmen placed second in the Freshmen states! Kasey Cote, Becky Chiarini, Emily Herron, and Amy Krajewski made All Class. Emily Herron and Kasey Cote made All-Division. Megan Cady received the Coach's award at the All-Class/All Division banquet. In all, it was a great season! Because we have so many excellent underclassmen, next year should prove another great year!

Intro to Student Life

As those of us at CHS reflect upon the year, we agree that it was a successful one. Between academics, extracurricular activities and sports, it was a busy year. At times school seemed difficult and demanding and other times were easy and fun. The hard times were the most stressful, but in looking back we managed, and realized that the struggle made us stronger and assured us that we are capable of accomplishing anything we set our minds to.

The Class of 2002 set the pace for academic success and underclassmen managed to keep up. We had a very successful Science Fair and History Day. The Drama Club competed in the statewide competition with an unusual staging of Frankenstein. The Student Council sponsored many fun-filled events including a really spirited Spirit Week which the whole school embraced. In all, the 2001-2002 school year was one to remember for many years to come.

Student Council

The Student Council is the heart of fun school activities. The executive board begins planning during the summer, and just before school starts, hosts a party for people interested in joining the club. As soon as school starts, the group sets to work on planning Homecoming, including a dance, a parade, and of course the King and Queen. This year we had a very successful homecoming, with a great parade and our dance theme of "Here's to the Night."

As soon as Homecoming is over, Student Council begins working on Varsity Revue, a school-wide talent show. Behind the scenes, sound, lighting, publicity, making the program, selling the ads, and making the set all add to the work. This year's show nearly sold out both nights.

Our next job is Spirit Week. It seems as if our tasks get bigger and bigger. First, we must determine all of the dress-up days, and after school activities; then we have to plan them out and make sure everything falls into place. Also, don't forget, Almost Anything Goes! That night alone has a lot of events, and we have to shop till we drop to get all the supplies and make sure it goes smoothly. Then on Friday, we wrap up the week with a dance.

But the Student Council isn't all about work...it's about fun! Throughout the year, we sprinkle through parties, ice-skating, shopping, and our monthly cake at the meeting. Members can also have fun with senior citizens through the intergenerational committee, which is part of Student Council. Secret pal is another great thing about Student Council. Students choose teachers and write to them, but the teachers don't know who's writing to them. It's a great way for students to get to know teachers...and get presents.

Student Council is a lot of fun work. Members might spend a lot of time, paper macheing chicken wire to make a float for Homecoming, but make friends at the same time. (Not to mention the free pizza and soda!) Student Council is a great activity, and anyone can join. It's a great way to get involved, make our school more than just academics, have fun, and make friends.

DECA

The holiday season brought the spirit of charity into the lives of Coventry High School's marketing students. Celebrating its 14th year, the community service project focused on assisting the needy families of Coventry and other local charities in having presents under the tree.

Led by Mr. Alves, marketing students work busily each day on an array of duties vital to the success of the program. Cards were filled with children's wishes, folded, tied with a ribbon and delivered to local participating businesses by students.

The project was then in the hands of Coventry citizens with the hope that they would pause to pick up a card and grant a child's wish. Wrapped presents were returned to the business that the card came from and students routinely picked them up. Traditionally, strong support for the project demands the use of both the auditorium's top wings for storage as the presents were sent from many local businesses.

Support for the Christmas project was found in other parts of the high school thanks to the popularity of the "Adopt a Family" program. Organized by DECA as well, students sell "goodie grams" to create cash incentives for extracurricular clubs willing to participate. This year seventeen families were adopted and received gifts to make the holiday season brighter.

Students in the "Reach Out" program shown at right, also enjoy the holiday spirit of CHS's marketing students. A Christmas party is thrown each year for the students after school where they are treated with a visit from Santa Claus and his elves. Numerous awards have been given in praise and thanks for the Christmas Project's civic consciousness. Mr. Alves believes, however, that the best reward for the students is the ability to make their neighbors' Christmas a happy one.

R.O.T.C.

The Rhode Island 81st Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps has been known throughout the school and the community for their motivation, leadership, service, and excellence. The JROTC program is very different in the fact that it keeps its focus on various things, not just one specific item. In doing this, The Coventry JROTC can show off many of their strengths, some of which are Drill, Color Guard, Honor Guard, D.A.R.E., Community Service, and an excellent Honor Society.

The cadets that perform on the Drill Team put in long, hard hours to perfect their floor routines. That is one thing that shows when they compete. The RI 81st has won numerous trophies for their skill on the floor. The Drill Team is one of the top in the Nation, placing at local drill meets as well as nationally at Daytona Beach, Florida. The Team competed in Washington D.C. as well this year. The JROTC Color Guard is also recognized throughout the community. They not only compete with the Drill Team, but they perform at many ceremonies, bringing honor to the unit and showing respect for the services. The Honor Guard is also recognized by many of the military personnel in the area. The Honor Guard works hard to perform at many events, honoring the American MIA's and POW's, and making everyone around them "Proud to Be an American."

Community service plays a large role in Junior ROTC. The cadets provide help at the school events, such as the Open House and Parent Teacher Conferences. They also participate in projects that they have researched themselves, some being cleaning up the Veteran's Memorials and doing yard work for the elderly. Cadets even go to nursing homes and elementary schools. Tutoring is also a part of community service for the cadets involved in the Kitty Hawk Air Honor Society. This section of the unit is for the cadets that have kept exceptional grades throughout high school. These cadets also work with the D.A.R.E. Officer to visit elementary schools in order to encourage children to stay away from drugs and alcohol as well as provide them with positive role models.

Overall, the RI 81st is a dedicated group of cadets. During school hours and after, cadets are showing their dedication and pride for the unit. The cadets learn leadership, respect, honor, and dignity among other things, but every cadet walks out of high school with their own sense of pride for this program. And to think, all of this started on that day in Coventry Middle School, when the "cool high school kids" came in uniform to tell us about a program called JROTC. The cadets have come a long way since that day, and the unit will keep striving for the top.

~ The Past Three Years ~

As we (the seniors) reflect back upon our high school career there always seems to be one teacher that stands out in our minds. For the seniors in yearbook, that teacher is Mrs. Gendron. She took over the yearbook in the 10th grade in addition to her duties as librarian, backpack confiscator, and backdoor guard. To her students she became much more than just a yearbook advisor and to every student who has ever met her, she is more than just the librarian.

To the yearbook students she's become our junk food provider, match-maker, homework helper and friend. She has taught our classes "October Sky" and "Dead Man Walking." Of course, she was the one who had the pleasure of enlightening us about the Gale Group.

What can be said about Mrs. Gendron's organizational skills? It could quite possibly be called organized clutter or maybe it could be just really important clutter.

Through frozen computers, computers that need thumbtacks to stay on, late deadlines and lost pictures, Mrs. Gendron has been there for us, listened to our incessant complaining and always found a way for us to have fun.

~ Thank You!!! ~

Yearbook

Preparation for this year's yearbook began last March, with the most heated topic: themes. After ditching about 20, 30, or maybe even 100 pathetically corny themes we finally agreed on "Reflections." The way we see it, "How corny can one word be?"

This year's staff was composed of an almost entirely new staff. Co-editors Jenna Tonet and Mandy Ponder headed up the staff and thoroughly enjoyed being in charge. Fellow seniors and rookie yearbook members Ryan Johnston and Megan Phelps were always enthusiastic about helping. Not to mention the "oldies but goodies" members Amanda Lachance and Amanda Nadeau. Mrs. Gendron once again advised our group and supplied lollipops, pretzels, pizza, soda, hot chocolate and all other junk food. Outside of meeting the most important deadlines, we did pretty well staying on schedule... rriiggghht.

Model U.N.

The United Nations is an International organization that discusses the current issues at hand in the world and tackle these issues one by one. The Coventry High Schools Model U.N. advisor is Ms. Tierny. The officers of Model U.N. include Ryan Johnston (President), Jacqueline Mulligan (Vice President), Tarah Sutton (Secretary of Communications) and Jesse Michael (Treasurer). The main topic at this year's convention is going to be "The war on terrorism," which the Model U.N. members will be addressing at a conference with other Model U.N. members from around New England at a convention at South Kingstown High School. Next year the club is looking forward to attending an International convention in New York City or Washington D.C.

Interact

This year the Interact Club began with their annual Tomorrow Fund Tag Day. This was a rebuilding year with Mrs. Johansen as the new advisor. Megan Phelps is the president and Vice-President CJ Schayer along with Secretary Amanda Nadeau and Treasurer Jenette Delmonaco led Interact through a rewarding year. Their service through the community has had a positive impact throughout Coventry.

The Entry

During the 2001-2002 school year, The Entry has been very successful. Each issue has featured articles from many students in the school without the writing being limited to editors. The Entry comes out approximately once every two months and each issue has been met with praise from students and faculty. The Entry's advisor is Ms. Lima and Michelle Wilcox is the editor-in-chief.

SADD

SADD- Students Against Destructive Decisions works through our school and community year-round to make students aware of the possible consequences of their actions after drinking. This December SADD participated in Mocktail party where they made an alcohol-free drink. Their second SADD day was held on January 18th. On April 2nd they hosted FAKE ID, a video presentation assembly for the CHS student body. Then, in early spring they held a mock car crash in the football field. They hope that through their hard work and dedication, the students at Coventry will benefit from their messages and become more aware of their actions.

Right: Jen Tidswell, Nicole Ayala and Ashley Moone are looking very cheerful for SADD. Bada-bing!

National Honor Society

The Coventry chapter of the National Honor Society has had a productive year. The National Honor Society is a group of students who maintain a grade point average of at least 3.65, volunteer, perform community service regularly, and show outstanding character and leadership roles. This year the NHS held a fundraising car wash in September as well as a bake sale during parent-teacher conferences in November. They also made donations to food baskets that were distributed during the holiday season. The National Honor Society also organized the faculty dress-down days for the month of March. On March 4th the Advisory Board and officers of the NHS attended a meeting welcoming the juniors recently selected as new members, and helped them prepare for induction into the society.

Band

As expected, the Coventry High School band has had an exhilarating year. Like the years before, the school year opened with football season and Homecoming and then a little later Thanksgiving.

The holiday concert was a success with both the concert and Jazz bands performing. After February vacation was the time to begin preparing for St. Patrick's Day. When April rolled around so did the RIME Band Festival. As expected the band reached high standards. This year the band trip was Toronto, Canada where the band enjoyed a few days catching the sights, going to Adventure Land and a baseball game at the SkyDome. After returning from Canada the Spring Concert was on its way. To end the year was the Memorial Day Parade and then the banquet.

Jazz Ensemble

The CHS Jazz ensemble has been through some rough times. It came close to its death last year when block scheduling prevented most of its members from signing up for the class. This year, though, the class was offered after school, and the young musicians now spend their Tuesdays and Thursdays practicing hard and developing their skills. The group often makes outside performances and still evokes a huge ovation at the winter and spring concerts. This year they accompanied the band on the Toronto trip, as well as hosting the first ever Jazz Night in March.

Far Left: Peter Fratanuano is shown here playing his saxophone. Watch out Kenny G you have competition at CHS and Bill Clinton.... Well, good luck. Left: Five of our talented trumpeters play Reveille for the rest of us. It is 10:30 and lunchtime. We've already had two classes and the red mark from sleeping on our Chemistry binder is starting to hurt. It's probably about time someone woke us up.

Chorus

The CHS Chorus had a great year. The year kicked off with the Holiday Concert with selections like "Once Upon December," from Anastasia and "Christmas is a Feeling." Both the concert chorus, the select chorus and individual soloists performed at this musical concert. After this event chorus students started working on the Annual Spring Concert which was also a huge success. After this, the chorus was off to festival for chorus competitions. The year closed with the annual chorus banquet.

WCVY

Coventry High School has a radio station? That's right, Coventry High School has its own student run radio station, 91.5 WCVY, operating daily after school from 2-10 p.m. On CVY, students fill news, sports, and DJ positions while working together to bring quality information and entertainment to its listeners.

The 2001-2002 school year has brought about many changes to WCVY. Mr. Murray, the new Teacher advisor of CVY, has brought CVY to a new level of professionalism. Both Mr. Murray and CVY members have put forth a tremendous amount of work and effort to better CVY, by hiring new staff members, reconstructing the DJ booth, and redesigning the programming.

This school year a great deal of work had to be done to keep the station running and CVY pulled through. CVY has been a part of Coventry High School for many years and will continue to be for many years to come.

Drama

This year the award-winning Coventry High School Drama Club is at it again. The club is under the direction of Mr. Wilkinson for the second year, and at the helm are President Jessica Sperlongano and Vice President Meredith Vallee. This year the drama club decided to follow up last year's success Bang Bang You're Dead with an adaptation of Mary Shelly's Frankenstein. Like the previous year, the drama club is once again bringing the play to compete against other high school drama clubs in the state at the Rhode Island Drama Festival, hoping to once again win a spot to perform at the New England Drama Festival. The play itself brings an entirely new concept to the stage at Coventry High School for its use of organic theater. The play includes twelve non-speaking roles dubbed 'shapes' to create the set and essence of the play through interpretive movement. With the success of Frankenstein which went to the states, the drama club has once again had another great year.

History Day

History Day was held on March 7th and 8th this year. This has now entered the big leagues and many history teachers made it a required part of their program. Two projects in each of the categories were selected to represent our school in the statewide competition. In the group exhibit Nicole Ayala and Elizabeth Fobel with Child Labor in R.I., Meredith Vallee and Beth White for America's Reaction to the Vietnam War went to the states. In the Individual exhibit Rachel Nadeau was chosen for Prohibition and Christine Callaghan for America Reacts to Terrorism. In the performance category Jessica Sperlongano was chosen for Bread and Roses. In the Documentary area, Michelle Hetu, Devon Decker, Justin Rice and Yemi Akinsinde for Impact of the U.S. entrance to W.W. II.

Construction

When we returned late to school this past September, there were many changes in sight. Much of the West Bay Career Center which was being added on to our building was started and some of it was nearing completion, but all of the construction was not finished until December. Not only were large classrooms being added, but we also now have a preschool on our campus, a credit union, printing room, automotive, carpentry, electronics, and machine shop, a large, lovely dining room, The Knotty Oak Room, and kitchen facility and an Infocus Career Planning Center. The photos on these pages show you some of the changes that occurred this school year, much of it happening while we were in school.

Scotty, you're unique, and most of all you are our pride, our joy, our son, and a special brother.

Scott, now you know how Mom & Dad spell success? Scotty Crowe, tattoo and all.

Congratulations, from Mom & Dad, Jay and Shannon.

Jenn,

As a child you were independent,
always knowing what you wanted.

As a young adult you are also independent, and know what you want.

You have accomplished so much and have made us proud of you.

A dream is a wish your heart makes when you're fast asleep.

Follow your DREAMS. They do come true.

Love, Dad & Mom

To our daughter, Jena-Lynn

One special love

Our sweet little girl
Do we live through your eyes
Our blood runs through your veins
But your mind is your own.

Our sweet little girl
You are making your way
You walk fast in your steps
And you look so direct.

Our sweet little girl
You're a creature of life
With a sweet echoed voice
Of a life you will live.

Our sweet little girl
You're a girl just at heart
But a woman in mind
With your whole life ahead.

No matter how tall
No matter how smart
No matter how far
Just no matter what.

One thing is for sure
And this we can say
You will always be
Our sweet little girl.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

Kimberly

I am so proud of you and love you so much.

You've grown into a warm, compassionate, confident, young lady, who will always succeed.

Pursue your dreams and follow your heart.

Love always and forever,
Mom

Congratulations, Kim!
Good luck in college. You've worked so hard to be where you are and I'm proud to be your brother.

Love,
Mike

Congratulations, Erika

We are so proud of all that you have accomplished. It seems like only yesterday that God blessed us with you, that we would tell you to "reach for the stars," and those tiny hands would fly up over your head! Now, we tell you again to "reach for the stars," only with a whole new meaning. The world is now yours to explore. With your wit, charm, compassion, and intelligence, you can have it all.

GO FOR IT!

All our love always,
Mom & Dad

Vinnie,

Congratulations on all your success and accomplishments. Continue to work hard and strive for the best in life.

Congratulations Eric!!
We are so proud of you!!

We've enjoyed the years of your growing up so very much. They definitely go by too fast. We've also been so very proud of your hard-working attitude through all your years of school. To make honors or highest honors every time is not easy, yet you work hard to achieve your goals.

You've had a very difficult past year aside from school and we know it hasn't been easy for you to endure. We pray for your health and for you to overcome all obstacles in your path to a wonderful life.

Always remember that ALL of your family loves you and will always be there for you.

THE BEST IS YET TO COME!!!

May all your Dreams Come True
 We Love You

Nina,

We are so proud of you for all you have accomplished and for the wonderful, loving young woman you have become. We are blessed, for you have been such a great daughter and student, and made it so easy for us.

We wish you the best of luck in the future and hope that all your dreams come true. Ours have.

We love you,
Mom & Dad

Congratulations Eric!

We are very proud of you, son,
Eric, you have excelled in everything you have done.

From when you were a little boy,
you have filled our lives with laughter and joy.

Your high school years have been a lot of fun,
but now a new phase in your life has just begun.

Your college years are ahead of you,
and there are a few things you should remember to do.

No matter how difficult it might seem,
never let go of your goals and your dreams.

Don't do anything crazy when you are out of sight,
and remember not to wash colors with the whites.

Love Mom, Dad, and Brian

Congratulations, Steve!

You've worked so hard and we're all so proud of you.

Your future looks bright!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Lauren and Sara

What a wonderful soldier you will be,
Maybe a general, one day, going down in history!
You were born for this awesome responsibility,
Such a loving, kind, compassionate leader
Your spirit and guidance - to keep us free!
So proud to be your parents, your brother and sister
And Lady Shasta (Shasta Girl) of Coventry!
A long four years; hard work, determination, a goal in sight!
You did it! In spite of us, you and me! Love you with all of our hearts, souls and minds!
Congratulations + "Semper Fi."

Congratulations Amanda!

Wishing you all the happiness you give to others.

We are sooooo very proud of you!

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Ashley

Pumpkin,

From the day you took your first step to board the bus to go to school, we have always been so proud of you. We can't wait to see what comes next.

Much love,
Mom & Dad

Pickle Bean,

Though you worried yourself almost to death, you have to admit that you have met and surpassed all of your goals. You have attracted the most wonderful, helpful teachers who have certainly helped you along the way. We are so proud of you, not just for all you have achieved, but for the character and leadership you show each and every day.

This fall, at college in New Hampshire, soar like the Eagle you are, but don't forget to call home. And don't be surprised by our tears at drop off time!

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Erika

On the day you were born, you danced into our lives, and years later, you are still dancing and bringing love and joy into our hearts. We hope all your hopes and dreams come true.

How could you be graduating?...
Just yesterday you were in nursery school.
We are so proud of the young woman you have become!

Love Mom and Tommy

We miss the little boy
from yesterday yet proud of the young man he is today and the man he will become tomorrow...
Congratulations!
All of our Love

CONGRATULATIONS REBECCA

We have watched you grow
in gymnastics and academically.
Good luck in the future;
believe in yourself!
Love Mum, Dad and Deborah

Congratulations Megan!
Once more we are together to celebrate
Yet another of your "tah-Dahs."
You were always proud of your accomplishments,
But not as proud as we were.
You have come a long way since then.
Continue to reach for the stars and
Good luck in all that you do.
Love, Mom, Dad and Brian

Just yesterday you were so small
Always laughing, smiling, giggling
Interested in learning many new things
Making us so very, very happy
Every day of our lives we've been so proud
Exceptional in every way - our girl -
You!!
We Love You Very Much
Mom, Dad, Drew

Erica, You're so special to us and we're proud of all your accomplishments. We've watched you grow and mature into a beautiful young woman. Stay focused, follow your dream, and success will be yours. Thanks for the wonderful memories.
Love, Mom, Dad and Nicole

Good luck in all you do, Bill.
We are very proud of you.
Love, Mom and Dad

Laura,
Somewhere over the rainbow, if you follow your yellow brick road,
The dreams that you dare to dream
Really do come true!
Just remember, "There's no place like home."
Congratulations!
We're very proud of you!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Jimmy,
Grandma Bishop,
Grandma & Grandpa Daley

Amanda Jane

Life is full of changes and surprises,
Embrace each day, love often,
laugh much and remember -
We love you!
Congratulations
Dad, Mom, Graham, Aaron,
Melissa, Abby & Joseph

Leah,

You did it! You finished!
Boring school is now history! Nice job!
We are so proud of you.
Now step out into the world and show everyone what you've got!
We love you,
Mom, Dad & Brandi

It's good to have an end to journey towards, but it is the journey that matters in the end. (Ursula LeGuin)

We're so proud of you.

Good luck to our little boy as you start the next stage in your life's journey.

Love,

Mom and Dad, Liz and Geoff

When the night has been too lonely,
Or the road has been too long,
And you think, that love is only,
For the lucky and the strong.
Just remember in the winter,
Far beneath the bitter snow,
Lies a seed, that with the sun's love,
In the Spring, becomes the rose.
We couldn't be more proud of our

September 11, 2001

If any student were to go home and ask his parents where they were and what they were doing when John F. Kennedy was assassinated, the majority would receive a quick response. Unfortunately, our generation has now lived through a similar crisis, where similar questions could be asked of us, and our responses would be just as quick. No one will forget what they were doing when they heard about the terrorists' attacks on September 11th. This tragedy has been called the next Pearl Harbor, for it too will be a day that will live in infamy.

While this horrific act took place in New York City and Washington D.C., many students here were directly affected. How many of us lost a loved one, or know someone who has? Many students spent the day in the library watching a small TV, which showed mostly "snow", waiting to hear words of hope. Yet, somehow, through fear, anger, and grief, our country has pulled together. More directly, our school has pulled together. Only a few days after the attacks students began donating supplies and money to the victims; the generosity of the students was overwhelming.

After this tragedy there was also a spike in patriotism. Many people adorned their cars with American flags. A good number of seniors enlisted in the military, more than eager to help protect their country. Seeing the generosity, unity, and patriotism that the people in our country possess gives hope. It gives the hope that we will emerge from this tragedy stronger than before.

It's in our Hearts

I sit here and think about the tragedies of September 11,
I pray for their souls, and hope they all go to Heaven.
They went to work in a tower so high,
not knowing that today they were going to die.
It makes me feel so sad.

When I think about the kids that lost a Mom or Dad,
And I pray for those kids that just want their parents home free.
How do I erase this pain? There is no way that I can see.
They hate our freedom, something we never knew what meant
Until the depths of hell those planes were sent.
Although the end seems out of sight,
We must stand together to do what's right.
We must rebuild, not a tower of cement and steel,
But our hearts, that's what makes our freedom real.
They can take what we have, and turn our buildings to dust.
But our freedom still lives on,
because America lives in all of us.

-Brian New

"It is a shame to see what has happened, but all we can do is pray and stay united together forever." - Kristina DelSesto

"It's pretty bad." - Chris Wree

"There are a lot of things you can say. It just wasn't worth it; I couldn't imagine going through it." - Lisa Selter

"It's just sad." - Krystal Ferrucci

"And the stars just sit there and glimmer like they don't notice we're dying inside, and the rain still pours and mocks us in our deaths, and the world goes on turning when all the hearts are broken..." - Jenna Steinle
