“Time of Your Life”

Another turning point, a fork stuck in the road.
Time grabs you by the wrist, directs you where to go.
So make the best of this test, and don't ask why.
It's not a question, but a lesson learned in time

It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right.
I hope you had the time of your life.

So take the photographs, and still frames in your mind.
Hang it on a shelf of good health and good time.
Tattoos of memories and dead skin on trial.
For what it's worth, it was worth all the while.

It's something unpredictable, but in the end it's right.
I hope you had the time of your life.

CHS HOMECOMING 2004

September 19th, 2004 commemorates the annual CHS Homecoming game and parade. After several months of dedicated work from both the football players and the float committees, the entire experience proved to be a success.

Up first in the parade that began in front of the Coventry Credit Union was the marching band, followed by the Senior float decorated in the time-honored Christmas story How the Grinch Stole Christmas. Next up were the cheerleaders and then the Junior Class float of the classic Christmas story The Polar Express. The Washington Annex's float of The Wizard of Oz was followed soon after by the Student Council's float of Charlotte's Web. The Sophomore class float supported cavities and candy by showing Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory, and the Drama Club's float brought us back to the early childhood nursery rhymes of Mother Goose. The Foreign Language Club brought us around the world in their It's A Small World float.

Shortly after the parade was the Homecoming Game, where everyone came to cheer on the home team. With a final score of 14-7, the Coventry Oakers won their Homecoming Game for the second year in a row. Help in defeating the Westerly Bulldogs were Corey Thayer and Cory Bannon, who each scored touchdowns.

At half-time, the school's Homecoming King and Queen were announced. The winning couple was Geoffrey Sinnott and Queen, Jennifer Gareau.

JUNIOR PROM

"The Night is Ours"

There's something about the way you look tonight
The way the light paints your face a misty white
And how my hands caress your gentle hips
The way I kiss your warm velvet lips

And I don't have to say I'm sorry
And I don't need to say goodbye

Chorus:
The night is ours to hold. So could we run away to paradise
Can we remain this way forever
Collecting memories along the way
These lights are only here to guide us
As the night turns into day

There's something in your voice tonight
The reassurance that you'll guide me through my plight
You've always told me that that I should take the risk Cause all these moments have been leading up to this

And we don't have to say we're sorry
And we don't need to say goodbye
It's been a long hard road without you by my side I've been living in a darkened room without the shimmer of your candlelight

The night is ours to hold, forever
So let's just stay like this tonight

Reflection on the Class of 2005

Most importantly, the four high school years are years full of memories, scholarship, and the becoming of an adult from an adolescent. Upon entering the mighty gates of Coventry High School in the year 2001, most newcomers were bombarded with feelings such as anxiety, excitement, and nervousness. For others, the first day marked the beginning of the countdown to the end of the four high school years. As the end grows nearer, it has become more and more difficult for some to wave goodbye, and for others to make it to school each day without detouring to perhaps a more appealing place (for instance, a breakfast joint). Whatever the case, it is official that we are seniors. With this newfound superiority comes senior privileges (well not really), and the prudence in "creating your own privileges," or finding exceptions to the rules. We are also expected to serve as role models to the underclassmen—such power in molding the minds of those that are inferior to us. Ultimately, high school has been our chance to prove to a larger, grander, and often critical audience that we are the minds of the future that will out do even the greatest minds of the past.

In reflecting on the past years, several important events highlight the minds of many seniors. As freshman, we entered a float in the homecoming parade and cheered on the football team during our first high school event. Furthermore, many of us, not to sound cliché, danced the night away at our first semi-formal dance. In the following year, events such as the sophomore semi-formal dance are imprinted in many minds. Also during sophomore year, we received our class rings, marking the road past and the road ahead of us during our high school career. Declared 'upperclassmen,' junior year brought a new air among the students of our class. We were now fed more responsibilities. This was our first year participating in the Hunt, which proved to be both entertaining and memorable for most of those involved. Also, Junior Prom, "The Night is Ours," is etched in the high school memories of those who attended. In addition, Class Day was our chance to display our true perceptions of those seniors that were a year ahead of us. Lastly, one of the most important events of our high school career was the turning the rings, at which juncture we were officially deemed "seniors".

Senior year, full of festive events, has proved to be bittersweet. This year, for many, is probably the most important year in terms of 'memory-making.' However, this is also the year that many of us are choosing to part and pursue different paths into the future. This year marks the making of several important decisions, many of these involving close friends, family, and one's future. Some of the festivities that highlight senior year include our last homecoming, our winter ball, prom, the Hunt, Varsity Review, Spirit Week, Senior Supper, and Graduation. This is our last year as a unified class, and as we toss our caps on graduation; memorabilia, closure, excitement, and sadness will permeate the air.

Seniors, remember:

"My will shall shape the future. Whether I fail or succeed shall be no man's doing but my own. I am the force; I can clear any obstacle before me or I can be lost in the maze. My choice; my responsibility; win or lose, only I hold the key to my destiny." ~Elaine Maxwell

Ten Years From From Now...

Tracy Ann Abrue: Own my own day care and live in Pawtucket

Jonah Alley: Somewhere warm with lots of girls in bikinis

Kaela Marissa Adams: Living in a penthouse in LA, dating an actor I met while filming my Oscar winning movie.

Domonique R. Andrews: I will be teaching.

Candice Barcia: Raising my family.

Matthew Beaudoin: I will have a good job, a family, and a house.

Elizabeth Virginia Bell: Happily married with children, still in high school, this time teaching though.

Trina Marie Bell: Happily married with a family, and my restaurant will be well on its way.

Amanda Beth Bernston: Hitch-hiking across Europe...!

Stephanie Berthiaume: Somewhere...

Lindsay M. Bertrand: Living the easy life in Cali...

Ashley Bettencourt: I'll be contently living with my husband in a fixer-upper set back on a hill somewhere with a daughter already and a belly showing a two month pregnancy.

Ashley Lynn Beverly: Living in Denver, Colorado with a family.

Melissa Sue Brayton: In a house, married, and serving best friends wedding.

Jacob Jereme Blais: Married? Dancing on the street for quarters.

Kristal Lee Boss: Married with kids and a career.

Justine Boucher: Winning over the corporate world in my power suit while saving for my pink dream Cadillac and anxiously writing for the reunion.

Josh Brackett: "The coal mines of Virginia, diggin' up stones.

Samantha Lynn Brassard: Still chillin' with the S.S. and having endless "late nights" at Mary's.

Dustin Brown: A successful business man in a large estate, married to Sarah Loranger.

Maria Cambio: I will be teaching English to high school students, and I will also be deeply involved in theater.

Rachel Nadeau: I will be living out my dreams, whatever they become with a happy future insight.

Jenee Campbell: I'll still be chillin' with the same friends.

Krystle Caparco: Working on the street with Megan.

Phillip Carlu: Eating lobster and drinking wine in my own vineyard in Southern California.

Stacey Catanzaro: Still partying with Jenn and looking for love in all the wrong places.

Stefania Ceroni: Living in my Italian villa, married and very happy.

Erin Champagne: Graduated from Tufts University, married and starting my own business.

Joseph Cilento: Chillin' in my upscale house, watchin' FRESH play for the Leafs on the big screen, and playing pool or poker with my boys from Coventry.

Wesley Young: A licensed architect, living and working in a major city.

Junior Class

As the class of 2006 became upperclassmen, we were introduced to another stage in our High School lives. This year, we took the PSATs, which were offered to both juniors and sophomores by the Coventry School District for the first time. Some also took the SATs in the Spring, which made them the first ones to take the new SATs that were recently created. Meanwhile, this was the first year that some of us became involved in the Vocational Technical Program at our school. Other Juniors chose certain classes that they believe will help them to pursue their professions. Essentially, all of us are beginning to plan for the future that we will embark once we graduate from high school.

In addition to getting our driving permits and licenses, this was the year in which we attended Winter Ball with our fellow seniors, whom we will be bidding farewell on Class Day. However, it is great to add that we were the first Junior Class to beat the Senior Class in the Homecoming Float Contest in over ten years. Winning with the theme of Polar Express, the Junior Class secured an honorable reputation for our students. In addition, many of us danced the night away at the Junior Prom. As Juniors, we were given new opportunities never dealt with before, which allowed us to learn more about our school and ourselves. As many of us look forward to our Senior Year, we move on with many memories and experiences that take part in developing our characters.

Bell rings uh-oh! We're late for school again and this year excuses are no longer accepted. Get ready for another fun fulfilled year of dances, homework, tests, and the everyday ups and downs of high school life. School is so redundant and at times tedious however, we all know that we must toughen up and get through it.

This year has gone by so fast and now its time for us to soon become the upper classmen. Throughout our years at Coventry we have seen "people", the people that looked so big on that first day of school freshmen year and now, we are those "people" and we will be looked up to from freshmen to come. It is now our time to shine. We must give these next two years our best shot because before we know it we will be going to college and whom you sat with at lunch or whom you went out with no longer matter. Long term goals and planning for the future will become our number one priority.

Although, at times high school may seem hard you just have to learn get up and try again. "I'd like to get away from earth awhile, And then come back to it and begin over. May no fate willfully misunderstand half grant, And me what I wish and snatch me away; not to return. Earth's the right place for love: I don't know where it's likely to go better." ~ Robert Frost

THE SCHOOL AT A GLANCE

Freshman Class History

On August 30, 2004, many of us entered these hallways not knowing what to expect. For example, would we like our classes and teachers, get lost every five minutes, or be parted from our closest friends? We suffered crowded hallways, confusion, jammed lockers, and of course the upper classmen. Eventually, after the first couple of weeks, we began to get the hang of the High School atmosphere. We no longer worried about getting lost among the first and second floor or being late to classes.

As the year progressed, the Freshman Class was involved with their first Homecoming Parade and dance. At the parade we brought the cartoon "Charlie Brown" to life. Later that year we enjoyed a fun night of dancing with our friends at our first semi-formal!

Many of us began to appreciate all the sports, clubs and activities the High School offered. Through these after school activities, we made many friends and felt a sense of belonging among them. Not only did we have our old friends; but new ones as well, to help us throughout these fun and difficult but rewarding years.

At the beginning of this year, we all started off with many different paths. Some took the most followed path, while others did not; some even began their own. We are all at the beginning, working our way through. No matter what we choose; we know we will all have to sometimes stop and think, even turn around and retrace our steps until we come to our final destination.

"An understanding heart is everything in a teacher, and cannot be esteemed highly enough. One looks back with appreciation to the brilliant teachers, but with gratitude to those who touched our human feeling. The curriculum is so much necessary raw material, but warmth is the vital element for the growing plant and for the soul of the child."

SPORTS

Talent, Competitive Edge, Sportmanship, Teamwork, and Spirit are the elements that make up the sports' teams at Coventry High School. In addition to being persistent and dedicated, all of the athletes at Coventry High work hard and play hard as well. While sports remain a crucial part in the lives of students at CHS, they also provide a source of discipline and social interaction for students. May the teams at CHS continue to improve and break school and state records.

SPORTS TRIVIA

Did You Know?

- » Until 1937, the referee in basketball had to throw a jump ball after every basket.
- » Until recently, a hockey goaltender never wore a mask. By 1959, Jacques Plante, an NHL All-Star goalie, had accumulated a hairline fracture and 200 stitches. Flying pucks had broken his jaw, both cheekbones, and his nose. Fibreglass Canada worked with Plante to develop the first-ever hockey goalie mask. While he was wearing the mask, his team, the Montreal Canadiens, won the Stanley cup for the third time.
- » Up to 20,000 pounds of pressure per square inch may be absorbed by a pole vaulter on the joints of his tubular thigh bones when he lands.
- » Using a graphite tennis racket reportedly helps prevent the onset of "tennis elbow."
- » Hockey word play: The letters in the name Jaromir (as in Jaromir Jagr of the Pittsburgh Penguins), when rearranged, spells Mario, Jr. (as in Mario Lemieux).
- » P.O.T.U.S Sports: U.S. President George Washington's favorite sport was fox hunting; Abraham Lincoln's was wrestling; Franklin D. Roosevelt's was swimming; John F. Kennedy's athletic passion was sailing; Richard M. Nixon's was football; and Ronald Reagan's favorite sport was horseback riding.
- » A "tirailleur" is a sharpshooter.
- » A 27-inch-high silver America's Cup holds no liquid – it is bottomless.
- » A cowboy in a rodeo bull riding competition must hang on for eight seconds. The same applies to bareback-bronc and saddle-bronc events.
- » A croquet ball weighs 1 pound.
- » A female softball pitcher can throw the ball 70 miles per hour.
- » A pro volleyball player can spike the ball at 80 miles per hour.
- » A scrum is rugby's equivalent of a hockey face-off, except that it involves all those playing the position of forward on both teams.

» According to a study, stock car fans are 64 percent more likely to buy a consumer good from a company that is a NASCAR sponsor than from a competitor that is not. Furthermore, NASCAR fans respond more favorably to a company logo on the hood of a supercharged car than to one on a ballpark billboard.

» According to research conducted a few years back, billiards champions have the highest average age of any sport, 35.6 years.

» According to the Detroit Free Press, 68 percent of professional hockey players have lost at least one tooth.

» According to the Bicycle Helmet Safety Institute in Arlington, Virginia, about 1,000 American deaths each year are a result of bicycle accidents.

» According to the National Hockey League's official rule book, an approved hockey puck must be made of vulcanized rubber or other approved material, measure 1 inch thick and 3 inches in diameter, and must weigh between 5½ and 6 ounces.

» According to the National Hockey League's official rule book, the home team is responsible for providing an adequate supply of official pucks which must be kept in a frozen condition. This supply of pucks must be kept at the penalty bench under the control of one of the regular off-ice officials.

» According to the Sporting Goods Manufacturers Association, clothing with team logos accounts for 60 percent of licensed pro sports merchandise sales – 45 percent of Americans own at least one item with a team logo on it.

» According to the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, a tennis ball is supposed to bounce between 53 and 58 inches when it is dropped on concrete from a height of 100 inches. The concrete surface should be 4 inches thick.

» Akebono, the sumo wrestler superstar from Hawaii, weighs 516 pounds.

» Although two-time Olympic gold medallist Percy Williams is rightly recognized by many as one of Canada's greatest athletes, he was twice beaten in the mid-1920s by Cyril Coaffee. In 1922, Coaffee ran the 100 yard dash in 9.6 seconds, tying the world record and setting a Canadian standard that wouldn't be bettered for 25 years.

» American consumers were asked to vote for their favorite Wheaties champion of all-time. Wheaties celebrated its 75th anniversary in 1999 by re-releasing the original cereal packages featuring the Wheaties champions selected; the top ten vote recipients were Michael Jordan, Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth, Mary Lou Retton, Tiger Woods, Cal Ripken, Jr., Walter Payton, John Elway, Jackie Robinson, and the 1980 U.S. Men's Olympic Hockey Team.

Girls Tennis

The girls' tennis team played well and worked very hard this year. They made good sportsmanship a priority in each match they played, making their coach proud. They put in their best effort during practice everyday after school. The Seniors in this year's team were: Anna Yanko, Julia Glater, Casey Ryan, and Vicky Lessieur. They all set good examples and showed determination. Most of the Seniors played positions interchangeably, but predominantly played singles matches. Each were assets to the team. We look forward to the new players and a great season for the upcoming year!

Boys' Volleyball

After the Boys' Volleyball team made it to the State Championships last fall, the team is confident and determined to win the State Championships during the upcoming season of Spring 2005. Players return from last year and there are new ones who are joining as well. Good luck to the Boys' Volleyball team.

BOYS INDOOR TRACK

Considering the majority of the team was new, the Boys' Indoor Track team had a good year. We had to rely on young talent to go through the year. The team finished the regular season with a very respectable 5-3 record, only losing to the powerhouses of North Kingstown and Chariho, and barely losing to the Rogers.

The athletes performed consistently throughout the season. It was almost certain that certain athletes would score top 3 in each of the meets. David Daniels was consistent with placing in the hurdles and the high jump, while Cory Thayer was competitive in the 45-meter dash. Stephen Griffith was at the top for the 600 and sophomore Dan Gallagher usually won the 1500 and place high in the 1000. Meanwhile, sophomore Andrew Johnson finished in the Top 3 for the 3000 in every meet. In addition, it was amazing that freshman Kevin Patnode won Freshmen States after running his second 1500 and proceeded to place sixth in the Divisional Meet the following day. The athletes mentioned all qualified for States as well.

In addition, the team has many prospects for the future including David McArdle and Dacid Clarkin, who are very competitive in the 300, 600, and 1000. According to Coach Merdinyan, it has been a pleasure for him to have had such a great group of individuals. The team was motivated and willing to learn and the coach looks forward to the next season with the new, strong foundation that the team has built.

Boys Cross Country

The 2004 Boy's Cross Country had a very successful season. After finishing third in the Southern Division, Coventry High School placed fifth in Class A Championships and eleventh in the State Championships.

The Boy's Cross Country team was led by Senior Captain Mike Ross, who received Academic All-State Honors. Junior Nick Lacroix received second Team All Division and third Team All Class Honors. Sophomore Andrew Johnson received first Team All Division and second Team All Class Honors. Johnson placed 25th in the State Championships, which qualified him for the New England Championships.

5 Great Sports Moments of the Past 25 Years...

1. Miracle on Ice (February 22, 1980)

In the semi-finals at the 1980 Winter Olympics, the US amateur hockey team was matched against the superior Soviet team, the four-time defending gold medal winners. The Soviets were dominant in all five of their division games, outscoring their opponents 51-11. Yet the Cinderella US squad stunned the Soviets 4-3, and as the clock wound down, sportscaster Al Michaels, in disbelief, roared "Do you believe in miracles? Yes!"

2. 62 and Beyond (September 8, 1998)

All season, Mark McGwire and Sammy Sosa chased baseball's most-revered record: Roger Maris' single season home run record of 61, set in 1961. On this September night, a sold-out Busch Stadium and a national TV audience watched as McGwire drove a Steve Trachsel pitch over the left-field wall in the fourth inning to break Maris' record. Capturing the imagination of baseball fans, McGwire and Sosa continued to jockey for the home-run crown in the season's final weeks, with McGwire finally settling at 70.

3. The Catch (January 10, 1981)

Dwight Clark's leaping, fingertip catch in the waning seconds of the NFC Championship ignited the San Francisco 49ers dynasty in the 1980s. With the 49ers trailing the Dallas Cowboys 27-21 in the fourth quarter, the legend of quarterback Joe Montana was born that afternoon at Candlestick Park. On a third-and-three play from the Dallas six-yard line, Montana scrambled out of the pocket and lofted the pigskin to the back of the end zone. Clark's catch and Ray Wersching's extra point gave the Niners a 28-27 victory.

4. Douglas KOs Tyson (February 11, 1991)

During a four-year reign of terror, Mike Tyson was the most feared heavyweight boxer in history. His fight against James "Buster" Douglas was considered a tune-up, with Douglas a heavy 35-1 underdog. Douglas, however, gained confidence throughout the fight, showing no signs of intimidation as he went toe to toe with Iron Mike. In the eighth round, Tyson floored Douglas with a thunderous uppercut. But Douglas recovered and landed a barrage of devastating blows that sent Tyson to the canvas in the 10th round. The referee stopped the contest, thus ending Tyson's aura of invincibility.

5. E-3 (October 26, 1986)

The Shea Stadium scoreboard flashed, "Congratulations, Red Sox," as the bottom of the 10th started with Boston leading 5-3 in Game Six of the World Series. But quicker than you can say "Bill Buckner," the New York Mets roared back to tie the game, setting up one of the most memorable blunders in sports history. In the words of NBC announcer Vin Scully: "So the winning run is at second base with two outs. Three-and-two to Mookie Wilson... A little roller up along first... behind the bag... it gets through Buckner! Here comes Knight! And the Mets win it!" The Mets took the series in seven, while Boston fans had another reason to lament the Curse of the Bambino.

Girls' Soccer

The Lady Oakers soccer team completed a very successful season by finishing second in the division 2 state tournament. The lady's finished with 15 wins and 4 losses. 3 of the losses came from the hands of the state championship team of Portsmouth.

Senior Siobhan McCaffrey led the way in scoring again with 19 goals and 18 assists, while senior Tiffany Giusti also continued her scoring with 13 goals and 3 assists. Sophomore Missy Kmon chipped in as the second leading scorer with 18 goals and 5 assists. The defense was led by Freshman Alyssa Peckham, Freshman Ashley Liese, Sophomore Beth Salvas, and Senior Ashley Bettencourt. Senior Beth Bell again led the way in goal posting 14 of the 15 wins. Sophomore Kelly Dussault also played goal in 6 games and earned her first varsity victory while only allowing three goals in six games.

The Oakers are losing seven seniors to graduation after having four very successful years. Seniors: Ashley Bettencourt, Ashley Cohen, Jessica Pacheco, Beth Bell, and captains Tiffany Giusti, Liz Patenode, and three-time all state Siobhan McCaffrey. Best of luck to all of you.

BOY'S SOCCER

The season always begins with nervous anticipation and a tremendous amount of hard work on August 20th each year.

To their credit, these young men learned to balance their commitment to the team while achieving academic Honors, belonging to various clubs, and holding jobs in the community. Their commitments says everything about who they are as players and people.

Our Oakers Varsity Team competed throughout the Fall 2004 season against its Division I rivals. The highlights of our season were several upset victories over tough opponents such as Barrington and South Kingstown, when South Kingstown had just earned National ranking by defeating State Champions LaSalle Academy. However, South Kingstown's glory was short-lived as their undefeated season was shattered by our 2-1 home win!

We all wish the best of luck to our departing teammates and hope they return as often as they can to cheer us on in future seasons. Keep up that running and remember those long, fun runs we shared while we were looking for houses along the water!

Boys Basketball

The 2004-2005 season was a very tumultuous one for the Oakers' Boys' Basketball. Initially, the Oakers were put into Division I with RI's basketball powerhouses. Secondly, the team faced excitement with the hiring of a new coach, Chris Dante. Dante took the reigns and began building a team based on trust. The team submerged into its toughest phase of the season. Then newcomer Coach, Paul Blais, stepped in and began to build the team based on what Dante taught. With the help and strength of the Senior Captains Greg Mruk, Travis Leffert and "Nasty" Nathan Bartlett, the Oakers made progress despite a few bumps in the road. The captains were determined not to let the Team give up despite all odds. Soon afterwards, the Team was thrust into another segment of the season as Bill Tarvis and "The Master" went aboard the Team. All three Coaches embraced the strengths of the Team and worked on the weaknesses. As a result, the Team was pulled up from the backsets in the season as they began scoring back-to-back victories. Despite the bumpy road in the beginning of the season, the Team was able to work together. All in all, the future looks bright for the Oakers Boys Basketball.

The 2004-2005 Girls' Basketball Team was led by Seniors Beth Bell, Erin Larson, and Becky Petrarca. Bell and Larson were co-captains for the season. The Lady Oakers brought a tenacious defense to the court that caused their opponents to make adjustments in each and every game. Rounding out the varsity squad were Juniors Caitlin Smith, Mary Barden, and Meg Feeley, Sophomores Caitlin Vandervelde, Abby Chevalier, Nicole Enos, Donielle Mattoon, Tori Darling and Kelly Dussault, and Freshman Anna Barden.

Although the team struggled in league play, the Lady Oakers were successful in capturing the Coventry Credit Union Classic. Beth Bell and Erin Larson were named the All-Tournament players while Abby Chevalier was named the Tournament MVP. Lastly, the team displayed great effort and determination throughout the entire season.

Girls' Fastpitch Softball

The Lady Oakers Fastpitch Softball competed in Division I for the second season. The team defeated the defending champions, Pilgrim, two to one, in what would be their biggest victory of the year.

Beth Bell led the way in hitting with a .375 batting average, followed by Cassie Corderio (333), and Michaela Cady (304).

Danielle Prignano had started pitching for the Oakers, but Alli Chabot eventually pitched the majority of the innings when Prignano missed the season due to illness. However, Chabot shows a promising future as she won her first varsity victory. Caitlin Vandervelde pitched in seven games and is a promising asset to the team as well. The team looks forward to the next season.

The girl's volleyball team enjoyed their most successful regular season ever in the fall of 2004. Led by Captains Shana Schloth, Sara Messier, and Amanda Berntson, Coventry captured their First Division Title with a 15-3 record. Coventry also won the annual Koch Eye Tournament featuring the top 20 teams in the state. In addition to the three captains mentioned above, Erin Larson, Carolyn Crist, and Liz and Jackie Mokaba will graduate as the most successful players in school history.

The Seniors did not leave the cupboard bare for next season, as Juniors Lauren Biondo and Sharon Corriveau each earned All-Division Honors. Maggie Ferri, Shawna Maxwell, Erin Kavanaugh, Nicole Enos, Kara Jalbert, Stephanie Crist, and Sarah Messier will return next year as the team's upperclassmen for next season.

2004-2005 Sports Recap

Boys Baseball

Last Spring's Coventry High School baseball season began with potential, and its players lived up to the hype. The team, which was dominated by experienced Seniors and Juniors, was able to erase all memories of late inning mistakes and tough luck losses by coming up clutch in the second half of the season and finishing 9-9 which propelled them into the playoffs for the first time in six years. Seniors John Giusti and Junior Kevin Rowles were recognized for their efforts by being named to Class A South's First Team All Division, while Sophomore Jeff DiLorenzo was named Second Team All Division.

John Giusti wrapped-up his career as a four-year starting shortstop and provided the walk-off grand slam against perennial power Toll Gate which proved to be the turning point in the Oakers' season. Each game seemed to see a different senior step-up. Ryan Andrews and Dane Laboissonniere raised their game versus rival West Warwick. Reid Degraide produced a walk off double to defeat Warwick Vets. Anthony Hammond and T.J. Frail provided late inning cushions in the team's first victory over North Kingstown. Kevin Rowles and Jeff DiLorenzo combined for wins in five of the last six games which pitched the team into the playoffs.

This year's team comes in with promise with returning starters Rowles, DiLorenzo, Geoff Sinnott, Ron Gallant, Adam Porier and Alex Macomber likely to carry on the legacy of last year's seniors. The team will look for key contributions from Dave Lamothe, Kevin Dunn, Jeremy DiMicco, Steve Gardner and Ron Gallagher as well.

Led by Captains Samantha Simone, Loryssa Simas, and Whitney Capwell, the Girls' Outdoor Track and Field finished 6-3 for the regular season in the very competitive Southern Division which features some of the top track teams in the state. We also finished third in Class A and had many players qualify for the State and New England Championships. Overall, the Team had a very successful season. Siobhan McCaffrey won the Class A championship in the long jump and Whitney Capwell was the Southern Division Champion in the shotput. Our 4x100 meter relay team of Loryssa Simas, Casey Cronin, Siobhan McCaffrey, and Ruth Clarkin won the Rick Schomp Invitational and were also Southern Division Champions who finished fifth at the state championships.

In addition, many athletes broke many school records. Casey Cronin broke the school record in the triple jump. She placed fourth at the State championships, was the team's highest point scorer at that meet, and was one of the leading triple jumpers in New England for her age and grade as well. Nicole Stefanik and Ashley Fallon alternated in breaking the School's javelin record and both placed in the top ten at the State championships. Stefanik also established herself as one the leading Sophomore javelin throwers in New England. The 4x400 meter school record was shattered by the Team consisting of Casey Cronin, Amy Krajewski, Ruth Clarkin, and Loryssa Simas. They placed fourth at the State Champions.

Those who have set personal records and showed significant improvements throughout the year include Jenny Lau, Danielle Horne, Ashley Buglio, Caitlyn Smith, Kelley Morgan, and Ali Briden. Freshman athletes, Crystal Bourque, Danielle Cote, Lindsay Brisson, and Chelsea Creamer showed true potential as competitive track athletes as they were among some of the season's highest scorers.

Clubs

A typical day at the high school consists of a variety of subjects such as, Science, Math, History and English; but the students at CHS can also choose fun elective courses. ROTC, culinary, art, photography, music are some of the many electives at CHS. There is more to school life than sitting in class all day. A majority of activities take place in the afternoon. After all, high school life isn't just about homework, writing essays and studying. Students at CHS can get involved in many activities even if they have to give up some of their personal time to join. Between participating in Student Council, working the WCVY radio station, Science Club, and other activities students can stay pretty busy. Life at Coventry High goes beyond participation. People form bonds and friendships that exist outside of the school. Goals are reached and struggles are overcome. Student life represents the free spirit, good will and the fun side of all Coventry High School students. One learns lessons never before known and those they will never forget.

YEARBOOK

With Mr. Nolan as the club advisor, the Yearbook Club of 2004-2005 had loads of work to do. The first step to producing the '04-'05 yearbook was establishing the title of the book, which is "The Time of Your Life." Between writing stories, cropping pictures, and making deadlines, the club was under constant stress. However the club united and successfully completed the yearbook!

The three managing editors were Sajel Shah, Jessica Lawton, and Sarika Saran. Others editors include Chris Beaudoin Junior editor, Nichole Perue Sophomore editor, Erica Nadeau Freshman editor, Sports editors Erica Hanson, Jenny Lau, and Rose Bartholomew, Clubs editor Erica Hanson and Jenny Lau, and ads editor Amanda Hooper. Individuals who were responsible for the surprise edition of the '04-'05 DVD were Meghan Sullivan and Jenny Lau. The finance and DVD advisor of the yearbook was Mr. Walker. Producing the yearbook has been a time-consuming effort, yet the yearbook club is proud to present the 2004-2005 yearbook. We hope you enjoy all of our hard work!

Swing Dance

The Coventry High School "Phat Catz" perform as the school's official swing dancers. Advised by Mrs. Pacheco, the team, choreograph dances to be performed to the music of the swing era. In their uniform colors of pink and black, the "Phat Catz" stun the audience with their well-rehearsed, old-time dance moves and unique style of stunting. With the music of "Rock This Town", by the Stray Cats, They showed off at the Varsity Revue. They also performed to the rhythms of "Jump, Jive, and Wail", by Brian Stezar, at Coventry High's dance show. Their Thursday afternoon practices that the team has reflect in its performances at the end. The fifteen or so couples of swing dancers love what they do and enjoy every second of the dancing and choreographing. The dancers also participate in benefits for community charities and fundraisers. All members of the team would like to thank Mrs. Pacheco's time and effort, in addition to wishing the current seniors good luck in their time after high school.

Science Club

The Science Club had a great time exploring science concepts in the lab, out on the Pawtuxet Riverbanks, and out on the ocean. This year, approximately 22 members tie-dyed T-shirts, investigated chemical demonstrations, and observed whale behavior at the club's annual whale watch. In addition, many explored polymer and forensics chemistry, listened to guest speakers describe careers in pharmacy and research, and visited the Boston Museum of Science. Members also crafted ceramic tiles and participated in Earth Day activities to improve the health of the Pawtucket River in Coventry. The club is filled with fun and welcomes new members anytime.

Envirothon

Envirothon started a few years ago with a team of only five sophomore students. It is a team that touches base with everything in nature. Meeting once a week, the students learn about aquatics, wildlife, soils, and trees. This knowledge, however, does not go unnoticed. Every year, teams of five compete against other schools in hands-on tests and oral presentations. Four years ago the amateurs managed second place and continued to win throughout their high school years. Their legacy is passed on to a new team, which hopes to live up to its prestigious ranking.

WCVY 91.5 FM

For many years, the message "This is FM 91.5 WCVY Coventry, signing on." has been broadcasted over the air across Kent County every weekday at 2 P.M. It marks the beginning of a new work day for the staff of Rhode Island's only high school FM radio station, WCVY. The operating hours are 2-10 P.M. Under the direction of Mr. Murray, the station has made many great improvements during the 2004-2005 school year. Run by a full staff of CHS students, they work in the areas of news, sports, production, music, promotions, and of course DJ's. Thanks to the dedication and devotion to those involved, WCVY is sure to have many successful years ahead.

Student Council

The Coventry High School Student Council is the group that unifies all of the other groups within the school in order to work toward a set of common goals. Advised under Mrs. Tracy, Mr. DiMicco, and Mrs. Kelly, the Council is open to all students who attend weekly meetings in the upper auditorium.

Essentially, the group begins preparations over the summer and commences with a cookout. From there, the group is off and running. Homecoming, varsity revue, spirit week, and career day are just a few of the major activities that the Student Council plans. It is important to note that the Council takes the needs and desires of the school population into consideration when it plans events and activities.

In addition, the Student Council plans leadership development programs for Freshman and Sophomores at Alton Jones, coordinates the annual Christmas card program, sponsors the secret pal program, participates in an intergenerational program, and coordinates the blood drive. Through each of the mentioned activities, members learn to put the needs of others in the community first.

Besides the annual events, Student Council has taken on a few new activities this year. First, PRIDE Day was added to the school calendar, when members of various clubs implemented a school wide clean-up. Second, the Student Council now recognizes each student's birthday with a morning announcement and a birthday card in homeroom. Third, the Student Council has joined the Feinstein program and has, thus far, held two very successful food drives.

Finally, the student organization has been visible on both the State and National level. There are many students and advisors who serve on the executive boards on both levels and many members have attended State, Regional, and National Council conferences. When they return to Coventry High School, they bring back with them a wealth of ideas that benefit the entire community.

ROTC

The Rhode Island 81st Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps has been well known throughout Rhode Island. Students in the ROTC program learn discipline and teamwork among other life skills. The team showed amazing stamina this year and we are extremely proud of them!

RIAFJ ROTC: DRILL TEAM

The Rhode Island 81st Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps Drill Team is a well known team throughout the East Coast of the United States. This year, the team is heading back to Washington D.C. to defend their National Title for the fourth year. Members of the team must possess military bearing, knowledge of a weapon, knowledge of the country, history of its flag, and most importantly, dedication. For those who are apart of the team, it is a great honor. Over fifty cadets tried out for the team and only eighteen were inducted. It is the only team in the school that involves both males and females who are equally intelligent and physically in shape. Over the years, the team has been recognized for its leadership, sportsmanship, and participation in the community. Cadets are required to attend all practices, maintain their academic schoolwork, and wear their uniforms to school in order to remain on the team. The cadets conduct themselves in a higher manner relative to other cadets due to their position as a respectful leader to their peers.

Select Chorus

Select Choir is Coventry High's audition only vocal group. Each member must have an audition with Mr. DeGraide in the Spring prior to the school year if they wish to become a member. They perform twice a year at the holiday and spring concerts, in addition to many other festivals. Not only do they rehearse during the school day, but also during summer vacations. Being in Select means being one of the best.

Seniors departing this year include: Kim Lima, Tiffany Giusti, Katherine Patenaude, Kaela Adams, Lisa Coulombe, Nile Hawver, Ryan Tremblay, Sean Foster, and Nathaniel Pouliot.

Concert Chorus

Directed by Lisa Masse and accompanied by Ms. Coyle, the Concert Chorus is a recent addition to the school. Concert Chorus is open to anyone with prior choral experience, without auditions. They hold two annual concerts, one in the winter and one in the spring. Practice is held every Tuesday after school until 3:15PM. Each attending member shows dedication and loyalty to the club and their fellow members.

In addition to meeting after school, the large group meets in small sections during different classes. Since the chorus is open to everyone, it cannot meet in one class, making rehearsals after school a necessity. They also look forward to their out-of-state trip at the end of each year. Seniors include Erica Krawzik, Nichole DeMilia, Krystal Boss and Carl Gough.

Faculty Chorus

Directed by Mr. DeGraide, the Faculty Chorus is a group of teachers who spend their time rehearsing Wednesday after school to perform in two annual school concerts. The teachers practice during their free time. Surprisingly, they sound really good! Who would have known that a group of teachers could ever pull it off? This being their third year, teachers, who are involved, are proud of their accomplishments and many say that the chorus gives them the opportunity to sing and a chance to shine.

REMEMBER THE DRAMA PRODUCTIONS, VARSITY REVIEW, CONCERTS, COMPETITIONS, AND OTHER HIGHLIGHTS OF YOUR FAVORITE CLUBS.

Drama

Drama is not a club, an organization, or a group, but more like a family. Being a member of the Drama means more than holding the audience hostage on the ends of their seats, or being admired in the moments of glory underneath the spotlight. Students discover the true meaning of "unity as a team" during their months of line memorizing, set construction, frequent blocking changes, and plenty of technical needs. There is no better feeling than showcasing hard work. Director, Myke Wilkinson, has never failed to amaze the audience or inspire all of those involved in Drama.

This Fall's production was "Charlie and Algernon," a very special musical based on the book by Daniel Keyes. It portrayed the importance of being proud of yourself despite minor imperfections. It featured an accompanying orchestra directed by Mr. Costa.

This Spring's production of "A Piece of My Heart" was entered in the 2005 Rhode Island State Competition. The play is a tribute to those who were in the Vietnam War. It was an authentic and tear-jerking play that radiated the courageous lives who served in the Army. Always striving for excellence, the Drama family intends to place first in the state competition for the fourth time.

Alternative Learning Program ALP

The Coventry School Department has set up an alternative program for students. The alternative program is designed to allow students to make up credits in one year, that the average CHS student would take two full years to complete. Consequently, the program gives those students the opportunity to graduate with their class on time. Students who have repeated more than one grade can make up these years at the alternative program, or they can decide to attend the school for a year and then return to CHS. In addition to core classes, the students are also given the opportunity to do community service work. The program is very challenging, with some students taking numerous courses in order to graduate with their fellow classmates.

Band

The music department has been especially busy this year. With four different ensembles, Mr. Smith and the bands have continued to work hard and perform as usual. Starting in August, the marching band began to prepare for the 2004 football season. The band cheered on the Oakers at every home game as well as the Thanksgiving Day game. After the football season, preparation for the holiday concerts began. The Concert Band performed several selections and sounded great. These selections included "Among the Clouds," "Planets," and "Comberland Cross," among others. The Wind Ensemble, which is a newer ensemble and is an audition-only band, prepared numerous selections. This year, the Wind Ensemble revisited "Korean Folk Song." Surely they displayed the diversity and advanced musicianship within the music department. Other Ensembles, including the Jazz A Band and the Jazz B Band also played wonderful selections. All four ensembles played wonderfully, linking the variety of musical abilities in order to create an excellent Music Department.

"Don't settle for mediocracy." ~Mr. William Smith

Words make you think a thought. Music makes you feel a feeling. A song makes you feel a thought.

Dance Team

 Middle (L-R): Kara Skaling, Jessica Daley, Kristen Guertin, Ariana Verducci
 Bottom: Lauren Whittle, Lauren Coyne, Kristina Giusti, Kristen Ricciardelli, Sarah Rubinstein

This is the dance team's eighth year at Coventry Public School. Coached and found by Moira Young, the team also has the aid of Assistant coaches Jeni Petrarca and Lisa Palumbo. They are a competitive hip hop and jazz team that not only performs at various school functions, but at nationwide competitions as well. The dance team demands a rigorous schedule in which all the hard work, persistence, and effort finally culminates in an end of the season Dance Show. They are a group of dedicated students that practices year round. This year, at its first competition, the team received an Ultimate Gold Medal and an another special award for being the most spirited group. This season was a success. The coaches were proud to have such an outstanding team of young ladies.

Math League

Math League participants:
 Artem Yankov,
 Jeff Heigh, and Ted Tracy

Competing in the RI Mathematics League against 31 other schools and 700 other students throughout the state, the CHS Math Team continues to improve. With returning high scorer, junior, Jeffrey Heigh, senior Ted Tracy, junior Artem Yankov, and sophomore Shaun Heath, the Math Team started the year with a fifth place finish at the first meet of the year. The team competed in the West Bay Division against teams from Toll Gate, Rocky Hill, East Greenwich, and West Warwick, meanwhile the team has retained its strong participation and is looking forward to next year's competition.

Interact

Co-Advisor Mrs. Yoest, Secretary Meghan Sullivan (middle), President Jenny Lau, Treasurer Ed Duhamel, Co-Advisor Mrs. Johansen

The Interact Club is a group of students that is dedicated to serving the community as well as promoting community service among students at Coventry High School. This year, the club was led by President Jenny Lau, along with Vice-President Sarah Simonelli, Secretary Meghan Sullivan, and Treasurer Ed Duhamel. The club has implemented many successful community service projects this year.

Along with accomplishing the club's annual tasks, such as helping with the David Nigarian Road Race and making PB&J sandwiches for the local shelter, the club implemented many new projects. Students in the club made hygiene kits for the Coventry Food Bank, Halloween goodie bags for the children at Hasbro Children's Hospital, and helped with CHS's PRIDE Day. In addition, they made care packages for faculty members who were stationed overseas in Iraq, Christmas ornaments for underprivileged children, and many helped the Oak Haven Elementary School with their annual "Halloween Happenings."

The club meets once every two weeks and welcomes new members readily. The club is essentially designed to get students involved in their community and to gain a meaningful experience at the same time.

National Honor Society

National Honor Society Standards

High school Juniors and Seniors are eligible for induction into the National Honor Society. Selection and continued membership are based on the four areas of scholarship, service, leadership and character all weighted equally. Students do not apply for membership. Selection and induction are honors bestowed on the student.

The scholarship standard is based on a student's cumulative grade point average (GPA) beginning in the ninth grade until the first semester of their current grade. The scholarship standard is a GPA of 3.65.

The service standard is thirty hours of documented service by the eleventh grade and an additional fifteen hours of community service by one's Senior year. Service hours may accumulate beginning in the ninth grade.

Rhode Island Honor Society Standards

High School Seniors are eligible for induction in the Rhode Island Honor Society with a GPA of 3.35 by the end of the first semester.

Foreign Language Club

Along with the normal classes offered at Coventry High School, the school also offers to its students the option of foreign languages. Currently, these special classes consist of Spanish, French, and Italian. The Foreign Language Club is open to all those that are enrolled in a foreign language class and enthusiastically welcomes new members. It meets once a month after school and is run by Singora DiPrete. Also, it holds annual events such as Foreign Language Night in the month of December, which this year showed the play, "La Befana," the story of the good witch of Italy who delivers presents to children on the night of the Epiphany. Other events held by the club include: food tasting, Foreign Language Week, music and drama, presentations, field trips, and an honors ceremony. The club is eager to spread the beauty of language to all the students in the school.

Our precious little baby
our special gift of love Carried to us by angels
a gift from God above.

My the years have flown just look at how you've grown In wisdom and in grace of conceit there is no trace.

With determination in your eye never ceasing to ask "why?"
Reaching for the stars from the start compassion and goodness in your heart.

With a word of encouragement and pat on the back
You lead by example always willing to pick up the slack.

You are genuine and sincere,
a friend who is always there Very sweet and always kind
Just little words that come to mind.

Dedicated and inspired looked up to and admired Honest and forthright in addition to being quite bright.

Always willing to go the extra mile
Never complaining and with a smile
Exceeding the standards, always raising the bar setting new goals, reaching for the farthest star.

May you find love peace and happiness in all that you do
Knowing our prayers have been answered
In the GIFT that is YOU!

*Love,
Mom and Dad,
BP & BBB*

*P.S.
We knew you could,
We knew you could,
We knew you could
...and you did!!!*

Robert, where have the years gone?
It seems only like yesterday you were getting on the bus for first grade.

We watched you take your first steps and now we're watching you step across the stage to receive your high school diploma. We want you to know we cherish all the "steps" in between.

You've grown into such a remarkable young man. We are so proud to call you our son.

Love,

Leah,
Thank you for being our daughter. From our days on Spruce St. to Coventry High we cannot believe how fast the years have gone by. You are intelligent, beautiful and one of the kindest people we know. We love you and may you do well in life. May God bless you Bones McGillicutty.

Marisa, Mom & Dad

Rob, just remember that you made our family as proud today as you did 17 years ago.

Thank you for being YOU!
Love,
Mom, Dad and Christopher

*Congratulations
Erin Kathrine!*

*Love,
Mom, Dad &
Kellsey*

Ryan, Ever since you were little your determination and talent have made you shine brightly.
We are very proud of you and we know that you will shine on.
So much love,
You Family

We are so proud of you your accomplishments.
Always move forward and remember back. A hundred years of success.
Love,
Mom, Pop & Adam

To Our Son Matthew,
"A gift from God". That's what "Matthew" means. You made it so easy for us to be parents, you are a wonderful son, thank you for being so easy to raise. I remember as if it was yesterday when you came into this world on October 14, 1986. I watched you take your first step, hear you speak your first words. I still remember your first day of preschool and the excitement in your face when you walked into the classroom. I, of course, cried as I let you go for the first time. Now a young man who's ready to graduate, and I know it's not going to be long before I have to let you go again and face the world as an adult. Even so, we know that no matter what you do in your life that you'll be great at it because you have the determination to always get the things you really want.
Set your goals high and never settle for less. You have it in you to be anything you want to be. We have been so blessed with a wonderful son. We have always been proud of you and all your accomplishments. God bless you Matthew and thank you for making us so happy.
Congratulations! Lots of love always,
Mom, Dad, Christopher, and Amanda

Congratulations Michael!

We're proud of you!

Love,
Mom & Dad

"Oh, the places you'll go!"

Congratulations Joshua!
We are so proud of you. We know you will succeed in what ever you do.
Love,
Mom

Kevin,
We are so proud of you
for all that you do and all that you are. You are always special to us.
Keep Being Yourself.
All Our Love,
Mom, Dad, Adam & Tiffany

Congratulations Mindy!!

*It looks as though you've made it through,
things that could have made you blue.
But what lies ahead is something new,
and we are so proud of you.
So hold your head high,
as you soar through the sky.
Although this may be to high school a goodbye,
you can still hold on to friends if you try.
This was your goal and now it's time, to look ahead for another turn to shine.*

Love Always & Forever, Mom, Dad, Tiff, and Christopher

Kim,
I can't believe how quickly time has gone by. We are very proud of you and hope that you go on and be the best you can be.
All our love and support,
Mom, Dad and Beth

Hey Dan!
(We finally made it.)

Love, Mom

Daniel follow your dreams, have fun and be careful and you will be successful in anything you do.

Love, Mom and Dad

DAN

CONGRATULATIONS!

Time has passed so quickly.
We've watched you grow from a little boy to a wonderful young man. May all your dreams and wishes come true while going to college and in the future.
Good luck!!

Jess:

Words alone cannot begin to tell the story of what joy and sense of pride you have brought to our lives. You have what it takes to accomplish anything you want in life. Continue to believe in yourself and have the confidence to strive for what you want. Most of all do not change the person you have worked hard to become, intelligent, warm, compassionate and determined. Stay focused and know we will always be there for you.

Love Always,
Mom and Dad

Danielle,

You made it! We are so proud of how you handled the challenges that came your way throughout high school and all that you have accomplished. Keep smiling! Believe in yourself and have the courage to follow your dreams. We love you.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Greg

Mary-Jane,
Congratulations!
You are a terrific person and continue to make us proud!
Love,
Dad and Mom

Nate,

We are very proud of you and also want you to know how much we love you!!!!
Dad, Mom, Amanda

Candice,
Never stop believing in yourself.
We are very proud of you.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Nick, and baby Madison

Life will sometimes hand
you a magical moment.
Take the time to enjoy it.
We're so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Bob, Jess & Aimee

Cassie,
Congratulations
on one of many accomplishments.
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Olivia

May your walls know joy:
May every room hold laughter
And every window open to a great possibility.

Sammi,
You have persevered over one of life's harshest tragedies.
Your strength and beauty will continue to carry you through all the days of your life. Aim high sweetheart.
We are so proud of you.
Love,
Mom, Mike, Kennan and always Corey

Congratulations Joseph!
We are so proud of you.
May all your dreams come true. All of ours have because of you.
All Our Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Kevin!!
We are all very proud of you!!
Love,
Mom, Dad, John, & Leah

Peanut, Words alone are inadequate to say how proud we are of
you. Always follow your dreams and you will make a huge impact on others as you have impacted us.
Love,
Ma & Dad

Phillip,

Great Job!
Love always,
Mom, Dad, Victor, & Stephanie

Keep Smiling!

Jennifer,
 Congratulations to our little Jenado (J.D.). We are so proud of you and we know you will go far.
 Love, Mom, Dad & Britt

Geoffrey,
 From your first hit in T-Ball, to your last hit in high school, we always knew you would be a big hit in life. We are very proud of everything you have accomplished.
 Don't ever let the world push you around - Do the pushing! Always strive to get the first down.

Love,
 Mom, Dad,
 Jenny & Mitchell

Jimmy,
 Good Luck
 and Build a great Future!

Shana,
 Your mother and I are so proud of you. Good luck in college.
 Love, Dad

Nathan

On the day you were born we were blessed with a very special gift,
 "A gift from God". That's what
 "Nathan" means.

We thank God every day for you.
 Watching you grow from our "little boy" into such an accomplished and wonderful "young man" has been quite an experience.

You'd make any parent proud.
 Thank you for bringing so much joy and happiness into our lives.

We all wish you love, happiness and prosperity today, tomorrow and always.

May all your dreams come true.

We are so proud of you!

Congratulations!!

All Our Love,

Mom, Dad, Jonathan, Ryan and Lauren

Leaves

Leave, leaves in the air, twirling, swirling everywhere!

So many colors, oh so bright; red, yellow, orange, what a delight!

Leaves, leaves in my hair, put there on a dare!

On the ground, in a pile;
don't you love'um, just for a while?

Enjoy life, Love Dad & Mom

Jon,
We've watched you grow from a young boy into a very bright young man. All those days of fishing and spending time with my best bud are going to pay off because you'll be the best fresh water biologist in the world.

Love,
Dad & Chrissy

Ronnie-Congratulations! We are so proud of you.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Matt Sheldon,
Believe in yourself
and you'll go far.
We are so very proud of you!

Mom, Ben and Dan

CONGRATULATIONS ANDREW!

We are so proud of you!
Love, Dad, Mom, Amy and Kevin

With all our love Heather!

Dad, Mom, Courtney
and Jonathan

When you are happy
we'll love you with a joyful heart.
When you are sad
we'll love you with a heart
made a little heavier by your tears.
When you are right,
we'll love you with a heart
filled with pride.
When you are wrong,
we'll love you with a heart
that has learned acceptance.
When you succeed,
we'll love you with a cheering heart.
When you fail,
we'll love you with a heart
that rewards the efforts you've made.
When you dream,
we'll love you with an encouraging heart.
When you give up,
we'll love with a heart
that is strong enough for all of us.
When you are simply you,
we'll love you with all our hearts and more than you'll ever know.
