What piece are you? Are you the shy student, the Class Clown, the jock, the cheerleader, the "teacher terror"? Are you the All State Athlete, the National History Day winner, the All State Band member, the Capstone Procrastinator? Regardless of your contribution to the mosaic of CHS, we all make up important pieces of the colorful world of our high school. Each person's individuality contributes to a stronger whole. Not all of us receive accolades. Only one of us is valedictorian. There are only a few sport team captains. Together, however, all of us contribute to Coventry High. Without all of us, CHS would not be whole. Each one of you is an important piece of the school.
Senior Nights, games under the lights, double sessions, 4am hockey practice in West Warwick, sprints, co-captains, injuries, “pain is weakness leaving the body”, pep rally, Coach Z., Horlbogen! ... Athletics. Whether you are a member of a Varsity or Junior Varsity team, or a fan, you are a very important part of our school. Athletics help to unite all the different pieces of CHS. Athletics bring spirit to our school, athletics bring pride to our school, our athletic history makes us curious about our school’s past, and athletics bring alumni to homecoming. Without athletics a piece of the Coventry mosaic would be colorless. The Oaker athletic colors of red and white...a great piece of CHS.
Whatever talent or interest you have, you can share some of that talent by joining one of the high school's numerous organizations. Community service is your thing? Try Interact. Organizing Varsity Review or Spirit Week? Join our 65 year old tradition of Student Council. Writing your specialty? Sounds like you are a member of the 76 year old Entry newspaper club. Enjoy marching? Join the National Champion Drill Team. Enjoy arguing? Debate a bill at the State House with the Model Legislature group. Like to dance and yell? You must be a cheerleader. Want to be Emerald Man? See you at Drama Club. Saving the World one recyclable at a time? Try Envirothon. Feel a need for Green Slim? See you at the Science Club. The clubs and organizations of CHS help us to explore the pieces of ourselves.
Can you imagine CHS without Winter Ball, Junior Prom, Senior Supper, the Hunt, Varsity Review, school plays, or the organized war called Spirit Week? Student life is the piece of high school that glues the mosaic together.

We have all danced on the speakers at our dances, or cheered our class on during Almost Anything Goes. The upperclassmen have all obsessed over preparations for the Hunt or their first formal dance. All of the students in this yearbook participate in the life of the school. All of the pieces of CHS come together through our shared experiences.

Senior Class History

Senior Class Officers

With a year’s experience under our belts as sophomores, we were determined to compete with the upper classmen at Homecoming and Spirit Week. Through experience gained, we knew we would have an excellent Sophomore Semi-Formal. Our Advisers were Mrs. Rebichaud and Mrs. Cole, and we elected Jessica Baker as Class President. Our homecoming float theme of Egypt placed third at Homecoming. With new confidence we were “In it to win it” shirts during Spirit Week. We even showed up to practice lip sync and dance competition during February vacation. Finding the doors closed by seniors, we still tried our best but managed only a third place finish during Spirit Week. On the bright side, once again we won “Class Face”. We received our class rings during March. We hoped to show off our new “bling” at the Sophomore Semi-Formal, but for some reason the administration told us we had to have that dance in the gym also. Despite having to return to the gym for another “formal” dance, with our dance theme of “Scène in Paris”—blue and silver lights and a pseudo Eifel Tower—we made the best of our night. As sophomore year came to a close most of us did not have our capstone projects done, and many had not uploaded classroom tasks to the mysterious RIPS system.

Senior Class
Senior Year! We entered the high school on a sunny day in August 2009 determined to piece together one great year. Unfortunately, because of over spending we had a $15,000 debt to make up. Fortunately, capstone and portfolio were made much simpler to complete. We had long been told capstone required twenty sources. Now it was ten. Portfolio had required sixteen tasks. Now it was nine. Those of us that had yet to put the pieces of our portfolio together welcomed that news. The mysterious RCTE system mysteriously vanished also. We elected Kerry Hollman as Class President. Mr. Birzanto stayed on as Senior Class Advisor. We spent much time believing rumors that he would quit the job. For Homecoming, we built our float at Kerry’s house. The theme was New York, and we proved junior year was not to be as we came in first place again. Homecoming King and Queen were Nick Bledsoe and Erica Pluta. Despite a great football season, the football team lost both the Homecoming and Thanksgiving game. In October we entered our caps and gowns, the first pieces of our cap. We ordered that signified our high school career was just approaching its end. We signed a “commitment to graduate” diploma at an assembly. As a class, we were reminded of “every senior counts,” that the members of the Class of 2010 should encourage all their classmates to graduate.

On the day of the prom rally, we were our senior year was designed by Ashlee Alba. We planned a great breakfast with family and during an elegant Winter ball at West Valley Inn. We enjoyed our last Sport Week (to see if seniors won for the third year in a row turn to pages 205-207) and danced on the dance floor as far as we could.

It was at this event, when we looked around and saw the same familiar faces of the last twelve years, that we realized that all the pieces of our experiences from the past four years had created wonderful memories. On May 26th, 2010 we held Senior Supper at the Quicksand Country Club. There, we received our yearbook, titled “Pain,” our caps and gowns. Senior Bill pictures, and CBS3’s Attire. On June 7th, it was our Class Day. We read our Senior Literary, our Senior Speech and our Class Will. On June 9th, 2010, a Kerry Hollman delivered her President’s Address at the Rynes Center. We realized the pieces of our high school life, of our adolescence, had come to a close.

As a Class, and as members of the CBS student body, we have pieced together homecoming victories, capstone projects, portfolios, recite books, formal dances, a budget deficit, sports titles, RCTE National Championships, great band performances, Variety Shows, and Drama Productions. Most importantly, we have pieced together friendships and wonderful experiences. It is our hope that the members of the Class of 2010 will continue to piece together wonderful lives. May the pieces in this, the 76th edition of the Rotary Oak, inspire both meaningful memories and memorable futures.

Dear Class of 2010,

The last four years have been special for both of us. I became Principal of Coventry High School when you were freshmen. These last four years we have grown together. You have grown academically and socially. You have contributed to the life of Coventry High School in many ways. Academically, many of you are members of the National and Rhode Island Honor Society. Many of you are on the Honor Roll. Some of you have received early academic awards and will not only graduate this year, but also go on to college.

Members of your class have participated on teams that have won interscholastic titles. Many of you are members of organizations that have brought a vibrant spirit to the high school. Some of you have overcome personal hardships, and many of you have helped a friend succeed at CHS.

Personally, you have helped me grow as an administrator. For that I will be forever grateful. The last four years have seen the “pieces” of your class come together and create a set of shared experiences you will long remember. I sincerely hope your future holds many more great memories.

On behalf of the administration and faculty of Coventry High School, may the pieces of your life continue to be filled with health, honor, and happiness.

Sincerely,
Michael J. Habib
Principal
Mrs Cantino

The Knotty Oak staff proudly dedicates the 76th yearbook to Mrs. Mary Ann Cantino. Mrs. Cantino has been an employee of Coventry Public Schools for thirty years and the Principal's Secretary for the last twenty-three years. During that time, she has been a steady and caring presence at our school. Her indispensable wisdom has guided many students through the sometimes difficult circumstances high school presents to teenagers. Be it a kind smile, a firm hug, a bit of advice, or a stern but friendly reminder of the responsibilities of being an "Oakon". Mrs. Cantino is there for the students of Coventry High.

Mrs. Cantino has also guided many beginning teachers and principals. Numerous employees have sought her advice on how to handle situations with students, parents, and colleagues. Countless principals have been guided by her knowledge of the history of CHS, not to mention her extensive knowledge of the budget process.

This June, Coventry High will lose a wonderful friend and mentor. Mrs. Cantino can retell knowing she has helped shape thousands of lives. The Knotty Oak staff wishes Mrs. Cantino a happy, healthy, and long retirement. Well done, Mrs. C...your memory and presence at CHS will continue to influence the future of the thousands of students and adults you have helped. Goodbye, friend, and may you piece together some beautiful golden years.

Captains Colin Cocaine and Nick Bottella both led the team to a 6-10 record in the competitive Division I. Nick Bottella, a junior, lost only two dual meet matches in his weight class. Senior Colin Cocaine went undefeated through the season and went on to win the State Title in the 152 pound weight class; he was the first Coventry wrestler to win the State Championship since Coach Souza. Colin also represented Rhode Island in the New England Wrestling Tournament. Sophomores Jared Wilson, Zach Wilson, Christian Bottella, and Dylan Olson also contributed to the team’s overall success this year. Ice Hockey

From the very first time the puck dropped onto the ice, the Oakers Hockey Team was destined for a magical season. After last year's difficulties, the players decided to buckle down and once again, the weight of the season. Led by Captain Sam Stenning, and Ryan Galvin, the 2009-2010 Hockey team continued astronomical improvements. They went undefeated in the first 14 games of their season before losing a very difficult overtime game to the first-ranked Portsmouth team. Goalkeepers Mitch Beck and Stephen Patti were able to keep most opponents out of the net throughout the season. The team finished 14-2-1 on the season and entered the playoffs for the first time in four years. Though they lost in the first round, the players put up a great fight and went into double overtime and two shootouts in the first game, followed by a second game that ended in an overtime loss. Four seniors had a huge impact on the team's success this year: Ryan Galvin (goalie), Sam Stenning (captain), defender Mike Koveshki, and goalie Mitch Beck. They will be sorely missed next year, but strong juniors will carry the team forward into more success. Junior Nick Pavia led all of Division II Hockey players in points scored, and Seamus Fennelly made key goals for the Oakers once he recovered from injury. Coventry High School hockey fans can look back on this season with pride and into the future with confidence.

The Coventry Boys Basketball team experienced a very successful season. Despite losing four starters from last year, the Oakers managed to end the year with an impressive 18-6 record. Three of the team members averaged double digits in points scored. Senior Sean Finnegan, Junior Nate Stinchell, and Sophomore Garrett Douglass. Senior Tyler Grabowski, Senior Jon Reust, Tim Painter, Brad Auger, and Danny Stroebing (co-captain) led the team on and off the court, and their leadership will be missed next season. A team short, however, is what propelled the Oakers to a third consecutive appearance in the Division II semifinals. Portsmouth played a tough game and the Oakers fell in a difficult loss. In spite of a season cut short, the Coventry boys played basketball with passion and always drew large crowds wherever they traveled. The Oakers move up to Division I next year, and they hope to continue improving. Under the guidance of Nate Stinchell and Garrett Douglass, the future of the Coventry Basketball team looks bright.

Girls Basketball

This season the Lady Oakies were proudly led by two new coaches, Jared Branch and Darren Beauford. Captains Michaela Ferry, Elise Fortier and Hannah Cole guided the girls to a Division I season record of 9-2, which earned them a place in the playoffs. The Varsity’s starting lineup was composed of Mike Ferry, Gabielle L'Esperance, Hannah Cole, Brooke Willard and Casey Cloutier. The clincher of the Oakies’ season was a tough victory over North Kingstown. They gained further respect after a pubic revenge against North Kingstown. Their first playoff game was against rival BWM, and the Oakies won their season come to a tough end in states. Senior Elise Fortier achieved Third Team All-Division for her efforts in the other league. Michaela Ferry had her best season in both a leader and a scorer. Sophomore Casey Cloutier was an important spark for the Oakies’ defense, while fellow Sophomore Antonio English was an aggressive inside player and a key to the court. Hannah Cole, a junior guard for the Oakies, earned Second Team All-Division honors. Brooke stepped up as an important three-distance player on both offense and defense. Also leading the team was Hannah Cole, who controlled the paint on offense and passed an effective floor. Running wing Tiffany Webster kept defenses on their toes. The defense relied on the leadership of these senior leaders, but the Lady Oakies Basketball Program has a wealth of talent to continue to the court in 2021-22.

Gymnastics

The Coventry gymnastics team celebrated a successful season in the competitive Division I with a final record of six wins and five losses. Senior captains Anita Kunda and Courtney Sauier led the team through a difficult season plagued with injuries. Important victories for the Lady Oakers against Barrington, Middletown, and LaSalle led the team to a fourth-place finish in Division I. A total of ten gymnasts qualified for the State Championships with Courtney Sauier, Julie Later, Tiffany Smith, Haley Crossley, and Stephanie Fitzgerald qualifying in the all-around. Haley Crossley’s seventh-place finish at the State Meet earned her a spot at the New England Championships, where she placed sixth on the balance beam. The outstanding achievement of Haley Crossley, Courtney Sauier, and Stephanie Fitzgerald earned them All-State and All-Division 1 Honors. Freshman Kimme Ascoli, Cassie Champagne, Courtney Larcher, Missy Pacheco, and Michelle Paolucci greatly contributed to the team and will become important assets to the team in the years to come.

Cheerleading

The cheerleaders of Coventry High School are always there to support our outstanding athletes. Whether it is at the football field, the basketball court, or the ice rink, their voices can be heard loud and clear. They lead the crowds in cheers of victory and school spirit. They also display their school spirit in the hallways, wearing uniforms on game days to alert fellow students. Wearing the school colors of red and white, the CHS cheerleaders inspire the student body to come out and support their school. Their rules never fade, nor their faith.

The Coventry High School Music Department offers many performing and non-performing courses. The ensembles prepare year-round, preparing for and performing at home football games, parades, recitals, Varsity Revue, RI Music Educator Festivals, and jazz ensembles. Members of the Music Department accompanied this year's fall musical, "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty." Many of the students singing to the All-State Band or Choir. The level of talent found within the Music Department is an important piece of CHS, but so are its other students.

Non-performing classes such as Guitar Clinic offer kids a chance to learn more about music without the pressure of performing onstage. Other popular courses include Music Theory and History of Rock. Whatever your level of musical talent, the Coventry High School Music Department will have a place for you. Instructors Mr. Rosenfield, Mr. DeGraide, Mrs. Masse, and Mr. Smith invest large amounts of time and effort into making music an enjoyable experience for all students involved.

Music lovers of the CHS community find their place within the school radio station: WCVY 91.5. This creative group broadcasts "a better mix of rock" and their music library is always growing. Each member spends countless shifts running the station and keeping WCVY on the air. The station also broadcasts sporting events and concerts live.

Yearbook

The Yearbook Club is comprised of students involved in the preparation of the annual yearbook, the Rotary Oak. The Yearbook staff, under the direction of faculty advisor Mrs. Johnson and financial advisor Mr. Briones, spent countless hours designing, writing, and photographing for the 37th edition of the Rotary Oak. Senior Editors David Cervantes, Arvin Knudsen, and Danielle Patel worked with Executive Chief Matt Freidel and assistant editors throughout the summer to ensure the book would be a success. Senior Chad Smith and Cameron Thibeault worked diligently on their design challenge. Student Life Committee coordinators also helped make “pieces” of the book.

The Entry

Led by Mrs. Boyle and Ms. Plante, The Entry is a student-run free newspaper that usually publishes eight editions during the course of the school year. Students contribute to the paper by writing stories, taking photos, designing the layout, and editing the editors in print to printing. All students are welcome to publish stories in the school paper, and The Entry also features poetry and creative writing by CHS students.

Nicole Deliberto organizes story ideas for the next edition of The Entry.

Monika Brown gathers everyone's contact information for the upcoming deadline.
Drama Club

The CHS Drama Club produces two productions each year. This fall our talented group of student actors, singers, and dancers put on a wonderful rendition of the new rock musical "Emerald Man." Under the direction of Mr. Wilkinson, the kids met every week for countless hours. The end result was a moving, heartwarming, modernized version of Don Quixote that had everyone asking "who's really crazy?"

Student Council

Although best known for the planning of beloved school activities such as Homecoming, Varsity Revue, and Spirit Week, the CHS Student Council is responsible for many lesser known projects. The council coordinates two annual blood drives, the birthday recognition program, an end of year awards banquet, scheduling of fund raisers in the building, and a food drive. Members also assist with school picture day, faculty appreciation days, and other school and community service projects.

The team is currently practicing for their next performance which is scheduled for the end of the month.

CSA

The Conscription Student Association meets after school most Thursdays. Under the guidance of Mr. Golas, members strive to promote and support American patriotism in Country High School. During holidays, the CSA makes available blank notebooks to other students to sign. These notebooks are then sent to troops in the Middle East. When students are not working on a petition project, they review the latest news and updates from around the country.

The CHS World Language Club promotes understanding and tolerance of other cultures within the school community. Club members visit different countries throughout the year, learning about traditions of other countries, usually accompanied by a fun activity such as cooking classes, language lessons, and cultural experiences. Each November and December, students prepare and present reports on different cultures. The topic of World Language Week, with the help of President Janet Harber and other club members, the World Language Department encourages the student body to acknowledge the significance of recognizing the world's diversity each day of World Language Week by bringing to light countries that are otherwise unfamiliar. The Club Members also take a group trip to New York, where they will visit a world renowned site every day.

The CHS Art Club meets in Miss Alland's room on Tuesdays after school until 3:30 PM. Students, under the advisement of Miss Alland, find space to work on their latest projects. All mediums are welcome: pastels, pastels, colored pencils, even origami! Whether they are completing a class assignment or beginning something new, there is no shortage of creativity in the Art Club.
Mock Trial

The Coventry High School Mock Trial team meets after school most Thursdays in the In-Focus room. The student members create a court case based on given information; they practice techniques such as questioning and cross-examination of witnesses. After months of preparation, the students move to an actual courthouse to deliver their trial in a competition with another school. The members of Mock Trial must dress and think like lawyers in order to be successful in the courthouse.

They are eligible for mock "leadership" positions within CHS Model Leg and the Rhode Island Model Leg. Students involved in the CHS chapter are very proud to be a part of such an immersive model of the United States government.

Envirothon

Envirothon allows students a chance to study all aspects of our environment: forestry, soils, wildlife, and aquatics. Club members compete in the Rhode Island Envirothon Competition, where they present information on a current events topic. Envirothon also runs the second-floor recycling program every Thursday afternoon. Students participate in educational workshops throughout the school year to continue expanding their knowledge about the planet.

The 2009 Homecoming dance held on September 18th, was a great success! After careful planning by the Student Council, over 1000 students walked through the doors of CHS and into an entirely new world. They spent three hours "Dancing through The States" and singing along with the pounding bass of the music. At 10 PM, the night was over and parents came to escort the underclassmen while the Juniors caught rides with Seniors. The Class of 2010 laughed and said farewell to another piece of their lives; their last Homecoming.

October 19th dawned bright and cold for participants in the Homecoming Parade, the weather had little improved by the time the game kicked off at 3pm. Despite the rain, the streets of Coventry were lined with fans who watched as the Marching band, cheerleaders, four classes, Student Council, Homecoming King and Queen nominees, and from Feinstein Middle School to 4th Main Street, Troupe Avenue, and Chs. The Class of 2010 won the contest with their theme of "New York." Other grades provided some stiff competition with "Hollywood" and the Sophomores with "Hawaii" had wide floats as well. The students then donned gear to watch their Oakers football team take on a tough opponent, Southport. At halftime, Nick Balcon and Erin Flynn were crowned as Homecoming King and Queen. Overall, the day was a huge success and a fun time for all involved.

Varsity Revue 2009 was a huge success for the HS Student Council and all participants. MCs Sidney Richar and Brandon Malota entertained the audience with all of the talent available—"On a Boat." Although the number of shows was limited to only Thursday and Friday nights this year, there was no shortage of talent on stage. Jazz Band and Select Choir represented the Music Department of Coventry High School, and their performance was nothing less than stellar. The Jazz Band performances featured solos by David Cianciello and James Allen. Jess Baker had a wonderful dance routine designed for the evening and moved the audience. Kristen Flanagan sang a rendition of Taylor Swift's "Crazier," accompanied by Nicole Ebbots on the guitar and Jennifer Green on the 4th. Senior Pat Crowley made five appearances on stage without a single mistake; the MC's pondered renaming the evening "The Pat Crowley Show." In honor of the amusement of the audience, The Kebab advertised and uncovered of hidden talent in CHS, and the acts put on stage did not disappoint.

For the second time in seven years, students of all grades came together for the Thanksgiving pep rally. Under the supervision of the "Pep Rally committee," the students cheered on the fall sports teams and celebrated the last pitch of football season. Mr. Redmond returned to play the last Windsor Wizard for another win, and dozens gloriously tormented the band with the "W" theme. Dancing, the cheerleaders, and the ROTC Drill Team also made appearances throughout the rally. The "Oakers" biggest fan, Mr. Morris, was in attendance, and the fall sports teams gave their support from the sidelines. The end of the pep rally, the near-lifted wizard, challenged Mr. Morris to an arm-wrestling contest. The strength of the Oakers impressed Mr. Morris. The 2009 Pep Rally was the result of the joint efforts of teachers and students. They made banners, designed posters, and organized the spirit-raising activities. CHS seniors left early that Wednesday afternoon with their spirits soaring high.

December 12th, the Four Class Executive Board held the annual Breakfast with Santa in the new cafeteria. This was the eighth time that the Board opened its doors for children to come enjoy a festive breakfast. Volunteers, many dressed as Santa’s helpers, elves and reindeer served breakfast, painted faces, and told kids at the door. Other students guided them in making “reindeer food” and ornaments, both completed with plenty of glitter.

At breakfast, the children were invited to take a picture with Santa (played by Erik Simpson), The Elf (Kay Abadmohsen) made an appearance with his “Who” (Lindsay Costello). Mrs. Crenshaw and Helman were present to keep the room spare alive and well. The room became very popular with the little children; other students present were jubilant about the appearance of Santa. The breakfast ended at 11 AM. Children brought their families to the breakfast, over two hundred other members of the community attended. This year was a great time for all who attended, the Board has a great example to follow.

The Junior and Senior classes of Kenmore High School held Winter Ball January 22nd at the West Valley Inn. Seniors chose not to use a seating chart for the "Snow Ball", but no one had any problems finding a table to use. Students ate and laughed their way through dinner, but were impatient for the real action to start. After a long week of midterms exams, the upperclassmen were more than ready to let their troubles on the dance floor. The DJ opened the dance floor at 8 P.M. He took requests and played popular hits that kept everyone moving until 11 P.M. Winter Ball 2010 was a night of cold weather and warm memories. Spirit Week is a time-honored tradition at Cousino High School. For one week out of each school year, the four classes are divided against one another in a competition to see which one has the most spirit. From the silent disco outside the school during lunch to the poster contest on the walls, the entire student body is encouraged to participate in the annual celebration.

Spirit Week begins with the annual pep rally on Monday. Each class is assigned a theme, and students dress up accordingly. The class with the most spirited students wins the competition.

On Tuesday, the theme is Crazy Hair and Costumes. Students are encouraged to show off their creativity by dressing up in wacky costumes and having crazy hair.

On Wednesday, the theme is Red and White Day. Each student is encouraged to wear red and white, which is Cousino's school colors. The class with the most spirited students wins the competition.

On Thursday, the theme is Senior Spirit Day. Seniors are encouraged to dress up in wild and crazy costumes, and the class with the most spirited students wins the competition.

On Friday, the theme is the Lip Sync Competition. Each class is given a song, and the class that performs the most spirited performance wins the competition.

Throughout Spirit Week, the Senior Class aims to maintain their pride at each event with thunder sticks. They are clearly labeled for anyone who can't hear the resounding chants of "Senior Pride!"

Once again, the Covington High School student body gathered to cheer on their classmates at Almost Anything Goes 2010. One of the high schools of the annual events of Spirit Week found the gymnasium crowded with fans wearing Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman colors. Many students were already familiar with the pieces of fun, including JELLO wrestling, ice cream charades, a pie eating contest, a water balloon toss, the mummy wrap, and a relay race. Juniors of 2011 took the school by surprise with both JELLO wrestling events. However, the seniors dug their heels in and refused to give up. The Class of 2010 won the egg drop, swept the annual game of ice cream musical chairs, a water balloon toss, the mummy wrap, and a relay race. At the end of the night, however, the Seniors were the top dogs once again. The Senior Class of 2010 won a memorable night in the midst of final Spirit Week.

Sam Cotter

I am very proud of you! As you begin to fly, spread your wings, pursue your passion, follow your heart, and success will be yours...

Aml,Dad

There are days when important things need to be said and this certainly fills the criteria. I cannot help having a feeling of trepidation. Actually, it is a feeling that is a lot closer to dread. As I sit back and think about the minute I saw your little face, it was simply love at first sight. Having you was one of the happiest days of my life and no matter how old you get, I will always think of you as my little girl. When you were younger we could go shopping and in every store, you would ask me to buy you something. Not only did you have a face of an angel, but you could persuade me with your little green eyes and a simple "please Mommy". How could I ever say no to you? As you grow older, things were not as simple. We did not always agree on friends, boyfriends, and curfew, but in the end, we became the best of friends.

Remember that I love you very much and because of you, I have been able to experience so much joy in my life. I have had the wonderful experience of watching you grow up into a beautiful young woman with only better things yet to come. For that I am so grateful. All too quickly you have reached this day that you have been looking forward to. For me it is a moment I fear with all my heart. It is the day I say "goodbye" to my little girl; it is the day we grow a little further apart. As you soon will be heading off to college, you might be scared, but I know you will prosper and will learn to trust in yourself as I trust you. Just smile and know that I am with you always. I am so very proud of you, my beautiful baby girl. You have filled my heart with pride through all of your accomplishments. Your determination is your magic wand.

We love you!

Carly,
Ryan,

From a baby, to a boy, to a young man, you were full of life and surprises. Trying to keep up with you has been many things, but mostly challenging and rewarding.

As you move on to new adventures, I will be there to support you and believe in you. I am so proud of all that you have accomplished. You have become the type of man I always hoped you would be.

(I just wish it had not happened so fast!)

Believe in hard work. No one will hand you the future you want. The ladder to success is steep, but take one step at a time and you will get to the top.

Remember that even when there is no path in front of you, you can always make your own. Do not be afraid to take chances or stumble, because eventually you will get to where you want to be.

You are dedicated, intelligent, and full of spirit, and I know you are going to have an incredible life.

Believe in yourself to the depths of your being. Showcase your talent that your spirit is freeing. Know in your heart when the going gets slow, that your faith in yourself will continue to grow. Do not look backward when others may doubt it is your life to live, you must live it throughly. Learn from your errors, do not dwell in the past, never withdraw from a world that is vast. Believe in yourself! Feel the best that is you, let your spirit prevail, open a doorway that is true. Dad, do nothing down on you now, proud of who you have become and what you have accomplished. We are so proud of you!

just singing along

The annual CMHS Lip Sync took place on March 16, 2010 in the auditorium. All four classes prepared their own solo and group lip syncs as part of the Spirit Week competition. The Freshmen Class started off the individual category with a cover of Chris Brown's dance hit, and even dared to make fun of Mr. Bristow's dancing skills. They were followed by the Sophomores and Kristina Andres, who made an appearance as "T. Swift." Dean Sadikowski represented the Juniors with Mr. Rogers not so normal dog in the neighborhood. However, Vlad Ivan and the Seniors took the other classes by how Lip Sync is really done. Michael Jackson twisted through all of the speakers and Vlad's rendition of "Pretty Young Thing" to Mrs. Kelly had everyone in an uproar. Group Lip Syncs came next as the Freshmen set up a classic heartbreak with the song "Build Me Up Buttercup." Sophomores had a medley from the popular TV sitcom, Glee, that covered Journey, Aerial Linerite, and other hit songs. The Juniors brought out the WHale with performances of Britney Spears, Michael Jackson, and the Jonas Brothers. Senior Nathan once again stole the show, however, with a compilation of classic Broadway show tunes. From Disney's Touching opening up the act with "Be Our Guest!" to the moment when Aneg Fid decided to do "Defying Gravity," the Senior Class never missed a single beat. They won both Lip Sync events and provided their audience with memories to last a lifetime.

Pieces

The Junior Class performed their Group Lip Sync of "One in the City". They had to stay on stage throughout the decision.

Kerry Finazzo stole the show in the Ward's "Legally Blonde" while her Senior sister sits in the background.

Above: From the medley to the performance, to the awards, it was an event. Lip Sync is one of the biggest Spirit Week activities for any student.

Kayaks and Catapults

Physics Olympics is a school-wide field trip for all students enrolled in Physics 1 and Physics 2. The first-year Physics students create teams of five to compete in different events: Ship the Chip, Drop the Bomb, Siege Engine, Newspaper Catapult, and Cardboard Kayak. Mr. Golub’s AP Physics 2 students help the Physics and Math teachers run the event, held at Camp Westwood. The students set up food, monitor scores, and help students with Cardboard Kayaks. Three students often volunteer as Lifeguards during the Cardboard Kayak event. The theme of the 2010 Physics Olympics was "Lunatics: A State of Mind", Physics 2 students decorated the gold, silver, and bronze medals which were awarded to winning teams. Notable performances include the Siege Engine of Team Bonz, the Drop the Bomb from Team USS Presidents, and the Cardboard Kayaks of Team Veloci-Raptors and of Team X-Raiders. At the end of the day, Mr. Golub awarded medals for each event, as well as Best Theme and Best Overall. The winners of Best Theme were Team YMCA, who had a theme song and danced at each event. The Physics Olympics Champions of 2010 was team "Three Queens and a Joker", who scored very well in each of the five categories to win their gold medals.

Unified Basketball

For the first time in school history, and with the help of the Rhode Island Intercollegiate League, CHS organised a Unified Learning basketball team. Unified Sports athletes and partners improve their physical fitness, sharpen their skills, challenge the competition, and help to overcome prejudices about intellectual disability. Coached by Joe Bishop and Chuck Jones, players were paired with a community partner-athlete to assist them with the game. Playing in front of the CHS student body during spirit week was the highlight of the season. Although the CHS team was defeated by Hendrickson, the players did great! CHS principal, Michael Hobin, commented, "It was so GREAT to see the celebration and the team work."

Coventry High School honors its distinguished students at several award ceremonies throughout the school year, with the most prominent being CHS Awards Night in May. Other events include Service Learning Night, Sports Awards Night, and the Music Department banquets. Students are rewarded for dedication, intelligence, and service to their community during the year.

coventry graduation 2010

The Ceremony of Commencement for the Class of 2010 took place on June 19th in the URI Ryan Center. In the crowded back hallways, nearly 400 Coventry High School Seniors counted down the moments until their long journey would finally end. As Pomp and Circumstance began playing, the Senior Class entered the Ryan Center. Their Class Officers stood waiting upon the stage, and under the watchful eye of Principal Michael Robin they filed into town. Kinetic Beanoes performed the National Anthem for the last time of their high school careers. The AFROTC Chant: American POWs, CHS Principal Mr. Holcomb, addressed his last assembly class for one last time. Kerry Holman gave her President’s address, followed by David Garinello as Salutatorian and Robert Beranez as Valedictorian. The Select Choir performed “You’ll Never Walk Alone” as a tribute to their seniors. After what seemed like an eternity of school, the Class of 2010 crossed the stage to receive their diplomas. Kerry Holman, Class President and mother, was waiting to hug or shake hands with every new graduate. After a performance by the CHS Advanced Band, Holly Mann and Victoria Lavery performed a dance of the Coventry High Alma Mater. Student Body President Sydney Richter led the graduates in the ringing of their medals, symbolically becoming CHS Alumni in the process. After Mort President’s finales, the new Alumni of Coventry High School left the Ryan Center to begin building pieces of their lives.

Colophon

In 2010, Coventry High School experienced a year of renewed school spirit and a commitment to make every student count. The 76th edition of The Knotty Oak records the events and people of the year as they combine to form the true Oaker community. In an attempt to capture the identity of the school, the Knotty Oak focuses on the ever-evolving life of students and faculty in this 248-page publication that documents our days at CHS.

Printed in 80-pound gloss paper and scheduled for late spring delivery, the book also includes an eight-page gatefold and a sixteen-page supplement, delivered in September. The 248-page four-color process reproduction features portraits by Steve Medeiros of Coventry, Rhode Island. With a trim size 9 inches by 12 inches, the 750 copies of The Knotty Oak use Adobe Herff Jones Gaudy Old Style; layouts and texts are produced using Herff Jones eDesign. Endpapers are printed on Vibracolor White Form Color Litho.

Proud of the school that unifies us all, The Knotty Oak 2010 editors present the “Pieces” of CHS community as a permanent reminder of the sum of our parts.
