The 78th Edition: "Roots"

Student Life

At Coventry High School the year flies by. For some this is an exhilarating first experience, and for others a chance to look back and reflect on four long years. But no matter the circumstances, lasting memories will be forged here. Freshmen learn to navigate the school corridors and get a taste of the high school life. Sophomores return wiser from their previous year, and ready to take on any challenge presented to them. Juniors scramble to complete science fair projects and NECAP tests, all while looking forward to their time. Seniors soak in all that they can in the limited time they have left here, all while preparing themselves for the unknown future. Truly, no matter which class you belong to, the student life at CHS is buzzing with vitality and spirit.

A group of young women are captured in a moment of intense musical performance. They are wearing vibrant, flowing robes in shades of yellow, white, and red. Their arms are raised, and their mouths are open in song, conveying a sense of joy and energy. The background is dark, making the performers stand out.

Athletics

Athletics are an important part of any high school. Coventry High athletics are no exception. Deep rooted friendships and bonds are developed as students compete against other Rhode Island schools. With over twenty varsity sports and several state championships teams, Oaker pride is alive and well.

People

It is the people, not the programs that make Coventry High special. Everyday, in every classroom and every hallway, over 2000 people encounter smiling faces and warm greetings. This kindness makes people feel like CHS is a second home.

Student Life

Freshmen Orientation

The roots of the freshman have started to grow! The freshmen go for orientation for their first big day view of high school. The Freshmen are officially welcomed to Coventry High School, ready for a new change of scene.. New opportunities will be presented, new friends and, new memories will be made. The Freshman will start their first year of high school, change is yet to come!

Homecoming

All of the grades gathered in the gym for another Homecoming dance. The experience was for some their first, and others their last Homecoming. The gym was decorated in both orange and green. The gym was flooded with life, and loud music that echoed through the high school. The Homecoming dance was filled with moments to remember.

Homecoming

October 1, 2011, Coventry High School held the annual Homecoming. The parade started at the Shawn Feinstein Middle School and marched to CHS. The theme was Western Platoon Cartoons of the 1990's.

The Homecoming Tradition continued as the Oakers fought an intense game. At half time we crowned Talia Pecchia and Joe Nardolillo Queen and King.

Powder Puff

In the second year of the new tradition, a series of "Powder Puff" games were played by the girls of Coventry High school. The freshmen battled the sophomores and the juniors fought the seniors. In this exciting reversal of traditional football, boys donned tutus and cheered the girls on. Everybody pitched in, teachers taking the role of referees, students and parents joined together to keep the concession stand going and people of the community came to show their spirit for Coventry.

The guys join together on the field, with energy and spirit!

Teacher of the Year

Mrs. Boyle teaches her students in a way that encourages passion and interest, combining unconventional methods with new technologies. She puts her motto into practice with vigor, going so far as to wear a constant reminder of her beliefs each day: a bracelet that bears the Italian phrase, "Ancora Imparo" meaning "I am still learning". In winning the award, Mrs. Boyle has been presented with a $10,000 scholarship opportunity from Johnson and Wales University. Additionally, she won multiple technological programs for the school that are sure to benefit the students and staff for years to come. Everyone at Coventry High School is incredibly proud of Mrs. Boyle and wishes her the best in future endeavors.

The Hunt

2011 HUNT was held on October 11th. The parade of costumes features teams of 4 in a wide array of outfits; ranging from Danny Phantom and The Lunch Ladies to Vampires and The Geek Squad. When the costume competition was completed, teams eagerly waited on for the host's explanation of the hunt rules. The HUNT portion of the evening sent students running to scattered corners of campus to retrieve clues and CHS

Varsity Revue

The Coventry High School student council held their annual Varsity Revue on the 17th and 18th of November. The show was a great success featuring a variety of dance numbers, vocal solos and duets. Seniors Aaron Flores and Mackenzie Richter kept the audience entertained throughout the show with their comedic emceeing; which complemented the theme Viva Las Oakers.

Performers Katie Auld, Matt Curtin, Chris DeFilippis, Marissa Depietro, Katelyn Doovan, Davi Geer, Jennifer Green, Alexandra Johnson, Nick Mowry, and Richard Pare got on the stage for their final performance as seniors in the show. First time performers Colin Campbell, Madison Cook-Hines and Matt Fusco were warmly welcome to the stage; as well as enjoyed by all.

Annual performances of CHS band, Select Choir were once again on the stage to entertain the audience.

Pep Rally

The powder puff cheerleaders perform stunts and pipe up the crowd.

The students are excited and can't wait for the pep rally to start!

Excitement rippled through the Coventry High School gym on November 23rd for the Autumn Pep Rally. Students cheered for the fall athletics including members of the boys and girls cross country, boys and girls soccer, and girls tennis teams. The Boys Hockey team was congratulated for their division 2 championship win, and the Varsity and Junior Varsity Girls Volleyball teams were praised for their Division One state championship win. The ROTC Drill Team performed an exceptional routine, and the Football team was pumped up for the Thanksgiving game against their rivals, West Warwick High School.

This year, CHS supported Breast Cancer Awareness Month by holding a PINK OUT. Our Career Center, Pink Out organizers donated EASt Cancer t-shirts printed by Graphic Communications and donated proceeds and change to the American Cancer Society. The event, along with others throughout the year, demonstrates the civic responsibility of the CTC and the student body.

Chris Herren

Chris Herren came to Coventry High to speak about his struggle with drugs and the trials he was forced to overcome. Chris Herren's motivational story kept all of Coventry High captivated. As Chris spoke, a pin drop could have been easily heard. His words engaged the entire student body. Chris Herren's speech echoed through the gym, the weight of his words heavy. His was an eye-opening story about living above the influence and doing what is right, even if you are the only one standing.

HAIR!

In the fall of 2011, Coventry's drama club performed "Hair". It was captivating and the audience had a chance to interact with character's in the play. Hair brought Coventry High back in time to the 1960's. The main character, Claude, came to New York City and encountered a group of hippies. Quickly forming friends with the entourage, Claude eventually fell in love with one of the hippies named Sheila; a daughter from a rich family. The plot twists when Claude joins the service and is shipped off to the Vietnam war. The play was a group effort, even teachers Mr. Pingley and Ms. Calise joined in. The play showed the exciting and true colors of each character were shown.

Community Night

Displaying Oaker Pride

On January 18, 2012 Coventry High school opened its doors for the Class of 2016. The newest Oakers established their roots and learned about clubs, organizations, and course offerings. Each department set up displays in both cafeterias and was represented by teachers and students. Athletics, World Language Club, Dance Team, Environthon, Honors Society, The Yearbook and the Cheerleading Club encouraged students to get involved. Each Career Center program opened its doors for students to explore. Everyone enjoyed the "flash mob" of HAIR performed by the Drama Club. It was a great night to show off the talent and treasures of CHS.

students are too stubborn to let a cold weather get in the way. They simply wouldn't allow for the 2012 Winter Ball. The glittering annual gala held at the West Valley Inn, and students turned up in their very best. Together friends ate, laughed, and danced the night away. The dance floor has been small and crowded, but everyone managed to have fun. Although the night of frivolity ended at the early hour of eleven, every attendee left knowing this night would live on in their memory for all time.

March 5-March 9, 2012 marked the annual Spirit Week. Again this year, students enjoyed coming to school on the first day of spirit week in pajamas. After school, classes competed in Human Trouble. On Tuesday students wore their best costumes and hats, hoping to score points for their class. After school was the annual dance competition with each class strutting their stuff for bragging rights. Wednesday was the most competitive Color Wars day ever. Face makeup, headbands, and bright shirts donned almost 1800 students. Following Color Wars was after school Ping Pong and an evening of competition with Anything Goes. Thursday saw students dressed with their best on Formal Day. Competition continued after school with Class Feud. Coventry High came together on Friday with Red and White Day; a day when all students show their true Oaker spirit. The week concluded with the Bake Off and Lip Sync Contest at night. After 8 incredible acts, the winners were announced. Overall, first place went to Seniors, followed by Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen respectively. Spirit week continues to be one of the most memorable weeks of the school year.

Controlled Chaos!

On March 7, 2012, all four classes of CHS continued the tradition of the battle of the classes. Teams of twelve participated in multiple events including musical ice cream chairs, the balloon toss, the egg drop, the egg pass, mummy wrapping, hula hoop pass and pie eating. Again this year, the students expressed their allegiance to their class by sporting class colors. The night ended with the crowd-favorite obstacle course. This year, the Class of 2013 took the trophy and bragging rights for the next year.

It is here, in the clubs and organizations of CHS, that the roots of student life strengthen and grow. Clubs offer an opportunity for students to find those with similar interests, help the community, and learn incredible new things. From the rocking radio station to the swinging Swing Team, from the Conservative Student Association working to honor veterans to the Drama Club's outstanding performances, the clubs at CHS provide a warm environment for people to mature.

of the entire staff of Coventry High School let me be the first to congratulate you on reaching the important milestone of high school graduation.

of this year's yearbook is "roots." Our nickname, the "Oakers", is named after the long, tall, majestic oak tree. Like that tree, many of you have strong roots. Your "roots" include your families, elementary and middle school experiences, and your own experiences. These experiences have shaped your own growth and will help you continue to develop into resourceful, compassionate and responsible citizens.

here at the high school have included both academic and extra-curricular success. Many of you participated in all of the schools offerings. The "roots" of 2012 includes those at the top of the class and those that struggled but persevered to complete graduation requirements. Your "roots" also include all state musicians, all state athletes, honor roll students, Skills USA winners, Unified Basketball stars, "Hair" stars, "Stu-Co" members, Spirit Week memories; and most of all, that which makes our "roots" grow strongest, the extraordinary friendships forged by the Class of 2012.

It is my pleasure to serve as your principal. You have been one of my favorite classes since I arrived in 1994. May the experiences developed here at CHS enable you to reach for the sky without fear of falling like the majestic mighty oak tree. I wish you success in all of your future endeavors.

As we knew it changed the moment we stepped in the hallways of Coventry High School, a baby-faced nation of freshmen looking to plant their seeds securely. The Class of 2012 was the largest class in the district. Although still striving to get our bearings, we persevered against tougher classes and intimidating seniors. We attempted to master the RIEPS system and were strong contenders during our very first Spirit Week, we won Color Wars! By June, we had survived our first round of final exams and were ready to move on. In we were sophomores celebrating the removal of the infuriating RIEPS system. But we quickly learned more challenges loomed ahead. Capstone projects, a long-time dread, became realities. Advisors egged us on to collect our portfolios. History teachers presented us with History Day requirements. In the end, we came through, as before. For the second year in a row blue was our primary Spirit Week color, and once again we won Color Wars. It was with a sense of relief that we shed our underclassmen status and donned the junior

 CAP testing was considered a graduation requirement. The Class of 2012 felt the pressure, and rose

 When Class Day came along we poked fun at the many and varied personalities in the Class of 2011.
 In the lightheartedness, it was with a heavy heart we said good-bye to our friends and tuned our rings to our growth into full-fledged seniors. This year we entered the hallways of CHS as we had for the past three years. However, we had changed. We were older, more careworn, battered by winds of chance and toughened by experience. Our delicate saplings had been warmed by good times and chastened by bad. Now the Class of

Juniors

A part of the Class of 2013 presents its own unique challenges and rewards for each junior. Although they are not yet mighty oaks, they are well on their way to success. Their roots have taken, their trunk stronger from experience. Nothing, not NECAP nor Science Fair, can stop them now. This year they let their talents shine in the Homecoming Parade with a Wild Thornberries float and in a surprise upset, won first place in the boat judging competition. They scramble to collect tasks for their portfolios all while engaging a friendly rivalry with the seniors. Although they lost the Powderpuff Game to the Class of 2012, the lucky Class of '13
